The grand jury of Cochise county has been investigating county affairs and county offices, and it made the following report on the sheriff and the jail whence the prisoners escaped:

"We, the undersigned, your committee appointed to investigate into the condition of the sheriff's office and county jail, do hereby certify that we have found the sheriff's office in good condition and the books in good keeping.

"We also investigated into the condition of the jail, the cells and corridors, and found that they are in good order, with the exception of a few cockroaches, which we found in several places."

We trust the taxpayers of Cochise county will rise as one man and demand the extermination of those cockroaches.—Republican.
