Boy Drowned at Tampa.
While returning from the Mallory dock, with his father's empty dinner pail in his hands, Samuel Mosley, a colored boy some 12 years of age, fell into the harbor from the Hendry & Knight terminals, near the foot of Nebraska avenue, Tampa, and was drowned. The boy, it appears, had a companion with him, who, when he saw Samuel fall into the water, ran at top speed for the lad's father, forgetting to cry out for help from people who were much nearer the scene than the latter. As a result, no immediate aid was offered, and the boy drowned.

Held Without Bail.
W. F. Cox, who shot and instantly killed Bud Martin on the streets of the town of Alachua, sixteen miles north of Gainesville, was brought to Gainesville by Sheriff Ramsey and Deputy Hague and is now in the Alachua county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. Cox was given a preliminary hearing in the court of Justice Seale at Alachua, and was bound over to the circuit court without bail.

Has Resigned Clerkship.
Hon. H. L. Crane has resigned the position of deputy clerk of the United States Court for the Tampa division of the Southern District of Florida. Mr. Crane was first appointed clerk of the court on March 4, 1879, and, therefore, has faithfully and efficiently served in this capacity for a period of thirty-one years. He will continue as United States commissioner.

Child's Terrible Death.
A tree cut by three older brothers fell on the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Raza, resulting in the infant's instant death at Chipley. The little child was playing about the roots of the tree while his brothers were cutting the tree for firewood. The trunk of the child was dashed out by the falling timber, and its face and head were mangled beyond recognition.

Accident at Inverness.
While attempting to cross the live roller bed, B. F. Ellington met with a serious accident at the West, Coffee & Company's mill at Inverness. Just as Mr. Ellington stepped onto the bed a negro employe, not seeing him, started up the rollers, tripping Mr. Ellington and precipitating him violently to the floor. He caught on his left hand, the whole force of his weight, breaking the bones both below and above the wrist and dislocating the wrist joint.

To Open December 1st.
The Plaza, Miami's newest hotel, will open for the season December 1st.

The building is 50x180 feet in dimensions, four stories in height, and is within 75 feet of the banks of Biscayne Bay. The hotel will accommodate 400 guests. The dining room alone contains 3,000 square feet of floor space. A roof, or palm garden, is one of the attractive features. This is on the roof, and evenings the orchestra will be stationed at this point.

New Buildings at Bonifay.
The actual work of constructing three handsome brick structures in Bonifay will commence within a few days. The new buildings will be erected by B. H. Lindsey, a popular and well-known turpentine operator, on the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Waukesha street, directly opposite Hotel Eureka.

Sold Illicit Whiskey.
Seven negroes and one white man were bound over at Tallahassee to await action of the United States grand jury for the alleged illicit sale of intoxicating liquors. They were given a preliminary hearing before Hon. G. P. Meard, sitting as United States commissioner.

Dies in Lake City.
Following an illness of several days, Prof. F. B. Moodie died at his home in Lake City. Prof. Moodie was one of the oldest residents of that city and was well known throughout the state as an educator, having been an instructor in the larger colleges. He was a prominent Baptist of the state, and had always taken an active part in church work.

Large Cargo of Rosin.
The largest cargo of rosin ever shipped from Pensacola has just left there for Hamburg on the British steamer South America. The cargo consisted of 49,000 barrels, and its valuation was $293,000.

To Manufacture Woodenware.
The movement launched for the purpose of establishing a woodenware factory at Palatka is progressing satisfactorily. The new concern will occupy an ideal site on the river just south of the mills of the Wilson Cypress Company. It is the intention of the promoters to manufacture all kinds of tubs, pails, kits, etc.

Potato Crop Will Be Very Large.
Indications are that about 5,000 acres will be planted in potatoes this season at Hastings. The rainy weather prevailing during October has proven favorable and those who seem to know best state that a wet fall means a good yield.

Judge Cason Dead.
Judge Dennis Marion Cason is dead as a result of septic poisoning at Waukesha. Judge Cason was born in Georgia in 1837. He was one of the pioneer citizens of DeSoto county, and no man was more highly respected.

To Husband and Wife.
Preserve sacredly the privacies of your own house, your married state and your heart. Let no father or mother or sister or brother ever presume to come between you or share the joys or sorrows that belong to you two alone.

With mutual help build your quiet world, not allowing your dearest earthly friends to be the confidant of aught that concerns your domestic peace. Let moments of alienation, if they occur, be healed at once. Never, no, never, speak of it outside, but to each other confess, and all will come out right. Never let the morrow's sun still find you at variance. Renew and renew your vow. It will do you good, and thereby your minds will grow together contented in that love which is stronger than death, and you will be truly one.—National Magazine.

Dogs and Fleas.
If your dogs are troubled with fleas a very simple way to get rid of the pests is to provide beds of fresh cedar shavings or, better, cedar excelsior in the kennels or wherever the dogs sleep. The scent is not at all unpleasant to the dogs, but is abhorrent to the fleas. When a dog's coat gets thoroughly scented not only do the fleas leave him while asleep, but they will not jump upon him when he is out during the day.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Entirely Apt.
At first glance the novel's title, "The Rainbow," seemed to be lacking in significance, but as it afterward developed that the hero blushed crimson, was blue with the cold, had his lips grow gray, was seized by a black rage, fell into a brown study, grew green with envy, purple with indignation, livid with fear, yellow with chagrin and scarlet with embarrassment, the title proved to be entirely apt.—Puck.

Mnemonics.
"Why do you always put a pitcher of water and a glass on the table before an orator?"

"That," said the chairman of many reception committees, "is to give him something to do in case he forgets his place and has to stop and think."—Washington Star.

Quite Strong.
Grocer—Good morning, Mr. Poppie. How are those eggs I sent you?
Poppie—Better, thank you. They are gaining strength every minute.

The more you speak of yourself the more you are likely to lie.—Zimmerman.

A Queer Old Word.
"Trug," according to Dr. Wright's Dialect Dictionary, is used to denote various measures in different parts of England. In Yorkshire it means an oblong wooden trough for milk; also a milking pail. In Cumberland it is a wooden box used for carrying coal or peat—in fact, an overgrown or exaggerated coal scuttle. In Oxfordshire it is a kind of basket used by gardeners, and in several counties a "trug" is a measure of which three go to make up two bushels; hence "trug corn" or wheat signifies a measure of wheat allowed to a clergyman as a kind of tithe. "Trug corn" was payable at Leominster as late as 1806.—London Standard.

Yawning.
Bill—My doctor says yawning is caused by a deficiency in the air supply to the lungs.
Jill—That's funny, for a fellow usually does his best yawning when somebody is pumping "hot air" into him.—Yonkers Statesman.
