Baggs-Quails.

Mr. D. F. Baggs, traveling salesman for a Jacksonville Drug Company, and Miss Ebie Quail, one of Tallahassee's most popular and charming young ladies, greatly surprised their friends last Sunday by quietly getting married. A quiet ceremony performed by the Rev. Mr. Hyatt, of the Episcopal church, was held at home in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Baggs left Monday morning for a round of visits to various cities.

Get Out Among the People.

Hon. Jefferson B. Brown must be moving along in the race for governor at a satisfactory pace to himself, from what the Key West Citizen says, but up in this section we very seldom hear his name mentioned. All who know him are ready to confess that he is a princely gentleman, and in a most dignified and manly way expresses himself on matters of public importance, and, no doubt he is thoroughly sound in doctrine, but if he gets the votes that elect to this exalted position he will have to get out among the people.—Live Oak Democrat.

The Famous Merry Widow Waltz Free.

The New York World has made arrangements with Henry W. Savage and Chappell & Co., Limited, for the reproduction of the famous waltz music from the "Merry Widow." This waltz, in the shape of an 8 page folder, will be issued with the New York Sunday World Magazine January 25. Don't forget the date.

Governor Broward, who recently responded to an invitation to make a temperance speech in Omaha, Nebraska, has returned home.

Remember all letters mailed at the Tallahassee postoffice now should have placed on them two cent stamps instead of one cent as heretofore. If you place stamps or notices in sealed envelopes with one cent postage they will be returned to you or fail of proper delivery.

Iamonia and State Line News.

Jan. 29.—Mr. B. F. Smith of Metcalf, Ga., was traveling around attending to business in the neighborhood one day last week. He is connected with the naval stores company at that place. Mr. Flemming of Felkel, Fla., where the same company has a turpentine still, paid us a visit at Dogwood last week. He was on business also.

Mr. T. P. Strickland went to Metcalf to sell cotton last Wednesday. He went to Tallahassee yesterday.

Mr. J. C. Courtney, of Beachton, Ga., R. F. D. No. 2, is having a large lot of boards riven out, with which to re-cover his houses.

Henry Henderson, a good old "be fode war" negro died last week near here.

Mr. S. M. Beach is having a new house erected for a renter on his land near Mr. John Courtney's in Grady Co., Ga. Mr. Powell, who last year occupied the G. W. Brown house, will live in the new house just mentioned. Mr. John Courtney is now building the house.

Mr. Willie Williams of Lake Jackson, visited in the vicinity of Sunny Hill on yesterday.

Mr. Tommie Harin, v of Meridian, also was perusing around in the same vicinity last Sunday. We suspect that there is a powerful magnet located near Sunny Hill.

Mr. E. J. Dickey, of Grady county, went to Tallahassee on last Tuesday. He says that the slough and Cromartie branch ran into his buggy, and that the road, in some places, is cut up into parallel ruts about a foot apart, and into a number of bogholes. We learn that Mr. Tommie Harin in carrying a load of syrup to Tallahassee, last week, bogged down in crossing the Iamonia slough, on the Meridian road, and before he could extricate his wagon, from the mud, was compelled to roll his barrels of syrup out of the wagon, through the mud to dry land, and after pulling the wagon out, re-load his syrup.

Mr. Albert McElvy went over the river to his place in Gadsden County last Friday.

Mr. G. M. Livingston, of New York, has arrived and is living in Mrs. W. F. Robertson's house in this place. He expects to stay until the close of the hunting season.

Rev. H. J. Graves, our pastor, has announced that he will preach to the people of Bethpage Church at 3 p. m., on Saturday before each first Sunday in the month.

Some farmers have begun to break up land for a new crop.

Mr. Shade Dickey, a brother to Mrs. T. P. Strickland, is visiting at Mrs. Strickland's country home at present.

It is said the Ocklocknee river, backed water and ran into the Iamonia lake, a few days ago.

Dr. E. E. Strickland has gone regularly into the business of healing the sick, and everybody is glad, because we have no doctor in the neighborhood. He will in the near future, have a new house for himself built near to that of his father.

The Bain, or rather Slater place, at old Sunny Hill, owned by Mrs. Bain, has been sold by her to a naval stores company, we think, and the timber on it will be turpentine this year. After the turpentine still, then comes the steam saw mill, then good bye trees. It makes me feel sad.
