PART 1

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NAVAJO COUNTY

VOL. 7. No. 41.

HOLBROOK, NAVAJO COUNTY, ARIZONA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1916.

G. M. BRAXTON, Proprietor.

New L. D. S. Church Will be Dedicated in May

Church Dedication Postponed

It being impossible for the visitors from Salt Lake to get here, the dedication of the new L. D. S. church, which was advertised for next Monday, has been postponed for three months.

The building is completed and is being used by the church and also by the higher grades of the Holbrook schools.

Pres. S. F. Smith of Snowflake was here Monday on business and completed a plan for fencing the lots, which will be done soon.

Episcopal Church Service

Rev. J. M. White, pastor of the Episcopal church in Winslow, will hold services in the Holbrook M. E. church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

In future Rev. White will hold services here on the second Sunday of each month.

Picture Shows Consolidate

There is now but one moving picture theatre in Holbrook. Last Monday W. R. Black, who opened the U. S. theatre a few months ago, leased the Pastime theatre from J. C. Lathrop, who was the pioneer in the business. The lease includes the entire building containing the theatre, billiard parlor and barber shop. Mr. Black is now in charge of the Pastime; he will close the U. S., and will devote his entire attention to managing the one theatre.

Holbrook is not large enough to support two theatres, although there is sufficient patronage to make agood business for one. With but one, better attractions can be put on and the public will be benefitted.

Mr. Lathrop has not yet decided as to his future. He owns the Electric theatre building in Winslow, and this is also leased at a good rental. From these two buildings, and other investments, he draws a good income, and he is in a position to take a long rest if he so desires.

Mr. and Mrs. Black wish to thank the people of Holbrook for the liberal patronage accorded them in the past and they cordially ask for a continuation of this patronage in the future. As soon as their new machine arrives the Pastime theatre will be used exclusively.

M. I. A. Debate

Fully 150 people attended the debate between the St. Joseph M. I. A. and the Holbrook M. I. A., held in the L. D. S. church Monday night, Feb. 7, 1916. The question was: Resolved, that our national defenses should be strengthened. The St. Joseph association had the affirmative and Holbrook the negative. They were represented respectively by R. E. Porter and Aaron Porter, and G. A. Smith and J. H. Miller. Both teams did splendid work, and the decision was very close, the Holbrook team getting it by a slight margin. The judges were H. F. Bushman, J. E. Crosby and J. J. Shumway.

Several visitors came from Taylor, Snowflake and St. Joseph. The musical numbers interspersed in the program were much appreciated and consisted of the following: Baritone solo, A. E. Bushman; male quartet from St. Joseph association and male quartet and ladies' chorus from Holbrook.

Spring Has Come

Weather indications point to the fact that spring, if not already with us, is rapidly approaching. Since the storm of snow and rain that prevailed here for nearly two weeks ended early last week, the weather has grown milder each day and unless it changes decidedly the planting of garden seeds will soon start.

There are other indications also of the coming of spring. We have this week received two effusions of spring poetry. As the authors of each neglected to sign his and her name—one was written by a youth, the other by a lass—we refrain from publishing them; we also refrain out of consideration for our readers.

In fact we are certain that spring "has come," we have a touch of spring-fever, and the disease can be mistaken for nothing else. Only another snow storm can convince us that we are wrong in our prognostications.

Something Good

Those who hate nasty medicine should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable and so natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obtainable everywhere.

Navajo Indians Threaten Uprising

A dispatch under a Flagstaff date line, published Tuesday in the Arizona Republican stated that the Indians on the Navajo reservation in northeastern Arizona were threatening to kill all the white inhabitants, and burn the government buildings there, according to William Dubree, superintendent of construction of the indian school at Tuba, who arrived in Flagstaff last Sunday with information concerning the threatened uprising.

The few Caucasian families living at Tuba have but a small amount of arms and ammunition with which to defend themselves, Dubree said in telling of the threats of the Indians.

Superintendent T. Runke, and two police officers of Tuba attempted to arrest a "bad" Indian at a point about 50 miles north of that town January 26, Dubree stated. The Indian shot at the officers and was himself killed when the policemen returned the fire.

Friends of the Indians immediately began to foment trouble among other Indians on the reservation, and some of the Piutes, who went on the warpath in the Bluff, Utah, district about a year ago, also began agitating a disturbance among this band.

Tuba is on the "Painted Desert," about 90 miles north of Flagstaff. The Indian school and headquarters of the Indian superintendent are located there.

Editor Sent to Jail

W. W. Booth, editor of the Tonopah Bonanza, and known to many of the mining men now operating in the Oatman district, has been sentenced to serve six months in the county jail, following his conviction on a charge of criminally libeling the district attorney of Nye County, Nevada. According to Booth, he "only told the truth about the man," but the jury that found him guilty, and recommended mercy, thought otherwise. Six of the jurors later declared they would have voted for acquittal had they known Booth was to be sentenced to jail, they believing that he would merely be given a nominal fine.—Kingman Mineral Wealth.
