Miss Elizabeth Gleason, who has been teaching at Flagstaff, returned Monday from a weeks vacation with Mrs. H. W. Hopewell near Pinedale.

W. B. Wood purchased from Mrs. Jennie Zuck the first two lots west of his residence. Mr. Woods has great faith in the future of Holbrook.

Married at the home of the Bride in Woodruff, yesterday, Miss May Gardner to Mr. Clifford Frost. The Bride is the daughter of Chairman, Q. R. Gardner, and has many friends. Mr. Frost is a well known young man of good character and many friends. The News extends congratulations.

The school board have asked for plans and specifications for the new school building. If you have any plans or suggestions please send them in.

The News after next week will be a four page, five column all home print. We make this change in order to take care of our business.

Holbrook must have a water system. It takes water to make lawns and shade trees and it takes all these to make beautiful homes.

The stone work on the Merchants and Stockgrowers Bank has been completed and the building is now in charge of the carpenters and plasterers. Mr. Cline, the cashier, says all the material is here to complete the building.

Stray Shots, Hits and Misses from Ft. Apache.

Col. H. O. Perley, Chief Surgeon of the Dept. arrived here on inspection tour Sunday, and left for Whipple Barracks Monday.

Miss Francis Gibbons who has been attending school at Prescott, arrived here last Sunday to spend vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons.

In the ball game Sunday the Sheepherder in sliding to second dished a wheel, it looked for awhile like another case of light diet, but he recovered.

Ed Lorant of E troop, better known as sky pilot No. 2, has taken a back seat and gone to reading the police Gazette again.

The soldiers of Apache have no bad habits, they don't even drink or marry to excess. Por que.

There was a pony race last Saturday on the tripod drill grounds for a purse of $4.80. The little pony of Miss Julia Gibbons rode by Corporal Battle Axx was the winner. "Fannie" the little pony owned by Miss Ella Sheldon, was rode by Master Jack Gibbons came in second.

Sgt. Pete Luncheon and Clerk Guyer, the H. troop botanist have been making fish ponds in front of troop quarters and the way they weild the pick shows they have three years to do it in.

E troop left Monday for a three days practice march; they will also map the country covered, returning to the post on the 23. E troop will go out on the 24, for the same number of days, securing maps of all roads and territory covered by them, also.

Ordnance Sgt. Bieble Melts lots these warm days aside from playing pinochle.

Next Friday the 29, will be field day here, there will be all kinds of games and sporting events, the winners of which will be given in next issue of the News.

McLain of H. C. sold his white burro for $10.00 and invested same in a horse. Mc says horse hides are more valuable.

Sgt. Major Keeney turned out last Sunday all togged in his blue with fried shirt, collar and cuffs. he also frequently has a nice bouquet of flowers on his desk of late, it is rumored that something will drap poco snakes.

Patsy Lott says he has a nice snug income above and aside from his clothing allowance,

Max Doble says he can take one squadron (4 hives) of his imported bees and whip any regiment of cavalry that ever came down the pike.

We go to press with Bieble and keeney at the bat.

Charley Oxx.

Miss Leah Gardner visited friends here this week.

Have us send the News to your friends back east. It will do as well as a letter.

Wednesday we counted at one time twelve wagons loaded with wool with an average of fourteen sacks of three hundred pounds each, more than fifty thousand pounds of wool in one day at one time waiting to be unloaded.
