The News joins the many friends of the bride and groom in best wishes for a happy wedded life.—Holbrook News.

RANK FOOLISHNESS

You occasionally see it stated that colds do not result from cold weather. That is rank foolishness. Were it true colds would be as prevalent in mid-summer as in midwinter. The microbe that causes colds flourishes in damp, cold weather. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it is effectual and is highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable everywhere.

The Whiting family fully maintained their reputation last Thursday evening in presenting, "Bound by an Oath." The play is one of great renown and every character had plenty of room and chance to make a good showing in their respective parts and each did the part exceptionally well. Friday the play was given at Eagar to a big house where it was again received with enthusiasm. Let us hope that Mr. Whiting will soon give us another.

WHEN to Take Chamberlain's Tablets

When you feel dull and stupid after eating.
When constipated or bilious.
When you have a sick headache.
When you have a sour stomach.
When you belch after eating.
When you have indigestion.
When you have no relish for your meals.
When your liver is torpid,
Obtainable everywhere.

THE FORSAKEN

(This poem, written by "Stella," (Mrs. Estella Ann Lewis) at the age of fourteen Poe said, was "the most beautiful ballad of the kind ever written.")

It hath been said, for all who die
There is a tear;
Some pining, bleeding heart to sigh
O'er every bier.
But in that hour of pain and dread,
Who will draw near
Around my humble couch and shed
One farewell tear,
Who'll watch life's fast departing ray
In deep despair,
And soothe my Spirit on its way
With holy prayer?
What moaners around my bier will come
In weeds of woe,
And follow me to my long home,
Solenn and slow?
When lying on my clayey bed
In icy sleep,
Who there by pure affection led,
Will come and weep?
By the pale moon implant the rose
Upon my breast,
And bid it cheer my dark repose—
My lowly rest?
Could I but know when I am sleeping
Low in the ground,
One faithful heart would there bekeeping
Watch all around,
And if some gem lay shined beneath
That cold sod's gloom:
'Twould mitigate the pangs of death,
And light the tomb.
Yes, in that hour if I could feel
From halls of gloe
And beauty's presence one would steal
In secrecy,
And come and sit and weep by me,
In night's deep noon:
Oh! I would ask of memory
No other boon.
But, ah! a lonlier fate is mine,
A deeper woe;
From all I love in youth's sweet time
I soon must go,
Draw round me my pale robes of white,
In a dark spot,
To sleep thro' death's lone dreamless
Lone and forgot. [night]

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

Pres. David K. Udall has had J. W. Waite employed during the past week putting in the foundation for the porches on his beautiful house. The foundations are now in and in the near future Mr. Udall will have the cement floors put down.

Word was received this morning from Springerville that very little hopes are entertained for the recovery of Mrs. Joseph K. Udall.

Dr. Frank W. Brown is to lecture today, at the academy, to mothers and young ladies on how to be healthy.
