LINGERING LA GRIPPE COUGH. G. Vacher, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of la grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY AND TAR and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Take no substitute. Dr. J. M. Jones.

A batch of fourteen were up before Mayor Ludwig Tuesday for violating the bicycle ordinance, and were assessed one dollar and costs, amounting to three dollars each. The matter has occasioned considerable comment and the mayor has been quite severely criticised for picking out such a muddy day for ordering the enforcement of the ordinance.

There are people at winter resort hotels so inconsistent and unreasonable that they complain at the office on rainy days because there is no sunshine in the sun parlors. Last season a woman at one of the hotels made quite a disturbance because there was not an oriental rug on her bedroom floor. She said she had heard all the rooms in the hotel were thus sumptuously furnished. No doubt this woman was more familiar with rag or ingrain carpets than Persian floor covering; otherwise she would not have, as the children say, "made a fuss." The apprehension some folks manifest lest they do not get their money's worth, is absolutely sad.—Metropolis.

LA GRIPPE QUICKLY CURED. "In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called La Grippe" says F. L. Hewett, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and I have never since been troubled with Grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations for these ailments. For sale by all druggists.

PNEUMONIA CAN BE PREVENTED.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by all druggists.

Scene in Portugal at the Rio Porto Vineyards.

CARRYING THE PORT GRAPES TO THE WINERY, ON THE HEADS OF MEN AND WOMEN, NEAR THE VALLE DE BENEZIZ WHERE THEY ARE DUMPED IN THE MASHING VATS TO BE TRODDEN FOR PORT WINE.

The rugged hills with projecting rocks of brown stone and shale containing a large quantity of iron, make it impossible to use wagons here hence the grapes have to be carried to the treading vat or larger as they are called, and some are large enough for twenty persons to tread, which they do dancing to music furnished by the proprietor.

ALFRED SPEER,

Burgandy wine grower of New Jersey whose Port Grape wine and Burgandy rivals the world, imported the Port Grape vines many years ago, and planted vineyards in the Passaic Valley N. J. The soil in Passaic county, New Jersey, is identical to that of de Menetiz. Speer's New Jersey Vineyards are situated in the Passaic valley below the mountain range and the grapes are carted to the winery in the town of Passaic where they are mashed between rollers made of rubber, which do not break the seeds, and made into wine. These grand wines of Speer's that have mellowed in flavor in the course of years of ripening, are the choicest wines in this country and can only be obtained by paying a price that is higher than new wines from western vineyards. Mr. Speer deems it necessary for a healthy wine that it be allowed years to mature in wood to get rid of its coarse parts; with this object he keeps his wines several years in fumigated cellars and frequently racks before bottling or offering for sale. The reputation of Speer's wines as a valuable medicinal and family wine extends around the world. Grocers and Druggists sell Speer's Wines and Brandy.
