Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt passed through Daytona last Saturday in a New York Central private car, on their way to Palm Beach where they have engaged apartments at the Royal Poinciana. They will be there for two months or more. Mr. Vanderbilt is a son of the late William H. Vanderbilt. He has a magnificent home in New York City at 459 Fifth Avenue, and at Hyde Park on the Hudson, his estate of 600 acres is famous for its beauty. In the summer he spends part of his time at his house at Newport, Rhode Island or else he makes yachting trips in his fine steam yacht, the Conqueror. Mr. Vanderbilt is a graduate of Yale College, and is now fifty-six years old. He obtained his business training in the offices of his father's railroad system, going through every department in railroad service.

Rev. J. B. Hawk has been reappointed to the First M. E. church for another year. After an absence from his pulpit two Sundays, on account of the death of his mother in Illinois, he will preach again tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. This will be his first sermon for the new year. He also preaches at Seabreeze at 3:30 p. m., and again at Daytona at 7:30.

Sailing yacht for charter; also launch. Enquire of E. A. Lindberg.

H. L. Kochersperger, of The Breakers, is building a stable 30 by 50 feet, with an annex 15 by 45 feet, in the rear of the hotel. The builder, Henry Strother, says it is the largest and also the best on the Peninsula. Mr. Kochersperger has leased the same to Thos. J. Mathers, formerly of Hires and Mathers, and it will be known as The Breakers Livery. Mr. Mathers has been in DeLand the past few days purchasing stock, and promises to furnish the public with as fine turnouts as are in the country.

New walking skirts at Hill's.

Rev. and Mrs. S. Stocking, of Miami, and the editor and wife visited the lighthouse at Mosquito Inlet Tuesday. Tourists who have never visited the top of a modern light house should not fail to take a trip on the Columbia and visit the one at Mosquito Inlet. From the tower a fine view can be had of the surrounding country, and Captain O'Hagen, the keeper, is a very courteous and obliging gentleman, and gladly shows all visitors the points of interest about the establishment. For this he is allowed to accept no fee whatever—the captain likes good cigars, however.

New spring wash dress goods at Hill's.

A very pretty incident took place on Tuesday evening at The Breakers, Seabreeze. Miss Alice Paulson, a charming young miss, niece of Thad Dean who was called the lumber king of Chicago before retiring, celebrated her 16th birthday. Numerous gifts were bestowed upon her during the day, but when she entered the dining room, in front of her was a birthday cake in which there were sixteen lighted white wax candles. No one except the landlord, Mr. Kenney, and Mr. and Mrs. Kochersperger who presented the surprise, were aware of this innovation. The scene was not only a pretty but a novel one.

The usual weekly card party was held at the Palmetto Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius John, of Mendota, Ill., are registered at the Daytona House.

Try a package of wheat nuts, the popular breakfast food, at T-Pot Grocery.

Mrs. John Bolton, of New Brunswick, Canada, is a recent arrival at the Palmetto.

Mr. Haines is having erected a neat five-room cottage on Ridgewood avenue near Kingston.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Perry, of Milledgeville, Ga., are recent arrivals at the Grand Atlantic.

The Rev. Dr. Frazier and Mrs. Frazier of Newark, N. J., are at the Palmetto for a few weeks.

Rev. Myres and bride returned Tuesday from Jacksonville and are domiciled in the Cole cottage.

The largest and best selected line lace and embroideries at Moore Bros. ever brought to Daytona.

Rev. Horace F. Fuller, of Philadelphia, a noted Episcopal divine, is at The Despland for a couple of weeks.

H. F. Tuckett, of Philadelphia, and O. S. Watt, of Indianapolis, Ind., are recent arrivals at the Grand Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wood, of Adrian, Mich., arrived Thursday and are pleasantly quartered at the Bennett House.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Gregg and James M. Gregg, of Nicholasville, Ky., arrived Wednesday and are pleasantly quartered at the Palmetto.

Mrs. J. W. Sears and two daughters, of Minneapolis, Minn., have engaged a suite of rooms at the Bennett House. They arrived Wednesday.

Little Miss Daphne Norris, who has been ill for the past couple of weeks, died last Saturday morning. The remains were sent to LaMoille, Ill., for interment.

Dr. G. Morton Marcus, the well known optician, will return to Daytona on or about Jan. the 25th for the winter. Date of his arrival will appear in this paper.

I finish work for amateurs on the same fadeless paper I use for my professional work. "Aristo Platino" prints do not fade. Harris Studio, Peck block.

W. S. Smyth and wife of Chicago, are located at The Breakers, Seabreeze, for the winter. He is one of Chicago's solid business men being a publisher of school and text books.

Miss Gertrude Stephens, of London, England, will be one of the piano soloists at the Seabreeze musicale. Miss Stephens has studied for a number of years in Europe and is very fine.

There arrived yesterday, consigned to Mrs. Kochersperger of The Breakers, one of the most perfect specimens of an alligator ever seen in these parts. It measures eleven feet and three inches.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Smith and two daughters are among the Ohio people now stopping at the Bennett House. Mr. Smith is manager of the Toledo branch of the American Biscuit Company.

W. Powell Hale, the unrivaled reader and impersonator, will appear at the Wilmas Opera House, Seabreeze, tonight for the benefit of the Seabreeze School Library Fund. A very interesting program is promised.

A Chinese Drama in four acts given by the Literary Department of the Palmetto Club, Friday evening, January 31st, at the opera house. Half the proceeds for the benefit of the Daytona Library building fund. Admission 50c; reserved seats 75c. Tickets for sale by club members at Palmetto drug store.

Dr. J. S. Barnes, a prominent physician of Nicholasville, Ky., and Mrs. Barnes, are making their annual visit to Daytona. They are accompanied by Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson and son, Jas. L. Simpson, of the same city. The Simpsons are tobacco growers on a large scale.

Dr. Eugene May, the great lecturer on travel, art, and adventure, will give the first entertainment of the Lyceum Course, at the opera house tonight. In speaking of Dr. May the Wheeling (W. Va.) Evening News says: "Dr. May presents a commanding presence, has a splendid voice and is master of his subject and the best English. Above all his descriptive power was never excelled in Wheeling."

Chas. S. Easton, and his charming wife, who hail from that town of Peoria which is destined in due time to become suburb of Chicago, are quartered at The Breakers, Seabreeze, for the winter. Mr. Easton is one of the best Pinocchio and California Jack players in the west, and is also an adept at Hearts. He at times indulges in Cribbage, but there are so many who have beaten him on the latter game that his long suit seems to California Jack and Hearts and he is now open for any challenge that may come his way.

Miss Brooks, late of the Boston Conservatory, who is now wintering in Palatka, will be the violin soloist for the Seabreeze musicale.

Fitch Dewey, of Toledo, Ohio, is at the Bennett House, with his wife and daughter, for the season. Mr. Dewey is a distant relative to the noted admiral.

Miss Genevieve Hesser, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will give us quite a treat at the musicale to be given in Seabreeze; she will render a harp solo, and we learn that she is a very fair performer on that instrument.

Commencing next Monday the Columbia will run to New Smyrna one day and to the head of the Tomoka the next. The New Smyrna trips will be made Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, while the trips to the Tomoka will be made Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. See schedule in next week's issue.

THE DESPLAND RECEPTION.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Despland at their magnificent hotel last evening was, without doubt, the greatest social gathering that will be seen in Daytona this season. It is said that fully six hundred persons were in attendance. The following ladies assisted Mr. and Mrs. Despland in receiving: Mrs. R. I. Wall, Mrs. E. G. Harris, Mrs. Ewing Miller, Mrs. Louis Adler, and the Misses O'Connor, Harris and Erickson, while Mrs. Merrill piloted the guests to the refreshment room.

The reception lasted from eight to ten o'clock, when those who desired had an opportunity to dance to the charming music, which was furnished by the S. F. H. orchestra. The refreshments served during the evening were up to the usual standard furnished by this popular and modern hotel.

Earlier in the evening three men attempted to hold up Browning, the peninsula butcher, between here and Holly Hill. They were unsuccessful, however. It is presumed that the same three are the ones who robbed the toll house.

Hon. E. M. Goodall, of Sanford, Me., is the guest of his father, Thomas Goodall, at his peninsula home. Mr. Goodall is accompanied by Justin M. Leavitt, a well known politician and recorder of deeds; Fred. J. Allen, a talented and expert follower of Blackstone, and N. H. Fogg, who holds the responsible position of postmaster, all of Sanford, Me. The party will leave shortly on a cruise down the Indian river.

Another Bold Robbery.

Last night sometime, W. H. Parker, keeper of the Central bridge, was robbed of about $175. One hundred dollars of the amount was the property of Mr. Parker, while the balance belonged to the bridge company. The robbers effected an entrance by the use of a skeleton key.
