ADDITIONAL NEWS OF HOLBROOK AND VICINITY

Erickson, the Winslow tailor, will be in town next Tuesday.

Miss Effie Smith has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Snowflake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Heward made a trip to Woodruff this week and spent a day with Grandma Heward.

Miss Ruth Wallace is spending the week at the Howell ranch, near Navajo, as the guest of Miss Zelma Howell.

Our customers will tell you about it. We are financially able to take care their legitimate needs. MERCHANTS & STOCK GROWERS BANK. a7tf

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Zuck returned last evening from St. Johns, where Mr. Zuck has been engaged in installing an ice plant for H. Knight. Mr. Zuck left everything going in good shape.

Alfred Garrison, one of our most popular young men, left on Friday for San Francisco, where he goes to enlist in the U. S. navy. Mr. Garrison has youth and ambition, and will be sure to make good.

D. D. Crabb, of Pinedale, motored in from his ranch last Friday, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Zelma Ervine of Phoenix, who has spent the summer at the Crabb ranch. Miss Ervine returned to Phoenix on Saturday morning.

W. B. Clemens, of Adamana, is confined to his room at the Brunswick, suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. Dr. J. W. Bazell is in attendance, and reports his patient somewhat improved.

Holbrook vs. Insurrectos at the ball park tomorrow. Mr. Buckley is manager for Holbrook and R. S. Teeple says he will lead the Insurrectos to victory. Both managers claim the best line-up, so the fans ought to get a good run for their money.

Among those from Holbrook who journeyed up to Navajo for the dance Tuesday evening were Mrs. Hess and children, Mrs. L. C. Henning, Mrs. Geo. Hennessey, Miss Maida Daily, Misses Ruth and Bertha Wallace, Chauncey Woods, James Scorse, Jr., Bob Barrett and Leo Frost.

Attorney O. E. Overson, of St. Johns, is in town, having motored over accompanied by Dr. T. J. Bouldin and Abel Ortega, the latter gentleman going to Winslow to assist in the Navajo-Apache bank during the absence of Cashier Kauffman, who was called away on account of death in his family.

THE NEWS is in receipt of the annual catalogue of the Snowflake Stake Academy for 1914-15. This is one of the leading educational institutions of the state and the people of this section can do no better than to send their children to this school. It opens for the term on Monday, September 7. The curriculum includes domestic science, art and music.

Mrs. George Hennessey very delightfully entertained the Friday Club at her lovely new home last Friday afternoon. A dainty two-course lunch was served to Mesdames James Scorse, Charles Perkins, W. H. Clark, Lloyd C. Henning, C. H. Jordan, John Flannigan, Henry Scorse, J. E. Crosby, Jesse Hulet, W. E. Woods and the Misses Jo. and Mae McClanahan. Mrs. C. Hess, of Heber, and Mrs. Emmett Wallace, of Adamana, were the guests of the club.

Fred. T. Colter, the well known rancher of Springerville, was a business visitor in Holbrook last Saturday. Mr. Colter is also one of the State fair commissioners and is working up an interest in the motorcycle race from Springerville to Phoenix during the next fair. The idea is for each town along the route, which includes Holbrook, to offer money to the first rider entering the town in the race. The other towns along the route have given from $100 to $300, and Phoenix gives the grand prize—$1,000.

for medical services on account of her broken arm.

Surveyor C. A. Long and party, consisting of W. R. Warner, assistant, Fred Turley, chainman, and Ross Hunt, teamster, left Snowflake Wednesday to start work on the claims on the east side of the forest requiring entry surveys. They will start work at Linden.

PINEDALE

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brewer, a fine boy last Thursday. Mother and baby doing nicely.

Miss Clara Rogers and Miss Atallia Smith, of Snowflake, are visiting Miss Pearce this week, and from all appearances are enjoying themselves immensely.

There has been considerable rain here of late, the crops are looking good, and grass and all kinds of vegetation on the open range is excellent. The stockmen also report the best calf crop, up to date, in this part for many years.

B. P. Owens entertained the young people here Sunday evening with games and antique comedies. They were greatly enjoyed by all present. The crowd separated from the Owens home with light hearts and love light shining in their eyes.

The Water Boss raised the headgate rather too high here last Friday, letting down a sheet of water unprecedented in the history of the place. James W. Pearce was the unfortunate one. The water sucked through his place in great torrents, doing about $100 damage.
