Felt It a Duty.

To the Democratic Voters of the State of Florida:

Immediately after the first primary I sent Mr. Fletcher the following telegram, viz:

"I sincerely wish you success and will ask my friends to support you."

Some of the State papers have given prominence to this telegram, and construed it as an assumption upon my part that I could control the vote that was cast for me, in the first primary, for Mr. Fletcher in the second. In justice to myself, I think that I should state why I sent this telegram.

I have never assumed or presumed to influence or control any man's vote for an office. I, however, felt it to be my duty to tender my vote and support to that one of the two candidates in the second primary whom I thought better fitted and equipped to serve the people of Florida in the Senate of the United States.

From many years of personal and political acquaintance with both Governor Broward and Mr. Fletcher I am firmly convinced that it is to the best interest of Florida to elect Mr. Fletcher to the United States Senate, and when I sent the telegram to Mr. Fletcher I was actuated, as I have always been in public affairs, by what I believed to be for the best interest of my native State. I repeat, that I do not assume or presume to dictate to or control any man's vote, but I do believe it to be the duty of every citizen to advise and consult with his friends and neighbors upon public questions and candidates; and as I so strongly feel that Mr. Fletcher is by far the better qualified and equipped in every respect than is Governor Broward for the exalted position to which they both aspire, I sent Mr. Fletcher the telegram above quoted, and I shall unhesitatingly give him such assistance in his campaign as is in my power.

DEATH WAS ON HIS HEELS.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fletcher Men, Stand Solid!

The campaign will be over in a few days. Fletcher has continued his clean campaign. He has not abused or villified or misrepresented his opponent. Only 19,000 votes out of 53,000 were cast in the first primary for Governor Broward and his machine. Both Beard and Lamar are now for Fletcher. Eighty per cent. of their vote will come to Fletcher in the next primary. No one questions this. There can be only one result. The people will win their fight. The Governor's political machine will be smashed on the 16th. Fletcher will be elected. Let every Fletcher man be active and vigilant until the votes are counted. See that every Fletcher man casts his vote. Don't believe campaign lies sprung on election day.

NO HUMBUG

No humbug claims have to be made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known remedy for coughs, colds, and lung troubles. The fact that more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar are used than any other cough remedy is the best testimonial of its great merit. Why then miss taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and is safe and sure. For sale by all druggists.
