

THE DAYTONA GAZETTE-NEWS.

No. 28.

Daytona, Florida, Dec. 21, 1901.

Edw. Fitzgerald, Publisher

C. C. BARNES

at the NOVELTY STORE

for anything in the following lines: viz

Stationery	Newspapers	Magazines
Books	Musical Goods	Artist's Supplies
Confectionery	Fruit	Nuts
Jewelry	Cloaks	Watches
Games	Toilet Articles	Pocket Knives
Fishing Tackle	Sporting Goods	Games
Baskets	Bird Cages and	Glass
Kodaks	Supplies	School Supplies
Gift Supplies	Window Shades	Masks
Boys	Toys	Notions

Wiley's and Wiley's Chocolates always fresh. Sewing machines for sale, rent, and repaired. All sorts of tools and machinery repaired promptly. Picture Frames Made to Order.

You Cannot Find What You Want... Why! Call on BARNES.

The Big BEACH STREET FRUIT STORE

Full Line of Fruits, Confectionery, Cigars and Tobacco. We Carry the Finest Line of Candies in the City, at the Lowest Prices. All Goods Delivered Promptly. Fresh mixed nuts 20c a lb., 2 lb. for 35c. Florida Pecans, 20c a lb., 2 lb. for 35c. English Walnuts 20c a lb., 2 lb. for 35c. Fresh mixed candy 15c a lb., 2 lb. 25c. Home made candy 20c a lb., 2 lb. 35c. The pound box fine chocolates 50c. Half pound box fine chocolates 25c.

Schrafft's and Lowmyer's Candies.

Assorted baskets of fruit put up to order on short notice.

Agency for Egyptian Empire Cigarettes—wholesale and retail.

PETER CARELLAS, Proprietor.

Daytona, Florida, Phone 74.

WALLACE,

the Curio Man.

is back to Daytona, and has opened his store in the building next to Males's Hardware Store. He has a larger line of Curios and Leather Goods than before.

CALL AND SEE HIM.

SOME DAINITIES.

We have just received a large stock of goods manufactured by the National Biscuit Co. They are strictly high grade and nothing can be found to equal them. Here are some of them.

Graham Wafers
Brownie Wafers
Fruit Cake
Almond Bon Bons
Butter Gems
Five O'clock Teas
Oswego Crackers
Minute Wafers
Water Biscuit

Morrell's Breakfast Bacon, the finest that money can buy.

We have the largest and finest line of cereal foods in the city.

We have the largest assortment high grade canned goods in the county. The prices of course are right.

E. T. CONRAD & CO.,

Phone 61.

BEACH STREET, near ORANGE AVENUE and SOUTH BRIDGE.

OF LOCAL INTEREST TO ALL.

Huyler's candies, fresh at Clark's.

Sixteen passengers for Daytona arrived on the evening train Tuesday.

Cut prices in clothing, pants, hats, shoes and cotton comforts at Moore Bros.

M. R. Morrison, of Tampa, is the guest of his brother, D. F. Morrison, for a few days.

E. D. Parker, of Hawks Park, was in Daytona Wednesday, and registered at the City Hotel.

Laurence Morrison went over to his father's farm at Barberville Monday, returning Wednesday.

If you want a nice home dressed turkey for Christmas leave your order at J. L. Odum's meat market.

What would make a nicer Christmas present than one of those beautiful rattan chairs at Niver & Son's?

W. H. Peters is down the river on a duck hunt in A. Pellett's new boat, the "Cruiser." He will return before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corkran and their two handsome children are the guests of Schmidt's Villa. Their home is in Philadelphia.

James M. Osborn, the printer, has just turned out some very handsome booklets for the Hotel Despland and the Grand Atlantic.

T. M. Doyle, the Florida passenger agent for the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Ry., was in Daytona looking after the interests of his road last Friday.

John Adams, a prominent man of St. Louis, accompanied by his wife, is registered at Schmidt's Villa for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Adams spent the winter at Daytona six years ago.

Toilet articles for Christmas at Hill's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Reed arrived from Hastings, Minn., Tuesday evening and are pleasantly domiciled in the cottage on north Beach street. Mr. Reed informs us that when he left Hastings it was 28 degrees below zero.

An excellent stock of table linens at Hill's.

At the conference of the Southern M. E. church, held at Live Oak this week, Rev. Patillo was transferred to Williston, and Rev. W. A. Myers, of Apopka, fills his place here. Rev. Myers will preach his first sermon in Daytona tomorrow at eleven o'clock.

N. Erickson has some handsome parlor and dining room pictures which would make nice Christmas presents for friends. They are worth $2.50. He also has a fine line of frames, mouldings, etc. Call and see him before filling your Christmas list of gifts. Cottage avenue, rear of City Hotel.

Gent's fur hats at Hill's.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

MACKENZIE has choice Florida fruits, shells, curios, novelties suitable for holiday presents, fine line of confectionery, nuts, dates, raisins, figs, glass fruit, Malaga grapes, crystallized ginger and figs, Christmas baskets and fancy boxes of confectionery, guava jelly, etc.

Furnished rooms for rent, on South Palmetto avenue. Inquire of F. G. Lindberg.

More Christmas goods received at Moore's this week.

Frank Tatterson, of Chicago, is a late arrival at the Palmetto.

Set your watches with Wray's chronometer (jeweler) Music store.

The frost this week nipped some of the more tender plants and shrubs.

For good things for your Christmas dinner call on Morrison, the grocer.

Dr. J. A. VanValzah and E. R. Starhey returned from Jacksonville Monday.

For fine home made candies for Christmas go to the Gramling Bakery.

Fish stories have been scarce lately, despite the fact that fish are plentiful.

The Halifax Wagon Works can make your old carriage or buggy look like new.

E. M. Snow left Tuesday for a trip to Miami and other points in the southern part of the State.

Miss Evelyn Atwood returned from her visit with relatives and friends in the North, last Saturday.

Brain bread, the great brain developer and nerve builder, fresh every day at the Gramling Bakery.

The postoffice will be open on Christmas and New Years from 8 to 9 a. m., and from 1:30 to 4 p. m.

Mrs. J. A. Douglass, the milliner, has the finest line of silks for trimmings in the city. Call and see them.

W. R. Alger, of Flint, Mich., is at Schmidt's Villa. Mr. Alger is a very prominent Mason in his state.

Morrison, the grocer, has just received a fine line of fancy confectionery. Call on him for your Christmas supply.

Mr. and Mrs. Migeon, a prominent couple of Torrington, Conn., are domiciled at the Palmetto for the season.

Niver & Son have some handsome rattan chairs and rockers. They make useful and beautiful Christmas presents.

J. C. Kaufman, of Chicago, is one of the late arrivals at Schmidt's Villa. He will remain the greater part of the season.

Mackenzie certainly has a very fine display of good things for the holidays. Be sure to call on him. Everything first class.

A. R. Woods, chief clerk of the Breakers, at Palm Beach, stopped off at Daytona a few days this week en route from the North.

The GAZETTE-NEWS is on sale at Clark's and Barnes's news stand every week. It is also on file in all the leading hotels throughout the state.

Graham and rye bread at the Gramling Bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jackson, of Nyanek, N. Y., who for several years have been spending their winters in Jacksonville, will spend this season in Daytona. They are guests of the Palmetto.

See the exquisite line of jewelry at Gille's Drugstore.

August Schmidt will return from Stetson University to-day, and assume charge of the office in his father's hotel. He will return to DeLand in April or May to finish his course and will graduate in June.

New stock of ladies' walking skirts expected daily at Hill's.

One of Sidney Haigh's teams indulged in a runaway Sunday. They started from the Breakers and one of them wound up in Midway, while the other stopped at the south canal. The harness was quite badly wrecked.

For fine carriage painting go to the Halifax Wagon Works.

W. C. Schultz stopped off at Daytona, Wednesday, on his way home to Fon du Lac, Wis., from the Isle of Pines. He is very much pleased with the island and will endeavor to interest some of his friends in the company that some of our local residents are at the head of.

Meet me at Moore Bros.

Mayor Lummis and Messrs. H. L. Koehersperger and Adam Schantz were over from Daytona Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Schantz is the Dayton, Ohio, gentleman who has just put in a fine electric light and ice plant at Daytona, and is putting out lots of money at that place. He was looking over the situation here with a view to connecting Daytona and DeLand with an electric road. Our citizens will give them their hearty co-operation in such an enterprise. —DeLand Record.

Jewelry sold at Gille's Drugstore is guaranteed by the manufacturers.

TOOTHACHE DELICACIES.
Fancy figs per pound.....20c
Fancy dates per pound.....10c
Fancy raisins per pound.....13c
Fancy nuts per pound.....20c
Candy from 10c. per pound up to $1.00 per pound at

BARNES'S NOVELTY STORE.

WILL BE IN DAYTONA after January 5th.—Dr. G. Morton March, the well known eye specialist, who was here last winter. Look to your eyes and always go to a competent eye specialist. The eye is the organ of sight. Dr. March will be here shortly.

Artist's supplies at Clark's.

You should see the fine stock of neckwear at Hill's.

Republic canned goods can only be had at T-Pot Grocery.

Be sure and call on old Santa Claus at Barnes's Novelty Store.

The M. E. church, south, will have a Christmas tree next Tuesday evening.

Kost & Gwinner, the painters and paper-hangers, have a large force of men at work.

BeaDer, the barber, has ordered two new Eclipse barber chairs and other equipment.

For a Christmas gift for wife or daughter buy a pair of Queen Quality shoes at Hill's.

Santa Claus Headquarters is full of toys, children's books, games and dolls for the wee people.

W. L. McDaniel came up from Port Orange last Friday and called on his numerous Daytona friends.

Fine candies for Christmas at the Gramling Bakery. All their candies are home made, and only the best materials used.

Wm. R. Dean, of St. Louis, and Wm. B. Jean, Jr., of Jacksonville, arrived last Saturday and are the guests of the Despland.

Mrs. J. A. Douglass, the milliner, has just received a new line of new hats. Don't fail to call and see the exquisite patterns.

We desire to call attention to the ad. of Trowell's Transfer Line. The office is in the Up-to-Date barber shop, where orders may be left.

Miss Goddard arrived from Vermont last Friday and occupies a position as saleslady at Moore Bros.' store. She is a sister of Mrs. C. L. Heston.

The following ladies are assisting during the holiday rush at J. R. Hill's store: Mrs. Bethel, Mrs. Wesley Johnson, and the Misses Agnes Wicking, Stilling, Vandergriff and Knight.

Geo. H. Clark has just received an elegant assortment of genuine gold plated clocks for the holiday trade; also gold plated inkstands for gentlemen's desks.

Charles T. Sterne and his sister, Miss L. E. Sterne, accompanied by Miss M. M. Mulligan, arrived from Newport, R. I., Monday and are quartered at one of the Carson cottages, on Ridgewood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Simpson, of Jersey City, N. J., are at the Palmetto for a short stay. They are on their way to Miami, where they will remain for awhile and then return to Daytona.

Miss F. G. Feaster, and protegee, Miss Coward, arrived from Buckhead, S. C., Monday and are domiciled at Miss Feaster's cottage on Ridgewood. They take their meals at the Bennet House.

The Core-Carlisle Comedy Company presented "Married for Money" to a fair sized crowd at the Opera House Monday evening. The entertainment was very good and held the attention of the audience from beginning to end.

The new novels nicely bound make a nice Xmas gift—you can find a nice assortment at Clark's.

The Hotel de Basile has been painted, renovated and greatly improved under the direction of Mayor Ludwig. To prospective guests we will state that Daytona now has as good jail accommodations as any town in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weeden, of Jamestown, R. I., arrived this week and have rented one of Dr. Jennie Brush's cottages on Third avenue. Mr. Weeden is president and general manager of the Newport & Jamestown Ferry Company. He also runs a large hotel in the summer season.

Hon. Charles L. Smith, of Daytona, member of the House of Representatives from Volusia county, was in town attending court several days the first of the week. Mr. Smith is an advocate of state dispensaries for the control of the liquor business. He advocated and voted for the bill passed by the House at the last session, and will in all probability make his canvass next year on this measure. —DeLand News.

For fine work call on Kost & Gwinner, the painters and paper-hangers.

If a man wants your trade he is going to give you an invitation to call on him, and the best way to extend this invitation to the general public is by advertising in the papers. If a merchant does not care enough for your trade to extend such an invitation he does not deserve that trade. Just look over the columns of the GAZETTE-NEWS and see who is inviting you to call. If you see an ad. in the paper you may know that man is speaking to you, and he is the one that should receive your patronage.

Fresh chocolate candy at T-Pot Grocery from 20 cents to 50 cents per pound.

Dancing Academy.

Mrs. McGriff's Dancing Academy at the opera house is now open for the season, every Thursday evening. Class from 7:30 to 8:30; general dancing begins at 8:30. Music by Heston's Orchestra.

Oranges for Sale.

T. L. Rodgers is prepared to furnish oranges from his grove to merchants, citizens or tourists. Special attention to holiday orders.

New stock of shoes at Hill's.

Geo. B. Hurd's finest stationery at Clark's.

J. A. Erickson was over from DeLand last Saturday.

Let us take a look at Moore Bros.' holiday goods.

We wish our readers one and all, a merry Christmas.

Phoenix Silvestris palms for sale, apply to E. N. Waldron.

I. Conch, of Jacksonville, is one of the recent arrivals at the Despland.

W. H. Peters has sold his handsome boat, the Orville, to Howard Y. Stillman.

Boston Brown Bread and Baked Beans at the Gramling Bakery, to-day.

Choice furnished rooms on Beach street for rent. Inquire at the GAZETTE-NEWS office.

Extra fancy oranges for sale at $3.50 a box delivered. C. C. Barnes's Novelty Store.

McGriff, the paper hanger, is doing some fine work in paper on the residence of C. G. Burgoyne.

Select some toilet articles from the large stock at J. M. Jones, Fountain City Pharmacy.

D. F. Morrison was over to his farm at Barberville last week, and returned with a load of vegetables.

Santa Claus Headquarters has elegant presents in silver, gold and china for any one looking for gifts.

Mrs. I. I. Goldsmith, and Adam Goldsmith, of Binghamton, N. Y., are at the Ridgewood for the season.

Officer's swords, relics of the war between the States, cost the government $8.50; a few for sale at Hill's for $1.50.

Mrs. E. B. Moore has been getting some new goods this week and asks the ladies to call and see them; ribbons, silks, velvets and outing hats.

Fine line of jewelry and silverware suitable for Christmas gifts. SMITH & SON.

We called at Mackenzie's yesterday and found a very beautiful display of holiday goods. He has an especially fine line of novelties, fruits and confectionery.

A. W. Edes, chief clerk of the Colonial Hotel, at Nassau, stopped off here a few days this week, on his way to his winter's work. Mr. Edes is connected with the Ocean Side Hotel, at Magnolia, Mass., in the summer season.

If you want choice of Christmas goods at Moore's now is the time.

This is the way business is done in Daytona. On Monday of last week S. H. Gore bought a lot; on Wednesday he sold his lot at a profit. On the same day he bought a nappa launch, and on Friday he sold it. The way to do anything is to do it.

Make a Xmas present of a bottle of perfume bought of Dr. J. M. Jones, Fountain City Pharmacy.

The Knights of Honor at their last meeting elected the following officers for the ensuing term: D.—Geo. F. Smith; V. D.—O. W. Stevens; A. D.—Charles Wetherell; E.—W. W. Carter; F. R.—W. M. Moore; Treas.—W. H. Edmondson; Chaplain—C. M. Bingham, Jr.; Guide—J. P. Pollett; Guardian—J. McCollum; Sentinel—J. Rowe; S. P. D.—C. F. Harris.

Try the Domestic Baker's 8 cent cream loaf. Volusia avenue.

Rev. J. B. Hawk has been invited by the Free Masons, of Melbourne, to deliver a Masonic address in Educational Hall, Melbourne, St. John's Day, Friday, December 27, on the occasion of public installation of officers of Melbourne Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons. Mr. Hawk will return Saturday and deliver a sermon in his own church Sunday, the 29th, to the Masons of this city.

Please the girls and boys by giving them a kodak for Xmas. Harris has them for sale, also Eastman kodak supplies. Studio Pack Block, phone 91.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Trueblood will give an evening's entertainment Friday evening, December 27, at the Daytona opera house. Mr. Trueblood is Professor of Oratory in Michigan University, and Mrs. Trueblood is instructor in oratory and elocution in J. B. Stetson University at DeLand. This will be one of the greatest treats of the season and none should fail to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Meedames Higgins and Balcon gave a reception to about 125 friends at the Hotel Despland Wednesday afternoon. The parlors and dining room of the hotel were beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns, and the ladies spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Refreshments, consisting of chicken salad, tomato sandwiches, cucumber sandwiches, stuffed olives, salted almonds, ice cream, bou buns and divers other delicacies were served. Miss Evelyn Clark furnished the music for the occasion.

Toys in endless variety for the little folks. SMITH & SON.

We wish our friends and patrons a Merry Christmas.

Don't Look for Money on the Street. You can make MORE by buying your Holiday Goods at MOORE'S, where you will find a full line of...

Xmas Novelties

Mechanical toys, books, cards, glassware, chinaware, dolls, toilet sets, silver novelties, tree decorations, and numerous other articles.

Our store is Santa Claus headquarters

Yours to Please,

Moore Bros.

W. F. Gille Jr. & Co. Leading Druggists

The Largest and Most Complete Stock of Drugs in Daytona. Prescriptions compounded by Registered Pharmacist only.

Perfumery and Toilet Articles. TRY OUR PINE TAR COUGH BALSAM—25 cents a bottle.

Beach Street. DAYTONA, FLORIDA

For Christmas

We have all the nice things for your Christmas dinner. We have just received a fresh line of fancy cakes; here are a few of them: Crinklet bars, cheese sandwiches, fruit cake, five o'clock teas, butter thin, dainty minuettes, cherry tarts and orange wafers.

We have nice line of candies.

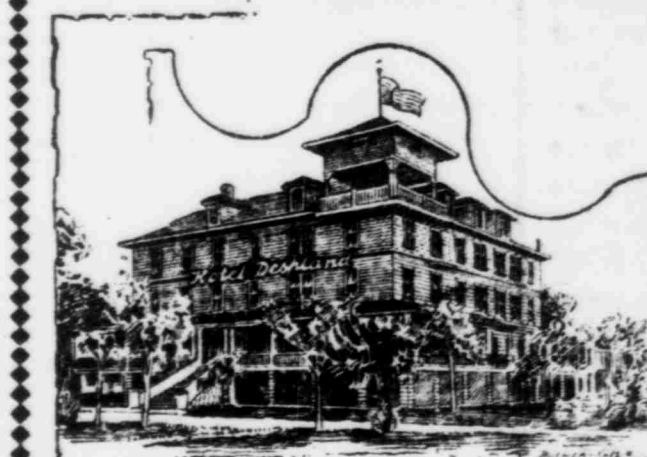

D. F. MORRISON

Longe's Old Stand.

'Phone 19.

Corner Beach Street and Second Avenue.

HOTEL DESPLAND Daytona, Florida.

Is Daytona's newest and best and most up-to-date hotel.

Under liberal management. Rates, $3 up.

Centrally and Pleasantly Located L. Despland, Proprietor

SCHMIDT'S VILLA Overlooking the Halifax River

The hotel commands a most attractive view in every direction and no finer location can be found in the vicinity. It is only one mile from the ocean and is convenient to the depot, postoffice, churches and public schools. More sunny rooms than any other hotel in town. Bath room and lavatories.

ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES. CUISINE UNEXCELLED. Rates, $2.50 per Day; $10 per Week and Upwards.

Henry Schmidt, Proprietor, Daytona, Fla.