Some of It May Interest You; All Of It Is Worth a Perusal

Marriage Anniversary Celebrated
 Last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Flanigan celebrated the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding by entertaining a company of friends at whist.

Large bouquets of sweet peas grown in Mrs. Flanigan's garden were given as prizes to those making high scores, the winners being Mrs. W. B. Woods and C. H. Jordan.

At the close of the play refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served. Grape juice was served throughout the evening.

As a token of their esteem the lady guests presented Mrs. Flanigan with a handsome water set.

The twenty-one years of married life have dealt kindly with Mr. and Mrs. Flanigan. Theirs is a comfortable and happy home, and their neighbors are likewise their friends. That they may live to enjoy many other anniversaries like their twenty-first was the wish expressed by all who partook of their hospitality upon that occasion.

Alleged Whiskey Destroyed

The destruction of 26 quart bottles alleged to contain whiskey was witnessed last Monday afternoon by Prof. Peterson and the editor of The News. The destruction of the bottles was accomplished by a hammer in hands of Undersheriff Clemons. The 26 bottles were part of contraband secured by the sheriff's office at different times by the arrest of bootleggers. We write "alleged" advisedly—neither Prof. Peterson nor ourself was permitted to sample the contents of the bottles, although both of the witnesses might have been adjudged to be from Missouri.

Forethought

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

Series of Religious Meetings

Saturday evening a series of religious meetings will be commenced in the Holbrook M. E. church by Dr. Atkinson, presiding elder of this district. Dr. Atkinson will be assisted by Rev. Cole, pastor of the church. The meetings will continue for one week, ending on the following Friday night. There will be good music and the public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Mrs. Scorse Entertains for Niece

Last Saturday evening Mrs. James H. Scorse gave a party complimentary to her young niece, Katherine Mann, of San Francisco, who is a guest in her home. About 20 school children were present and spent a very enjoyable evening in playing games and partaking of the delicious refreshments provided by Mrs. Scorse.

Mrs. Braam Entertains at Whist

Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. Julia Braam was a gracious hostess to a number of friends invited to meet her cousin, Miss Emma Lindsey, of Long Beach, Cal. The time was very enjoyably passed in playing whist, Mrs. Cadwell making high score and Miss Whetstone, low.

Judge and Mrs. Sidney Sapp and daughter, Gwendolyn, will leave Holbrook tomorrow morning for Los Angeles to attend the triennial conclave of Knight Templar Masons. Afterwards they will spend a few weeks visiting various beach resorts near that city. On the same morning the daughters and son of Judge and Mrs. Sapp will depart for the east to spend the summer with relatives. Miss Whetstone and brother, Leon, will go to Stillwater, Oklahoma, and Miss Helen Sapp to Kansas City.

Last Monday 500 head of yearling heifers were shipped from Holbrook to Denver by Harry Jamison. The stock was purchased from Frank Wallace. The train load of cattle that left here last Friday afternoon for Garden City, Kansas, contained only steers and had been sold by Mr. Wallace and others in this section. The shipment included about 1700 head and the price received by the local raisers was $33.00.

Walter Rhobey, a negro porter in the employ of the Pullman company, was brought to Holbrook Thursday evening upon a warrant charging him with disturbing the peace of Winslow. He was arraigned before Judge Boyer by County Attorney Jordan and was fined $150. He will board with the county for a while.

The Crochet Circle held its regular weekly meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Warren on the Aztec ranch. Late in the afternoon the members of the circle were joined by their husbands and a picnic supper was served. The occasion is reported as being a very enjoyable one.

In another column of the News appears an announcement of the candidacy of Miss Dee M. Moss for the nomination to the office of County Recorder of Navajo county, subject to the decision of the democratic primaries in September. Miss Moss was elected to the office in November 1914, assuming the duties of the office in January 1915. During her term of office she has shown herself to be a careful, painstaking and competent official. Her courteous attention to patrons of the office has established her firmly in the esteem of all who have occasion to visit or transact business with the recorder's office.

In another column appears the display advertisement of the Holbrook State Bank, in which is given the names of the recently elected officers. J. M. Reynolds, of Albuquerque, is president; Attorney C. H. Jordan, of Holbrook, is vice president; L. M. Raynolds, formerly of Albuquerque and now a resident of Holbrook, is cashier, and Mrs. Ruth Kelly, who held the position of assistant cashier under the former ownership, retains the same position. This bank is making a strong bid for patronage and will no doubt receive a share of the business in this community.

In this issue of the News J. W. Richards announces himself as a candidate for reelection to the office of County Treasurer of Navajo county, subject to the decision of the democratic primaries in September. Mr. Richards has been county treasurer since January 1, 1915; he also held the office for two terms, beginning in 1904 and ending with 1908. During his incumbency of the office he has proven himself a careful and competent official, and his friends believe that his record entitles him to a reelection next November.

H. J. McClung, president of the Phoenix National bank, was in this county several days this week looking after business interests. Mr. McClung is the principal owner of the Hopen Land and Cattle Co., of which Senator Crabb was the local representative until a few months ago. This company delivered a considerable number of cattle during the week; some were loaded in Holbrook and others were delivered to the purchasers in Snowflake.

Last Sunday afternoon the regular Holbrook base ball club crossed bats with the Holbrook jiteney club. The game was a cinch for the regulars and before the game closed the score-keeper ran out of paper upon which to mark the runs made by the winners, hence The News is unable to give the accurate record. It was good practice, however, for the regular players, and as such was valuable.

Sheriff R. L. Newman returned Sunday morning from an official trip to the state insane asylum, where he placed a demented Mexican man from Winslow.
