

Notice To Creditors.
Estate of William T. Oliver, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned Administrator of the Estate of William T. Oliver, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice to the administrator at Show Low, Arizona, the same being the place for the transation of the business of said estate, in said County of Navajo:

Willard Whipple,
Administrator of William T. Oliver, deceased, Dated Show-Low, Arizona, this 31st day of December, 1909.

The County Board of Supervisors will meet on the last day of the year to settle up the annual county business and will then adjourn and meet again January 3rd, 1910.

W. H. Clark made a hurried trip to Adamana Wednesday

The Christmas dance given at the Wetzler Hall Monday night was a grand success and was one of the merriest and most enjoyable occasions of the season. The best music obtainable was had and the dancing and merry-making was kept up until early morning.

The Holbrook News is the Greatest advertising Medium in the World. Three weeks ago one of our patrons lost his overcoat that he had worn five winters and after advertising in our paper two weeks he is now wearing a brand new overcoat. Advertising rates made known on application.

Frank Wallace was in town Wednesday from Adamana.

Mr. James Scott and family arrived here Tuesday evening from Pinedale. Mrs. Scott and daughter Maude left for Los Angeles Thursday morning but Mr. Scott will remain here and will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors December 31, 1909, and January 3 1910.

Mr. O. H. John relieved the Benedict Agent at the depot and will remain here until the return of the Benedict from his honeymoon tour to the City of Mexico. Mr. John has been agent for the agent for the Santa Fe at this place before and by his strict attention to business has won the distinction of being one of the most competent and obliging agents the railroad has ever had here.

In the Matter of the Estate of J. H. Breed, deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the hearing of the separate petitions of W. H. Burber and Charles N. Bond praying for the probate of the last will and Testament of J. H. Breed, deceased, has been continued from December 23, 1909, to the April 4th, 1910, term of said Court; and that the same will be heard, together with the contests of the probate of said will, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Courtroom of said Court, in Holbrook, County of Navajo, Territory of Arizona, and all persons interested in said estate are notified then and there to appear.

R. C. Smith, Clerk.

Ye editor, Sidney Sapp, left on No 8 Tuesday morning for Guthrie Oklahoma, in response to a summons by the U. S. Marshal, and will be gone about two weeks. Mr. Sapp told us on leaving that he was wanted as a witness in a murder case that had been tried three times in the United States Court; that he had given testimony at each trial and that the defendant had been convicted every time-and we wonder if he wasn't-but that the defendant had now obtained another new trial and that our editor was called upon to give the same and possibly more testimony again. If that is the case we pity the defendant this time, but it all sounded, yes sounded to us so much like music that had been sung before that it put us to thinking if it wasn't all a josh. And we have been wondering every since he left, since the season is in his favor and he has fooled us before, if our boss wouldn't come back "double" and have Mrs. held us in the print shop. We would not expect her to do much but she could cut out old news items from papers that we could print as new. We would not say anything about this matter at all but ye editor told us, the print shop devil, to print every thing and to be sure and print the news, the whole news and nothing but the news. If our readers don't like the this kind of news we will try and stand off a shower of vegetables, including carrots, turnips, cabbage and beets etc, if it happens to rain that way, and will save the collection for ye editor and family(?) since they may be in need of that kind of stuff before spring.
