Hon. E. C. Smith was in the city again Tuesday and made us a very pleasant visit. He is deeply interested in having better roads in Leon county, and, with many others, desires to see some arrangement brought about whereby great improvements can be made. If the best roads lead to towns away from Tallahassee, of course cotton and trade go that way and our business men feel the loss.

Public Reception at Florida Female College.

In his talk at the opening exercises of the college President Murphree stated that this evening at 8 o'clock a public reception would be given to the students in the west hall, on the college grounds. All persons are invited and it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

OUR Photographer.

Anyone who has noticed that fine photo enlargement of the late Harry D. Hartt has perhaps wondered who was the artist, and we wish to state that the work was performed by the skilled hand of Mr. A. S. Harper, whose work as a photographer has made for him a reputation that is hard to equal anywhere in Florida.

Persons who have had any photographic work done by this gentleman will bear out our statement. There is none better in the South and few equals anywhere else.
