Sidney Belton, a colored man, was before Mayor Ludwig Monday and assessed $100 and costs, for disposing of "red eye." Seventy-five dollars of the amount was suspended on condition that he sins no more.

Upon investigation it has been found that F. S. Cranford, who died some weeks ago, and who was supposed to have one thousand dollars life insurance and some building and loan stock, had neither. He had surrendered his stock some time ago, and had failed to keep the premium paid on his life insurance.

The firm of Morrison & Smith have dissolved partnership. G. N. Smith retires and D. F. Morrison continues the business. These gentlemen have made many friends during their business career in Daytona, and Mr. Morrison and his able assistants will give his patrons the same attention the firm has in the past.

S. H. Gove, after having been awarded the contract for erecting Mr. Schantz's buildings, started on his return trip to Nassau Friday of last week. After completing a contract he is now working on he will return to Daytona and commence work on the Lily Water plant. The plant will be in operation by the first of November.

Some citizens of Daytona are taking it upon themselves to dictate to the city council regarding the widening of the streets. At the last meeting of that body it was recommended that the members make a tour of the streets and mark for removal such trees as deemed best, to better protect the interests of the city. The present city council are all business men of ability and can, no doubt, look after this matter as well, and possibly a little better than any of the meddlers.

During a winter visit to Florida, Andrew Carnegie attended a service in a little negro church. When the contribution plate came around, Mr. Carnegie dropped $5 upon it. After the contents of the plate had been counted the clergyman arose and announced: Brethren and sisters, the collection this evening seems to figure $6.44, and if the $5 bill contributed by the gentleman from the north is genuine the repairs on the sanctuary will begin immediately."—San Francisco Argonaut.
