To the voters of Apache County: Inasmuch as a story is being told, and circulated, for political gain I presume, that I have said that "I do not care for the vote of the outlying precincts", I wish to make this public denial of any such a statement and brand it as a falsehood.

And I assure all my friends again that I shall appreciate their votes.

W. I. Burk of Alpine arrived in the city yesterday and is now shaking hands with the voters here. Will is out for County Assessor.

Royally Entertained.

Editor St. Johns Herald,
St. Johns, Arizona.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly give space in your valuable paper for the following few lines, as I feel that they are worthy of mention:

On the 18th of this month I had the pleasure of meeting with the good people of Luna, Alpine and Nutrioso in their Old Folks social gathering and to say that it was a complete success is putting it mildly. I have attended a number of such gatherings but never attended one that was better; it seemed that everyone present, both old and young, partook of the spirit of the occasion.

Great credit is due the committee that had it in charge for the systematic way in which they handled it, there is also great credit due the young people for the pleasant manner and way they had in entertaining the honored guests.

A very interesting program was gotten up for the occasion consisting of songs, recitations, speeches and instrumental music, which was rendered at the morning session.

At noon the guests sat down to a bounteous feast prepared by loving and thoughtful hands and one that could not be surpassed anywhere. At 2 o'clock we all assembled again and was entertained by an extemporaneous program which was very interesting and enjoyable.

In the evening a grand ball was given at which the Old Folks had the right of way until they became weary, after which the young folks had a jolly time until after midnight. It would have done you good to have seen the grey haired men and women going through some of the old time reels and square dances. Many of the young people looked on in astonishment, and when Uncle Nute Adair and Aunt Francis Mangum took the floor and gave us an old time jig dance they brought the whole house down. I hardly think you could find their equal in the county, old or young. Aunt Francis stepped to the music and was as light on her feet as a sixteen year old girl.

I am looking forward to the time when I may again have the pleasure of again meeting with the good people of those mountain settlements on a similar occasion.

Respectfully,
W. H. Gibbons.

A Word to the Voters.

I am informed that someone has been industriously engaged in circulating the report that in case I am elected to the office of sheriff an understanding exists whereby Jacob Hamblin, the present incumbent of the office, and Deputy Connor Trammel will become my deputies. I wish to emphatically deny that there has been or is any such understanding. If I am elected neither Mr. Hamblin nor Mr. Trammel will serve under me as deputies. Furthermore, I wish to state that I have promised no one a position as deputy. If elected, will do what is fair and just to the best of my ability, but I have no special pets and am not offering any special inducements in the line of deputyship to gain votes.

Yours Truly,
E. W. Grimes.

William Rothlisberger Killed.

Willie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothlisberger, met with a fatal accident last Thursday evening at about 6 o'clock. Willie had been visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Fred Neilson, at Richville. He left his aunt's home Thursday morning going to the Stradling ranch a few miles distance with the intention of coming home with Mrs. Stradling who was coming to St. Johns the next day. While at the Stradling ranch he spent the day with the children there playing in one way and another. In the evening Mrs. Stradling told her little son, Clifford to go and get the cows from the pasture.

Clifford left, accompanied by Willie, to get the cows, when a short distance from the house they caught a horse to ride the balance of the distance, the horse was one that Clifford always rode for cows, while trying to put the bridle on the horse it became frightened in some way and the rope which was lying on was in some way wrapped around Willie's feet he was jerked violently to the ground and dragged about 40 yards. The Stradling boy upon discovering that his companion was seriously hurt ran for help meeting his mother, who had witnessed the scene from the house and was running to the boy. Mrs. Stradling picked Willie up and carried him to the house where she tried every available means to revive him, but all to no purpose as later examinations showed that his neck had been broken.

Robt. Overson who had been working near the Stradling ranch happened to be going by and was met by Thomas Irwin's son Johnny who told what had happened and Mr. Overson knowing that Mrs. Stradling was all alone on the ranch with her children went to the rescue and brought the body to St. Johns.

Willie was a bright manly little fellow and is well known here in St. Johns. The sorrow of his parents is almost insupportable. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the academy and burial took place at the Westside cemetery.

Almon Riggs is over from Concho. We are informed that Al is going to announce that he is a candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket.
