

See H. H. Scorse for heavy galvanized pipe and well points.

Lion Brand Fancy Hats for Early Spring Wear Just Received.

Selz shoes for men, women & children

Full line of gent's and ladies furnishings.

A full line of fancy and staple groceries always in stock.

H. H. SCORSE

Retail and Wholesale Dealer in General Merchandise

HOLBROOK, ARIZONA

News of Holbrook and Vicinity

Miss Winnie Saxton is reported on the sick list this week.

Manuel Candelaria of Concho, is here today.

C. R. Beamer of Phoenix, was in Holbrook Wednesday.

D. A. Penrod was a business visitor here from Whiteriver.

Frank A. Woods of Chambers, was in Holbrook yesterday.

Joe Sponseller of Showlow, is business visitor in Holbrook today.

Mr. Freeman, of Snowflake, is transacting business in the county seat.

Harry Jamison, of Denver, and a well known cattle buyer, came in last Tuesday.

P. E. Slaughter and John Slaughter of Springerville, are prominent cattle men in town.

Dr. J. W. Bazell went down to Winslow yesterday on professional business.

Thorwald Larson is setting his lots north of the N. A. T. garage, to shade trees.

Max Henderson and Bert Stiles of Winslow, attended the dance at the Pastime Tuesday night.

Ed Solomon of Shumway, was in town Wednesday. He expects to move with his family, to Mesa soon.

F. W. Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Newsom and Mrs. W. H. Clark motored to Winslow last Sunday, returning the same day.

Bradley and Gardner will begin work on the big warehouse for the A. C. M. I., at an early date.

Mrs. Jensen of Mesa, mother of Mrs. A. L. Rencher, is here and will remain with her daughter for quite an extended visit.

Earl Adams arrived the first part of the week from Kansas City, and spend a few days with his brother, W. J. Adams.

T. B. Sauls, merchant and Indian trader of Creso, on the Apache reservation, was in town last Monday on business.

Andy Blevins of Heber, was a recent visitor in Holbrook, having brought down his daughter Lila, who is visiting among friends for a few weeks.

Samuel Foote and wife from Safford, Arizona, are in Holbrook with a view of becoming permanent residents of this section of Navajo county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnston, of Indian Wells, were in town Wednesday, on their way home from a stay of some length in Phoenix.

Formal announcement has been made of the engagement of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Wilson, the presidents' youngest daughter.

J. E. Richards, chairman of the board of supervisors, was in Holbrook Monday attending to the semi-monthly business of the Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cummins, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cross motored down to Joe City last Sunday afternoon, where they enjoyed a short visit with friends.

The boys and girls are especially invited to the service at the Methodist church tonight. The sermon will be on The Light of the World and will be illustrated with candles.

Sheriff Joe Woods is putting in a new water system which will supply water sufficient to irrigate the ground around his house, which he is planting in lawn grass, flowers and shrubbery.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wrench, Mrs. Bauerbach, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Karrigan, Billie Workman and Tom Reader, composed a motor party from Winslow, who were visiting in Holbrook during the first part of the week.

J. H. Roberts, of Winslow, was here this week.

D. C. Smith, of Winslow, was a recent visitor in town.

T. Turley, of Joppa, is in town today.

Master Richard Scorse fell off of a burro last Saturday and received a badly sprained arm.

Mrs. A. Lopez is having a one-room cement block addition built onto her house, in East Side.

C. M. Jackson of Indian Wells, was among the recent visitors in Holbrook.

W. E. Mange, a wool buyer from Albuquerque, was here last week.

John Paulsell is putting out shade trees and otherwise beautifying his grounds.

Sheriff Joe Woods made an official business trip to Winslow last Tuesday.

Attorney O. E. Overson of St. Johns, was in town during the early part of the week.

C. F. Dutton, postoffice inspector, was here this week from Phoenix.

Postmaster E. J. Smith has this week set out a number of cottonwood trees around the premises of his home.

Cliff Frost of the N. A. T. company, went to Woodruff yesterday to visit his family. His baby is reported quite sick.

Rov Turberville of Pinta, came in Tuesday and remained over for the Pastime St. Patrick's ball.

Tom Ortega, with his wife and daughter went up to Snowflake Saturday to attend the St. Johns-Snowflake track meet.

Miss Alberta Henning of Pinto, was in Holbrook this week, enjoying a visit with her brother, Lloyd C. Henning and Mrs. Henning.

L. Cadwell went to Phoenix during the early part of the week and is expected to return next Tuesday. Some business affair is responsible for the trip.

Fred Colter, of Colter, Apache county, was here Wednesday en route to Phoenix to attend a meeting of the Arizona State Fair association.

Mrs. Ninian Miller of Snowflake, is spending a few days here quite pleasantly with her sons, A. K. and J. H. Miller, and daughter, Phoebe.

Lee Newman, wife and children, his brother, Joe Dent and Miss Nora Dent, came down from Taylor yesterday, remained over night in Holbrook and left this morning on a little pleasure jaunt to the Grand Canyon.

Lest you forget that on Friday March 27th, Mrs. Jack Smith will have her opening of stylish Easter millinery. It will pay you to call.

Clark Baldon is "punching cattle" for Mr. Wyrick of Winslow, and will no doubt become quite expert in the art of twirling the lariat if he can only remember that a horse is guided by gently pulling the bridle reins and not by twisting a steering wheel.

C. F. Montross, editor of the St. Johns Observer, was greeting old acquaintances in Holbrook last Sunday. Prior to assuming the responsibilities of the Observer's editorial chair, Mr. Montross represented the brains of the Holbrook News most successfully, and during that time made many friends here. He was returning from Snowflake.

Attorney Ove Overson took a long hike that was not premeditated, while en route to Holbrook, all because his car "bowed up" about thirty miles out from here. The genial Ove had to hoof it over every foot of that 30 miles, but arrived wearing the same old smile, and extended the glad hand just as good naturedly as though he had sat on a cushioned seat and fondled the steering wheel all the way.

Episcopal Services

Rev. Jacob M. White, will conduct Episcopal services at the M. E. church next Wednesday at 8 p. m. and extends a cordial invitation to all.

The Lowest Prices

and

The Very Best goods

you always find at

A. & B. Schuster Co.

St. Johns, Holbrook, Whiteriver

Dealers in Everything

Satisfaction guaranteed

HOLBROOK AGENCY

The Lyman Land Co.

Irrigated Lands

under the

NEW ST. JOHNS RESERVOIR

This land is just now being put on the market and will be rapidly sold on easy terms. The choice tracts are still left. Call or write for full information.

R. S. TEEPLE

Holbrook, Arizona

THE PIONEER LIVERY

FEED and SALE STABLES

S. D. SMITH, Proprietor

Crop Inspector for Navajo County

DEALER IN

Wagons, Machinery, Gas Engines of Int. Harv. Mfr.

Delivery Storage, Transfer, Rigs for Rent.

Special Trips to Petrified Forest and other Points. Feed yard. Cheapest Rates.

:: HOME HOTEL ::

ST. JOHNS, ARIZONA

Arranged and finished with a view to giving the public a model stopping place in the Apache county metropolis.

Large, airy, well lighted rooms, newly finished and newly furnished. Hot and cold baths. Good meals. Prompt and courteous service and no excessive charges.

When you visit St. Johns, don't fail to visit the new Home Hotel.

PHONE FOR ACCOMMODATIONS PHONE NO. 19.

JNO. T. PATTERSON, PROPR.

BANNER DRUG STORE

GALLUP, NEW MEXICO

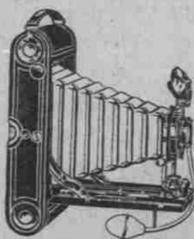

EASTMAN KODAK

AGENCY

Developing and Printing

our specialty

Mail orders solicited, prompt attention assured

Real Estate

Notary Public

Commissions

W. H. CLARK

Member National Real Estate Dealers Exchange.

Central Real Estate Dealers Association.

Cattle and Cattle Ranches, Sheep and Sheep Ranches, Irrigation Projects.

Holbrook

Arizona

BARGAINS

in new Spring Goods

Complete line in Ladies' and Gents' furnishings, fine dress Goods, etc.

GROCERIES, HARDWARE, FURNITURE

B. FIRST

General Merchandise

HOLBROOK,

ARIZONA

Subscribe for The News. Only $2.00