HEN RIDES IN AUTO.

C. M. Wing Has a Few Which is Fond of Motoring.

A hen which has become an automobile enthusiast is one of the possessions of C. M. Wing of Greenville, S. C. She haunts the garage, and many times has been taken on trips about the city in her owner's motor car. No place in the tonneau is hers when she travels; she is a sightseer, and she takes a perch upon the fold of the wind shield. Of her Mr. Wing says:

"The hen is called Pet. She has chosen the garage as her loafing place, and is always ready for a ride, having driven over the city many times. As some one remarked, 'At the Wings' even the chickens like an automobile."

Mr. Wing is the owner of a touring car, which carries seven people unless his bulldog Jack is along; then it carries only six. And Jack picks his seat; he must have the place beside the driver, or there is trouble. "Our friends always deem it wise to humor him without delay," says Mr. Wing, who declares that the dog is an "enthusiastic motorist."

AIRSHIPS MADE AT HOME.

"How did you come to have an airship? Really, I don't see how you can afford so expensive a luxury."

"I made it myself from the broken machines that have fallen on my lands."—Megendorfer Blaetter.

HIS FINISH.
"Give woman the credit she deserves," the suffragette cried, "and where would man be?"

"If she got all the credit she wanted he'd be in the poorhouse," sneered a coarse person in the rear of the hall.—Stray Stories.

AGONIZING ITCHING.

Eczema For a Year—Got No Relief Even at Skin Hospital—In Despair Until Cuticura Cured Him.

"I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles, feet, arms and scalp. Scratching made it worse. Thousands of small red pimples formed and these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so, the chief surgeon saying: 'I never saw such a bad case of eczema.' But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I almost gave up in despair. After suffering agonies for twelve months, I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with Cuticura Soap and Pills, and I was completely cured. Henry Searle, Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 19, 1907."
