ELKS BALL TEAM TO BATTLE WITH WHITE SOX IN EVENT OF SEASON

(From Tuesday's Examiner)

According to a letter received last night from O'Neill Secretary of the White Sox ball team, they expect to enjoy to the full their stop here. Plans are now being made by the team to make connections at Imperial so that they can arrive in Yuma on the noon train and have plenty of time for the game which will no doubt be a very interesting one. The Yuma Elks are to be congratulated upon the fact that this is the only engagement made by the White Sox team in Arizona.

An entertainment of some kind will be given them by the Elks. The nature of the affair has not yet been decided upon but a dance at Elks' Club is planned. This will be a feature of much enjoyment as every one is interested. It is expected by the managers of the Elks' team that all stores will be closed for two hours or more so that all employees may take advantage of the opportunity of seeing this once-champion team meet the Yuma Elks' team in what promises to be an interesting game.

As stated in their letter, the White Sox are anticipating with pleasure their stay here, however short it may be. They do not leave until 1:30 in the morning, and hope to have an opportunity of looking over the country

If space permitted, one could write enough about the interesting event to make the Yuma Examiner look like a "pink section," which, of course, is not our intention. Their tour is an extended one and includes some very interesting engagements. They are playing Riverside today, having just finished a week's series of games with Vernon.

One of their best pitchers, Chappell, for whom they paid $16,000, is at present suffering from an ailing foot, and will be unable to take part. Joy to the Elks, however sympathetic they may feel over this disabled member.

The White Sox line-up is as follows: Chase, 1st; Alcock, ss.; Berger, 2nd; Lord, 3d; Bodie, Cavanaugh and Collins, outfielders; Jasper, Walsh, Johnson, Faber, Russell Ciccoth and Lathrop, pitchers; Schalk and Slight, catchers, with Manager O'Callahan, who must be forgotten. "Red" Kuhn, one of the pitchers, is well known to a great many Yumaites, having pitched in the Holtville team for several years, and has many old friends here who will be glad to greet him.

The Elks who will probably play in this contest are: Parks, Caudry, Maddox, Hartman, Yoakim, Joyce, Harmon, Marquard, Cassidy, Dunne, Godfrey, Pierce, Morales and Sawyer.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM IS HOSTESS AT 'BIG FEED'

(From Monday's Examiner)

Mrs. S. D. Cunningham was hostess at a very charming affair at her very beautiful home in the upper valley on Sunday afternoon. The occasion was a turkey dinner given for the Young Men's Club and their friends. An unusually pleasant afternoon was spent by the young folks—dancing, singing and in social chatter.

The dinner itself was a feast for the gods. Mrs. Cunningham is a sure-enough "cook" whose efforts have become the highest in the world in culinary art, among society folk and in lodge circles. Sunday's dinner was unsurpassed in savory excellence by any ever tasted, and was fully enjoyed by the merry jollifiers.

As hostess of the occasion, much credit is due Mrs. Cunningham for the general festivity which characterized the occasion, and due appreciation of the affair was certainly tendered her by the club and its friends as Christmas, which comes but once a year, had nothing on the turkey dinner for elaborateness and plentiful generosity.

Among those present were Josephine Arnett, Eleanor Dunne, Emma Harris, Pearl Sawyers, Mona Fritz, Lucretia Shelby, Hortense McPhaul, Mabel Cawley, Irene Cawley, George Peterson, Jack Dunne, Arnold Bertleson, Walter Barnes, Lincoln DeMund, Tom Glenn, Billy Dunne, Frank Dunne, Bud Donkersley, Leo Lee, Earl Cunningham, Roy Cunningham, Wm. Sheidon.

BUTLER MOVES U. S. R. S. CAMP TO LAGUNA

(From Monday's Examiner)

Camp No. 6, under Butler of the U.S.R.S., which has been stationed in the lower valley, moved Saturday night. Sunday was spent camped on First street near headquarters, and this morning the "mouch" was resumed. Nearly two dozen wagonloads of accouterments made up the caravan, and the No. 6 mules and men attached conveyed, in part an idea of the magnanimity of the reclamation undertaking.

Interested spectators, armed with kodaks, took likenesses of the spectacle which after a fashion did look "wild and woolly."

The camp will now be employed at and near Laguna dam, which is at present the center of reclamation service industry.

Mr. Butler's camp has previously been stationed precariously proximate to the Mexican line, and all concerned looked very much relieved this morning, as though they appreciated the fact that hereafter the Colorado river would be between them and prevailing Mexico.

In the city of Tokio, Japan, forty daily newspapers are printed, so a trade journal informs, while in all Japan there are about 800 dailies. One of these has a circulation of 100,000 copies.

There were twelve in the party with automobiles belonging to Huss, Eddy, Kerr, Ming and McDowell. The party worked hard, with picks, shovels and axes, filling in washes, "grubbing" stumps and cutting down trees. The new road is in every way an improvement and involves not only better and easier traveling but a twelve mile cut off.

The new road now runs along the railroad track for about four miles after which a cutoff is made thru a wash and the mesa is easily reached. The advantage is readily seen and the highway will be in splendid condition as soon as a little team work of grading the approach to the mesa is completed.

Those interested and the workers this morning are to be congratulated upon the result, which is in every way perfect.

New York City spent one million and a quarter of dollars removing snow from its sidewalks last winter—this is an argument in favor of Yuma sunshine and roses.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH HAS FINE NEW PULPIT

(From Tuesday's Examiner)

Last Sunday morning when the congregation at the Valley Baptist church met the pastor, A. B. Tomlinson they found him standing behind a beautiful new pulpit, the very nicest one we have seen in Yuma County, which was made by one of Yuma's best carpenters, Mr. Geo. Hill, who donated the work, the pastor furnishing the material.

The church and congregation gave a standing vote of thanks to Brother Hill for his very liberal donation.

YUMA IMPROVEMENTS VERIFY THE PREDICTIONS OF OLD DAYS

(From Tuesday's Examiner)

Mr. M. E. Campbell, Mr. A. R. Heuth, and Mr. Arthur Sage, large realty operators in the city of Los Angeles, have been visiting the Andrade Lands in Sonora and Mr. Campbell has particularly examined the country as to the possibilities of the reported discovery of gold placers in the immediate vicinity. Messrs. Heuth and Sage are the gentlemen who are actively interested in the Andrade Land properties and are very much pleased with the general condition of the country.

Mr. Campbell has lived in the territory since 1880, and while he has been occupied in examining properties in many different parts of the world, including Mexico, during the past thirty years, the attractions of Arizona will always be a sufficient guarantee for those interested in the mining business to return to this grand field.

Their trip to the Colorado River lands of the Andrade Estate was made by automobile and proved an intensely interesting one and wholly satisfactory in every detail.

Mr. Campbell and the balance of his party were all astonished and delighted to see the great improvements around Yuma and believe there is no question but what our land has a future superior to anything in America for agriculture and fruit raising.

The richness of the water of the Colorado river is one of the most important features of this country. Mr. Campbell recalls that during the early days of 1880 when Arizona was a barren desert, the predictions of the old time miners, of whom he was a member was to the effect that Arizona would be one of the most productive territories of the United States, and the improvements in and around Yuma only verifies these statements made in the pioneer days.

MRS. S. HACKETT GIVES ORANGE DAY FEATURE TO WOMAN'S CLUB

(From Monday's Examiner)

The Yuma Woman's Club held its regular weekly meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sumner Hackett. The lesson was a continuation of Mederlin's "Blue Bird."

Roll call, "About People," provided a large field for discussion. Among the people discussed were Helen Keller and Evelyn Thaw—women of types as widely different as heaven and earth, yet both at this time very prominent in the eye of the public.

After business and lesson, the guests followed their hostess to the large dining hall, where refreshments were served thoroughly in accord with the observations of orange day. Orange frappe in orange cases, nestling in a bed of orange leaves and flowers, were refreshing to the sight as well as to the palate.

The club is pleased to have with them the following new members: Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Grothaus, Mrs. Spittler, Mrs. G. Michelsen and Mrs. Dickerson. Visitors at Saturday meeting, Miss Hayes.

VILLA'S GUNS ROARED AT TORREON, MEX.

JUAREZ, March 24.—Associated Press dispatches saying that fighting still continues, dampened the spirits of the Constitutionlists here, who received rumors that Villa made a clean sweep. Colonel Travino, of General Benavide's staff, wired his brother here that two federal castrils, or barracks, are captured in Torreon itself. Then General Chao here, received a private report that Velasco, Federal commander at Torreon, has surrendered. No confirmation could be received from Villa.

Roseate stories kept this city in a fever of gratified excitement all day. It was announced as official this morning, that Gomez Palacio, three miles from Torreon was taken last night at nine o'clock, that Villa had ordered supplies sent direct to that city. An Associated Press dispatch, the first direct news telegram of the day, gave rise to all manner of conjectures. It was argued that the official report quoted therein did not disprove necessarily the previous reports of fighting in Torreon, or even that Villa actually did have possession of Gomez Palacio last night. The report might mean, it was conjectured, that the federals as a part of the general battle, might have returned to Gomez Palacio and renewed the fight while other forces were engaged in Torreon, three miles away.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS WORK ON HIGHWAY

(From Wednesday's Examiner)

The automobile owners and road enthusiasts, who went out this morning to improve the first section of the Ocean-to-Ocean highway, returned at noon reporting a very successful morning.

There were twelve in the party with automobiles belonging to Huss, Eddy, Kerr, Ming and McDowell. The party worked hard, with picks, shovels and axes, filling in washes, "grubbing" stumps and cutting down trees. The new road is in every way an improvement and involves not only better and easier traveling but a twelve mile cut off.

MR. EUGENE W. CHAFIN THE PROHIBITION CANDIDATE EXPECTS TO LAND SENATORSHIP

TUCSON, Mar. 25.—Eugene W. Chafin, of this city, who will run for United States senator from Arizona this fall, will make the race on the independent ticket. The prohibition party did not poll enough votes in the last election to get a place on the ticket.

As a result, Chafin will not have to run in the primary, but will get on the ballot by nominating petition. Running for senator will be somewhat of a novelty for him as he is best known as the prohibition candidate for president.

The national Prohibition party is flooding the state with literature in his support.

"I expect 10,000 women votes," says Chafin himself "and if there are five candidates in the field, I will win."

It is Marcus A. Smith's job that Chafin is after. Others after it are Alfred Franklin, Democrat chief justice of the state supreme court, Reese M. Ling, democratic national committeeman, Joseph H. Kibbey, former territorial governor. Kibbey may be a fusion candidate. If he is not Dwight G. Heard, Progressive, and Ralph Cameron, Republican, will be in the field. There will also be a Socialist candidate.

Chafin is just home from a 75-speech campaign from Imperial, Cal., to San Francisco. He arrived in time to attend the birthday party of his pretty daughter.

"She was born on St. Patrick's day to get me the Irish vote," says Chafin.
