Afternoon at Whist

Last Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, Mrs. Jesse S. Hulet and Mrs. J. Frank Matthews entertained at whist, at the home of Mrs. Hulet. Twenty-four ladies engaged in play. Mrs. Roberts, of El Paso, a guest of Mrs. Warren, making high score. Mrs. Warren had low score. After cards delicious refreshments were served by the gracious hostesses, and the guests were a unit in pronouncing this one of the most enjoyable social events of the season.

Anybody's Race

Colonel Roosevelt has declined to run for president on the progressive party ticket, and has come out in a letter advising all his friends to vote for the republican nominee—C. E. Hughes.

Perennial Candidate Bryan has again declared himself a democrat, and has said "God bless you" to President Wilson, the democratic nominee for president. It is presumed that he will offer his services to the democratic campaign managers, provided the said managers will agree to the chautauqua statesman's price.

In the national campaign there will be but two main contestants—the democratic and republican parties, since Roosevelt has eliminated himself and the progressive party. The fight for victory will be a merry one, and neither side has any advantages at the start.

There are probably two million more republicans than democrats in the United States, but this is offset by the advantage the democrats have by reason of being the party in power. On the other hand each party has practically an equal handicap—the democrats are handicapped by the support of Bryan, the republicans by the support of Roosevelt.

The leaders of the two parties are equally matched, and the winner will be decided at the election in November. Should Wilson handle the war which is practically sure to come with Mexico in a statesmanlike manner, his election is almost certain. Should he show himself incapable of meeting the situation with firmness, the election of Hughes will follow.

Forethought

People are learning that a little forethought often saves the man a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.
