

SAN JUAN ITEMS.

T. R. Lee and family have gone to Apache County, Arizona, to visit friends and relatives.

Carl Hamblin left for Gallup with a load of fruit.

Wm. Hamblin and E. Winsor were in Hammond this week looking for a place to rent for the winter. They like the town so well that they want to buy instead of renting.

Joe Mangum and wife have gone to Ramah with a load of fruit. While there they will take a trip to Bluewater just to see the country.

Miss Ida Lee has begun teaching her term of school at Kirtland.

Miss Jane Black has left for Shiprock where she will take Mrs. Alice Lee's place as cook. Mrs. Lee has been there six months, and she thinks a rest will do her good.

The San Juan County Fair was a hummer. The attendance was larger than ever, and the various races, exhibits and premiums were better than ever.

DAISY.

Oct. 5th.

Apropos of a double column sensationally headed attack made by the Prescott Journal-Miner upon judge Ainsworth and Col Fitch, the latter gentleman says: "Do I propose to answer the Editor of the Journal-Miner? no sir, I don't propose to descent unto a cesspool to throw dirt with a blackguard. Do I propose to accept his invitation to sue him for libel? no, sir. There is an old proverb that tells us that he who sues a begger will catch a Louse, and I don't want any of those hatched 'Nit' buttons."—Arizona National.

Some one has discovered that Candidate Ainsworth has been a corporation attorney. Show us an anti attorney that is not a corporation lawyer yet — or wants to be. It's an awful crime for Mr. Ainsworth to have been one, however, to some antis.
