

Seldom Wear Out

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain—not only once, but as many times as it is necessary to take them. Many persons who suffer from chronic ailments find in them a source of great relief from the suffering which they would otherwise be compelled to endure. Their soothing influence upon the nerves strengthen rather than weaken them. For this reason they seldom lose their effectiveness.

"I am 62 years old and have suffered for 42 years from nervous troubles, rheumatism and neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, and pain around the heart. The Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have been a blessing to me. I don't know what I should do without them, and they are the only remedy I have ever used that either did not wear out in less time than I have been using them, or else the injurious results were such that I would be obliged to cease their use."

DEATH OF TWO GOOD WOMEN.

From the Wakulla Breeze We Copy the Following Notes of Death.

Almost like a thunder clap from a clear sky came the announcement, last Monday morning, that Mrs. Sarah Barnett was dead.

True, she had been ill several days with pneumonia, but on Sunday she appeared so much better until every one thought the crisis had passed and that she would soon be well again. On Monday morning she arose from her bed unaided, and walked to the fire and sat down in a chair, while her daughter, Mrs. L. D. S. Moore, went to the kitchen to prepare her some nourishment, leaving in the room only the little three-year-old great grand-daughter of Mrs. Barnett with her.

In a few minutes Mrs. Moore heard the child screaming, and, running into the room, found Mrs. Barnett had slipped from her chair and was lying on the floor breathing her last. Aid was immediately summoned, but she was dead before any one could get there, only breathing twice after Mrs. Moore reached her.

There were but few people in our little village who heard of Mrs. Barnett's death whose thoughts did not turn back to remember some act of kindness performed, some cheering words spoken, to brighten hours of sorrow and gloom. But few who did not treasure in their hearts some sweet remembrance of the gently woman whose soul was turned to the God who gave it. Her loving heart was no task was too great for her kindly, loving heart and willing hands to perform, and for her friends and neighbors she was ever ready to offer aid in sickness and comfort in sorrow.

Mrs. Barnett is survived by her one daughter, Mrs. L. D. S. Moore; her brother, Mr. J. M. Allen, and one sister, Mrs. T. R. Esell, and by seven grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

Thou art gone, our precious grand-mother,
 Never more canst thou return,
 Thou shalt sleep a peaceful slumber
 'Till the resurrection morn.
 Then beyond this vale of sorrow,
 We'll awake from every care,
 In a city bright, eternal,
 And its joys we'll ever share.
 Thou art gone, our precious grand-mother,
 Never more we'll see thy face,
 'Till we meet thee o'er the river,
 In that happy dwelling place.
 There we'll meet you, precious grand-mother,
 There we'll clasp hands once more,
 When we meet to part no never,
 On that happy, peaceful shore.
 There we'll spend the countless ages,
 Ever by our Savior's side,
 There we'll never know a sorrow,
 There our tears will all be dried.
 We shall meet to part no never,
 Bye and bye, bye and bye;
 Yes we'll meet our precious grand-mother,
 In that sweet home beyond the sky.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. BARNETT.
 Editor Gulf Coast Breeze—Allow me space to pay a brief tribute to a most worthy and good woman, Mrs. Sarah

MRS. MARY A. COGGINS.
 Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. Mary A. Coggins, which occurred at her home about five miles south of here at an early hour yesterday morning.

The deceased was one of Wakulla's oldest citizens, and was a woman of rare Christian spirit, and a leading member of the Missionary Baptist Church.

The deceased is survived by four sons and two daughters and a host of friends to whom the Breeze extends its heartfelt sympathy.

The Gainesville Sun is responsible for the following paragraph: "The country newspapers profess antagonism to the trusts, when they are the biggest trust in the country. It trusts everybody, gets cursed for trusting, mistrusted for cursing, and if it busts for trusting gets cursed for busting. So there you are."

 Mrs. C. W. Stump of Canton, Ohio, writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol. Our little daughter was pale, thin and sickly."

"We tried various medicines, but without any benefit whatever, and she could not take cod liver oil, but with our Vinol she is now healthy and robust, and she could not take cod liver oil, but with our Vinol she is now healthy and robust, and she could not take cod liver oil, but with our Vinol she is now healthy and robust."

Which are You Paying For?

The Big Load or the Little Load.

If you have an ordinary heater you are buying the big load of soft coal where the small load would be sufficient fuel to produce the same amount of heat in the

WILSON HEATER.

The celebrated Hot Blast Down-Draft in the Wilson produces perfect combustion and the burnable fumes which escape in other heaters are consumed in the Wilson, so that every shovelful of coal in the Wilson Heater will produce 40 per cent more heat than the same amount of coal in other heaters.

No one likes to waste money—why throw away 40 per cent on every dollar you spend for fuel
