news, interesting to all

JANUARY 23, 1913

Holbrook News.

C. P. Covington, sheep inspector at St. Johns, spent a few days here, the last of last week on business.

Bud Greer, of St. Johns, was a business visitor here over Sunday and Monday.

C. H. Boyd, of St. Johns, was a Holbrook visitor, a few days ago, on business bent.

Fritz Schuster, of St. Johns, and nephew of Adolph Schuster, was here Monday on his way to Los Angeles to spend his vacation, Mr. Adolph Schuster accompanied him.

Harris Miller and Pat Slaughter, of Springerville were loading out a carload of fine house lumber, Sunday last.

Mrs. F. T. Colter, of Springerville, came up from there, last Saturday, on her way to Phoenix. From there she will go to New Orleans to attend the Madras, and from there will go to New York and later attend the inauguration of President Wilson, at Washington, D. C.—News.

Last Sunday, members of the W. O. W. congregated and chose sides for a shoot. Frank Gallegos and O. D. Gallegos were the ones chosen to select the men to do the shooting, there were five men chosen on each. At the close of the shoot the score stood 72 to 38 in favor of Frank Gallegos side. Mr. Theodore Lopez made the highest score 16 out of a possible 25. The day was not favorable (?) for shooting so the boys say and it is thought they can do better some other time.

S. C. Carrillo is having a new roof put on his new home which he recently purchased, when completed it will be among the swell home of our city.
