Bad Breath

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles."—Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.

Some people go the gloomy ways because the sunshine is said to produce freckles.

There are lots of valentines going around with hearts on their sleeves these days.

City and Town Percentage.

Buffalo pays 84½ per cent. of the county taxes; the towns pay 14½ per cent. That makes 99 per cent., according to the returns. What becomes of the other 1 per cent. is not stated in the board of supervisors. The relation of city to county—call it once more the gross inequality existing between the two in point of authority. The towns have as many votes in the board of supervisors as the city has. The towns have one-fifth of the population of the county. They have but one-seventh of the county tax, and yet they cling like grim death to the idea that they shall retain an equality of voting strength in the county legislature. This is not a new complaint on the part of cities, but it is a perpetual injustice that should be righted.—Buffalo News.

Loss of Lineage.

Of the destruction of Messina a by-result is the loss of lineage and all trace of family. Many children, too young to know their surnames or to pronounce them intelligently, were rescued, and their names, fortunes, titles, descents and origin have been absolutely cut off. They can tell no more than that they are "Bimbo" or "Bambina," "Nino" or "Nina." Many were obviously children whom women of rank have borne and loved and nurses tended. Italians take root in their provincial cities and it often happens that a family has no connection beyond the walls. Even if distant uncles and aunts exist, they can not recognize children so young. Documents exist to attest the civil standing of many rescued adults, but the young children begin the world without genealogy or rights.

St. Edmund's Hall.

St. Edmund's Hall, Oxford, the independence of which seems threatened by neighboring Queen's College, is now the sole survivor of the original "halls" from which university life arose at Oxford. It bears the name not of the martyred Saxon monarch but of Archbishop Edmund Rich, who possibly about 1219 delivered near this spot the first Oxford lectures on Aristotle. This legend once enabled the present principal to retort that if Dante really visited Oxford he might conceivably have studied at St. Edmund's Hall, but not at Queen's College, which did not then exist.—Westminster Gazette.

No Tender Miselves.

"Why don't you sue him for breach of promise?"
"Aw, he had the post-card habit."
"What of that?"
"A man doesn't put much sentiment on a picture of the stock-yards."
—Kansas City Journal.

Suffered Misery

"I suffered miserably," writes Mrs. Mattie L. Bishop, of Waverly, Va. "Very often I would have to go to bed until it wore off. Everything I ate made me miserable and I could not even wash the dishes after a meal. My husband begged me to try CARDUI, but I had tried so many medicines I didn't want to. However, for his sake I tried CARDUI and before I had taken one bottle I felt all right. I can now do all my work and recommend CARDUI to every woman."

Are you one of the thousands of women who suffer as Mrs. Bishop suffered? Don't be discouraged—

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

It has relieved thousands, when other remedies have failed. You owe it to yourself to try this great remedy, for it is only reasonable to believe it will help you, too, since it has benefited so many others.

Cardui is a purely vegetable tonic, containing no injurious drugs, and therefore perfectly harmless and good for young and old. It acts gently on the delicate female constitution and leaves no bad after effects.

Try CARDUI—it can't harm you—it will surely help you. At all druggists.
