

A WOMAN'S ORDEAL DREADS DOCTOR'S QUESTIONS

Thousands Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and Receive Valuable Advice Absolutely Confidential and Free

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions in regard to her private life, even when those questions are asked by her family physician, and many continue to suffer rather than submit to examinations which so many physicians propose in order to intelligently treat the disease; and this is the reason why so many physicians fail to cure female disease.

This is also the reason why thousands upon thousands of women are corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. To her they can confide every detail of their illness, and from her great knowledge, obtained from years of experience in treating female life, Mrs. Pinkham can advise women more wisely than the local physician.

Read how Mrs. Pinkham helped Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Ia. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude in words. Before I wrote to you telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steadily, and spent lots of money in medicines besides, but it all failed to do me any good. I had female trouble and would daily have fainting spells, backache, bearing-down pains, and my monthly periods were very irregular and finally ceased. I wrote to you for your advice and received a letter full of instructions just what to do, and also commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have been restored to perfect health. Had it not been for you I would have been in my grave to-day."

Mountains of proof establish the fact that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for restoring women's health.

TWENTY YEARS OF IT.
Emaciated by Diabetes; Tortured With Gravel and Kidney Pains.

Henry Soule, cobbler, of Hammondsport, N. Y., says: "Since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me eight years ago, I've reached seventy and hope to live many years longer. But twenty years ago I had kidney trouble so bad I could not work. Backache was persistent and it was agony to lift anything. Gravel, whirling headaches, dizziness and terrible urinary disorders ran me down from 168 to 100 pounds. Doctors told me I had diabetes and could not live. I was wretched and hopeless when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, but they cured me eight years ago and I've been well ever since."

An Anecdote.
A writer in Harper's Weekly tells an interesting anecdote of Charles J. Bonaparte, the new Secretary of the Navy. It appears that during Mr. Bonaparte's connection with the Baltimore Reform League it was decided to investigate the conduct of a prominent Federal office holder. Friends of the crooked officer learned this, and resolved to "pack" the council, so that the report might be voted down. Mr. Bonaparte listened attentively to the arguments against the report and then rose to give his own views, bitterly attacking the officer, and urging that the charges be immediately accepted. He saw, however, that his words would have little effect on that portion of the audience which sided with the accused man, so when he had finished his discourse he began over again, repeating his speech word for word, pause for pause, gesture for gesture—not once, but a dozen times, until toward morning the friends of the accused officer were fast asleep. Mr. Bonaparte and his associates then approved and adopted the report.

What He Meant.
Mr. Griggsfield was a man who meant well, but was unfortunately addicted to the habit of saying the wrong thing at all times and in all circumstances. An acquaintance of his had suffered severe injuries in a railway wreck, including a broken nose, the loss of three or four teeth, and a gash across one of his cheeks; but his hurts were not serious, and he was soon on the street again, somewhat disfigured, but in good working order.

One of the first men to greet him after his recovery was Mr. Griggsfield, who grasped him cordially by the hand and exclaimed:
"Hello, Williams! I understand you have been pretty badly hurt. I am glad to see you so much improved."
Later, when he reflected upon it, he understood why Mr. Williams responded to this greeting with such a queer smile.—Youth's Companion.

GRATEFUL TO CUTICURA

For Instant Relief and Speedy Cure of Itch and Scaly Humors, Itching Day and Night—Suffered For Months.

"I wish you would publish this letter so that others suffering as I have may be helped. For months awful sores covered my face and neck, scabs forming, itching terribly day and night, breaking open, and running blood and matter. I had tried many remedies, but was growing worse, when I started with Cuticura. The first application gave me instant relief, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, I was completely cured." (Signed) Miss Nellie Vander Wiele, Lakeside, N. Y.

An Epicure.
The very vagabonds of Paris have the patriarchal instinct, and the most hoary and hardened reprobate of their body is their "Father." They call him "Pere Lajole." This venerable person has just been arrested for vagrancy for the fifty-eighth time, in the course of a raid which swept twenty-eight other good-for-nothings besides himself into the police net. "Pere Lajole" would seem to have some traces of the lightness of spirit suggested by his name. He would rather go to prison than to the French equivalent for a workhouse. In the prison, he explained, they know how to cook haricot beans; in the pauper establishment they do not.—London Globe.

JUST LIKE A MAN.
He—How awfully mannish she is. She—Isn't she, though?
He—Yes, and the funny part of it is that she thinks people admire her for being that way. I should think she'd realize that people are only laughing at her.
She—Well, she's mannish even to that extent.—Philadelphia Press

FEAR FOR NIAGARA.

IMMENSE VOLUME OF WATER DIVERTED FROM FALLS.
Commercial Enterprises Are Making Heavy Drain on This Famous Show-Place—Its Tremendous Electrical Power the Inducement.
Niagara Falls, August 7.—The volume of water being diverted from the historic Niagara Falls is reaching such proportions that the people of the State are trying to pass laws which will prevent the possibility of a practical wiping out of this sublime natural spectacle.

Water sufficient to develop nearly five hundred thousand horse-power continuously, twenty-four hours per day, for industrial purposes, is now being taken from the river above the Falls, and further developments requiring more water are contemplated.

Probably the largest user of the electricity produced by the waters of the mighty river is the concern which by the five or six thousand degree heat of the electric furnace brings lime and coke into unwilling union, thereby producing what is known as Calcium Carbide.

Dry calcium carbide is useless as so much broken rock, but in contact with water it springs into activity and begets abundantly the gas Acetylene. The light resulting from the ignition of acetylene is the nearest approach to sunlight known.

These facts, though of comparatively recent discovery, were soon seized by men with an eye to the commercial possibilities and to-day calcium carbide is being shipped everywhere and used for dispelling darkness in buildings of all descriptions, from the ordinary barn of the farmer to the country villa of the wealthy, as well as for lighting the streets of a large number of towns.

Acetylene can be easily and cheaply installed, and the manufacture and sale of acetylene generators has become a business of recognized standing, has assumed large proportions and is steadily growing.

He Was Done, But Wouldn't Stop.
Chaplain Horton, of the Massachusetts Legislature, told a story about a long-winded member of that body. The legislator was delivering an address in a town not far from Boston, and the village folk gathered in the Town Hall to hear it.

"He had been speaking quite a while," said Dr. Horton, "when finally an old Scotchman arose and walked out of the hall. At the door one of his countrymen was waiting with his back to drive the orator to the station.

"Is he done yet, Sandy?" asked the Scot on the box.

"The old man turned about.
"Ay," said he, "he's done lang ago, but he will na stop!"—Hartford Times.

All Africa Appropriated.
By the King of Italy's award respecting the Anglo-Portuguese frontier in Barotseland (Northwestern Rhodesia) the last piece of land not definitely appropriated in Africa has been disposed of.

The new Anglo-Portuguese boundary is formed by a line following the Kwando River from the Zambeze to the 24th meridian of east longitude and thence along the meridian as far as the 13th parallel of south latitude, following that parallel until the Congo Free State frontier is reached.—London Mail.

A writer to the New York Sun says: "The lesson for the day is one given by the Japanese; and is that a nation may become great without the aid of indiscriminate immigration; that a people may be homogeneous and still be strong."
