DOCTORS FIND A NEW THROAT DISEASE IN BALTIMORE—MAY INTERFERE WITH SPEAKERS.

Baltimore, Mar. 19.—That from fifteen to twenty persons of Baltimore have died from a new disease of the throat or from complications caused by it, was the statement made today by Dr. Hugh H. Young, president of the Medical Chirurgical Faculty. The disease is said to be gaining head way.

To formulate plans for the prevention of the disease a meeting of the most prominent physicians in the city has been called. In the meantime, physicians in laboratories are working with test tubes and modern scientific appliances to isolate the germs, they think may be the cause of the disease.

WANTS CO-OPERATION

Phoenix, Ariz., Mar. 19, 1912. Publisher, Daily Examiner, Yuma, Arizona.

Dear Sir:

The Corporation Commission would appreciate being placed upon the mailing list for a copy of the Examiner, providing the same can be supplied without expense to the state.

We are desirous of receiving all regular publications issued in Arizona, to enable us to keep in touch with current conditions in the various sections of the state, and in furtherance of that idea believe the local press represents the best method.

The commission will be glad to co-operate with the press, local commercial organizations and all shippers and citizens generally, in any and all matters pertaining to the regulation, correction or adjustment of affairs within the jurisdiction and scope of the commission.

It is our purpose by a careful review of all local papers to clip and file such items as may aid or assist us in our work.

We will be glad to furnish you with copies of our orders and decrees, and matters of interest to the public concerning the work of the commission.

Truly yours,
ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION.

By T. A. JONES.

REAL ESTATE MOVING

It is difficult to keep Yuma back. We have the soil, the climate and the water. The McClure Realty, Loan & Trust company has just closed several more nice deals, including city and ranch property. They have sold the beautiful Hogan home in Orange avenue to Harry Brownstetter, the genial proprietor of the New York Department store. The price is not given out but it is understood to have been about $2500 which is very cheap for this property. Mr. Brownstetter is going to further improve and beautify this home which will make it one of the most artistic in the city. This firm has also transferred 20 acres of beautiful Gila Valley land, four miles east of the city to O. A. Pritchett, of Quito, Ecuador, South America. Mr. Pritchett is an American capitalist who has been in the southern republic for the past year. McClure and Riley expect Mr. Pritchett to invest further in this vicinity when he returns to the United States in 1913.

COAL MINERS TO STRIKE APRIL 1

Chicago, Mar. 19.—The suspension of work by miners in the bituminous coal fields on April 1 was today declared certain after an announcement from the Illinois coal operators association that it would be practically impossible for the miners and operators to reach a new agreement by that time.

"This is our year," shout the democratic newspapers. It always is about this time of year in a presidential election. But the November story is quite different.

RECLAMATION CHIEF HOLDS OUT NO HOPE OF MORE FUNDS FOR VALLEY PROJECTS

Phoenix, Mar. 19.—"I have not the slightest idea when money will be available to continue the work of completing the Salt River project. There is a general feeling in Washington that this valley has had more than its share of the reclamation fund and it may have to wait a long time."

This statement was made Monday by Chief Engineer Arthur P. Davis of the United States Reclamation service. Accompanied by Supervising Engineer

CRACKSMEN LOOT WELLS FARGO SAFE AT THATCHER; ROB MIAMI POST OFFICE

Globe, Mar. 19.—The safe of the Wells-Fargo company at Thatcher has been blown open by nitroglycerine and the contents of the safe taken. The express agent at that place refuses to state the amount of the loss. According to a telegram received yesterday by the sheriff's office the crime is attributed to two men, one attired in a brown suit, and the other in a dark gray, both of whom were seen hovering around the office Friday night. It is believed that the robbery was committed by a band of cracksmen who

STATE ROAD FUND IS $10,000 IN THE HOLE

Prescott, Mar. 19.—On the occasion of the presence of the governor and other state officials at Prescott last week a banquet was provided for the official party at the St. Michaels hotel, at which there was much enthusiasm displayed over the good roads proposition.

The governor was emphatic in his support of the good roads movement, and said he hoped to see both the north and south and the east and west state highway completed during the coming year. The only difficulty now confronting the administration is the lack of funds. The fund for road work is now about $10,000 worse off than empty, but that act, he said, need not be greatly embarrassing, for he has faith that the legislature will enact a tax measure that will sum up all right.

GOCTILLO CLUB

The Ocotillo Club will meet Saturday afternoon March 23, at half past two o'clock, with Mrs. R. G. Stitt, at her Valley home.

The program for the day is as follows: Roll Call. "Qualities that make people attractive." Topic for the day: "Edgar Allen Poe." Shakespeare, "Taming the Shrew."

If Governor Hunt's message were planted like corn it would make a row approximately eleven miles long. That is going some, even for our "progressive" governor.

ASSESSOR DRAFTS BILL FOR TAX COMMISSION

Clifton, Mar. 19.—James H. Kerby, assessor for Greenlee county, has drafted a bill which will be presented for the action of the legislature next week providing for the creation of a tax commission which shall be the state board of equalization. Out of a considerable experience, Mr. Kerby has evolved a measure that is a combination of revolution and evolution all in the direction of taxation reform; and in accordance with the party platform pledges.

CONVICT TOOK A STROLL

ONE OF BROTHER HUNT'S "HONOR" MEN REALLY RAN AWAY FROM FLORENCE.

Florence, Mar. 19.—"Honor" convict number 3262 took French leave of his happy prison home at 4 o'clock this afternoon and up to a late hour had not been apprehended.

The escaped prisoner is a Mexican by the name of Chappo, sent up for five years, it is said, for assault. He had two years of his sentence to serve when he decided that prison was no place for him.

No. 3262 grasped without comprehension, the recent order to relax discipline, but as he was permitted to go and come to and from the prison without let or hindrance he began to assimilate some of the possibilities of the new order of things.

"Honor" didn't spell much to No. 3262. His mental limitation hardly surmounted the fact that he was in prison; that it was not good to be in prison; that when a chance came to get out of prison he must be "Johnny at the rat hole." No. 3262 probably did not express it in just that way, but he was heard to remark recently that "Hunt was a fine hombre."

The man was at work outside the prison walls. He was supposed to be loading gravel onto a wagon; in reality he was measuring the distance between himself and the brush near by. Suddenly there was a swish, a glide, and the place where the Mexican had stood, knew him not.

CITY BEAUTIFUL

Did you ever take a jaunt up through the alleys of this beautiful little city? You can tell more about the inhabitants of a town by a trip through the back alleys than many persons imagine. Some of the back yards are neat as pins. Others would put an old brush fence hog lot to shame. We are glad to say that the later are few and far between. Back yards reflect the character of the owners. Sometimes the front yard will be bubbling over with flower beds and posies and the back yard will be chiefly slop barrels, scrap iron and brick bats not to mention a few tin cans thrown in for good measure. You can guess what kind of people live there. Sometimes both front and back yards correspond and are wrecks alike. You can easily place the owners. Sometimes both front and back show the utmost care and attention and it is hard to tell which is the cleaner. You have no trouble in classifying the people who live here. If either the front or the back yard must be neglected, friends, let it be the front one. Don't try to present a Queen Anne front with a Mary Ann back. An ill kept back yard is dangerous and a menace to good health.

HE COULDN'T KICK A HOUN' AROUND

Yonkers, N. Y., Mar. 19.—When Edward Taylor, 60 years old, made a kick at a strange dog this evening his legs went out from under him and he fell to the sidewalk. He could not get up again.

Surgeons at St. Joseph's Hospital, where Taylor was taken, found both his legs paralyzed.

Will no kindly disposed citizen say a kind word for Mark Smith's vice-presidential boom?

ODD FELLOWS TO HOLD MEETING

Anniversary Lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., will meet in regular session at Eagles' Hall, Friday evening, the 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock. Special order of business will be admission by transfer and initiatory degree rehearsal.

YONKERS MAN FALLS PARALYZED AS HE TRIES TO BOOT A STRAY CUR.

There are some men who have no sense of gratitude. Just as Governor Hunt had everything fixed up to make life at Florence one glad, sweet song and thereby add another laurel wreath to the cluster which already reposes on his classic brow, one of his "honor convicts" suddenly quit the job. How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless convict.

WILL INTRODUCE SUFFRAGE MEASURE

HUGHES WILL PROPOSE IN SENATE TOMORROW PASSAGE OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Phoenix, Ariz., Mar. 19.—State Senator John T. Hughes of Tucson announced today he would introduce in the senate tomorrow a bill providing that an equal suffrage amendment to the constitution be submitted to the people at the general election in November.

In this measure Hughes will have the support of State Senator A. A. Worsley of Pima county. Although a slight fight is anticipated in the legislature on this suffrage question, the advocacy of it has been so urgent in all parts of Arizona that it is believed the bill will pass.

The Hughes measure, which merely provides that the bill be submitted to the vote of the people at the next general election, is expected to meet with much less determined opposition than would greet a bill proposing to put woman's suffrage immediately into effect by legislative action.

BULLARD SAYS GRAND JURY CALL IS VOID

Prescott, Mar. 19.—The call for the grand and trial jurors which was made for April 1, has been annulled and the recent drawing declared void.

Attorney General George Purdy Bullard wired County Attorney Johnson that in his opinion the drawing of the jury was null and void and for that reason the order for the drawing has been vacated.

FIREMAN'S TOURNAMENT

At a meeting of the Yuma Volunteer Firemen's Association held last night at the city hall, it was proposed to hold a fireman's tournament in Yuma this spring or early summer.

About fifty were present at the meeting last night and a committee was appointed to interview the business men of the city and see if they could raise sufficient funds to meet the expenses of the proposed tournament and pay a series of prizes which it is proposed to give.

The committee as appointed is composed of C. L. Myers, Newt S. Parks and Theodore Brice.

It was the consensus of opinion last night that about $500 would have to be raised to make the tournament a success, but it is thought that this sum and more can easily be secured.

The cause is a most worthy one and as Yuma in the past has not gone after as many tournaments, conventions, etc., as she should have, it is thought that this movement will break the ice and provide a means of drawing many more crowds to Yuma during the months to come.

It is certainly to be hoped that the fire boys can carry their project through to a most successful finish.

ASSESSMENT TOUR

County Assessor A. B. Ming left last night for an annual assessment tour of the northern end of Yuma county. He expects to be in that part of the county for the next two or three weeks.

FATHER FIEGE HERE

Rev. Father Charles Fiege, of Banning, Cal., and a former resident of Yuma for many years, is here on a visit to the Yuma Catholic Mission on the Yuma Indian reservation.

There are some men who have no sense of gratitude. Just as Governor Hunt had everything fixed up to make life at Florence one glad, sweet song and thereby add another laurel wreath to the cluster which already reposes on his classic brow, one of his "honor convicts" suddenly quit the job. How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless convict.

LEVY-NORIEGA WEDDING TO-MORROW MORNING

At the Catholic church to-morrow (Thursday) will be pronounced the wedding ceremony that will make a happy wedded couple of Miss Amalia Noriega and Marshal Henry Levy.

The happy couple expect to leave almost immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends in Yuma in the George Marable residence on Orange avenue, which Mr. Levy has leased and fitted up for a home.

Miss Noriega is the daughter of Juan Noriega, of Yuma, and is one of the mostly widely known and best liked young ladies in Yuma, having been assistant bookkeeper at the E. & F. Hodges market for many months past, and by her graceful manner and accommodating ways has made a host of friends among the Yuma public.

She is liked and respected by all who know her.

Mr. Levy was born and raised in Yuma, and although yet a young man, was two years ago honored by the citizens of Yuma with being selected as town marshal, a position which he has filled acceptably to all, and it is a foregone conclusion that he will be re-elected this spring. He is a young man who counts his friends by the score, and deservedly so, and it is the wish of their host of Yuma friends as well as of the Examiner that they enjoy a long life of happiness and prosperity.

OPPOSITION TO SLOAN

Phoenix, Ariz., Mar. 19.—Much bitter feeling was engendered among the members of the Arizona Bar Association in a meeting at the capital today, when a resolution indorsing ex-Governor Richard E. Sloan for the federal judgeship in Arizona was passed by a viva voce vote. Sloan's appointment is awaiting confirmation offered by the minority, which was headed by Attorney General Bullard, who predicted that the action of the association would call forth the passage of a "counter resolution, protesting against Sloan's appointment, from the two branches of the legislature.

The resolution favoring Sloan's indorsement by the Bar Association was introduced at the meeting of that body by Reese M. Ling, a democrat, who was defeated in the race for the United States Senate at the last election.

A TINY PORTIA WINS HER PLEA

San Diego, Mar. 19.—With a baby lisp, pretty six year old Julia Signella pleaded bravely for her 20 year old brother, Victor Signella, today and so well did the wee Portia present her case that the big locks in the city jail turned and the brother walked out to freedom and home to his mother, who lay ill in bed.

Signella had been arrested at a dance for a minor offense and was locked up during the night. His mother told Julia to go get him out, with the result as related. She left the jail crowing on her big brother's shoulder.

THESE ARE BUSY TIMES IN MAINE

Augusta, Maine, Mar. 19.—The Maine Legislature will meet in special session Wednesday for the first time since the Civil War, to re-district the state for representatives in congress; to amend the laws governing elections, and to propose a constitutional amendment which will determine local option with regard to the liquor traffic.

The senate has twenty-two democrats and nine republicans; the house eighty-five democrats and sixty-six republicans.

Wonder if there is a dictograph concealed at Sagamore Hill?

WOMAN JAILED FOR CONTEMPT

"THEY CAN TEAR MY TONGUE OUT BY ROOTS BEFORE I'LL TESTIFY AGAINST MY SON."

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 19.—Mrs. Louise Kramer was adjudged in contempt of court today and was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the county jail for refusing to testify against her son, L. M. Kramer, who is on trial accused of having robbed his mother of jewelry worth $1355. Mrs. Kramer's attorneys gave notice of appeal. In jail Mrs. Kramer spoke her mind.

"They can tear out my tongue by the roots before I will testify against my son," she said. "He is not guilty of the crime, although the officers of the law are trying to fasten it upon him."

The trial was continued until tomorrow.

WEEDIN IS OUT FOR DELEGATE

FLORENCE EDITOR HOPES TO BE SENT TO BALTIMORE WITH A CHAMP CLARK VOTE.

Phoenix, Mar. 18.—Thomas F. Weedon, editor of the Florence Blade, will be a candidate for delegate to the democratic national convention to be held in Baltimore and will conduct his campaign on a Champ Clark platform. That is to say he will not only strive to be elected a delegate but he will seek to carry his district for Clark in the preference vote for president by the direct primary.

The district which Mr. Weedon hopes to represent is composed of Pinal, Gila, Graham and Greenlee counties. Mr. Weedon it is known has heretofore been talked of for the place but hesitated about making the canvass until he was prevailed upon by many solicitous friends. Another complication was that Wiley Jones of Graham was already in the field, or at least was generally regarded as a candidate, but it is now stated by those claiming to be in a position to know that Mr. Jones has declared not to run. It is suspected that Mr. Jones has other ambitions with which this enterprise would interfere.

Mr. Weedon it will be remembered was a candidate for governor before the late democratic primaries and is therefore fairly well informed on the situation throughout his district from personal contact during his first canvass. Unless the Hunt machine runs over him in the gubernatorial canvass and has now become the administration steam roller, shall be turned in his direction, and with Mr. James off the map, Mr. Weedon would appear to have a good clean track to try his speed on.

Taft NOW OUT FOR PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

Boston, Mar. 19.—President Taft today before the general court of Massachusetts in an address declared himself in favor of presidential primaries for the coming campaign if surrounded by certain conditions. He said: "Whenever a full and fair notice of election can be given, wherever adequate election safeguards can be thrown around to protect the preferential primary, wherever a constitution of a state permits it being made applicable to the present election, I favor and welcome it."

This is Taft's first personal reply to the challenge on preferential primaries recently issued by senator J. M. Dixon, Roosevelt's campaign manager.

When it was reported that a jaw bone eighteen inches long had been found somewhere in the mountains of this state, an eastern paper wanted to know if any of the Arizona campaign orators were among the missing.

Attorney C. H. Colman has rented the Fleischman residence on Orange avenue, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ethridge.
