

INTIMATE PEEPS AT PRIVATE LIFE OF "MOVIE" MAGNATE

Motion picture fans are not often permitted a glimpse into the private lives of the busy executives who are directly responsible for the film plays that charm and amuse them nightly. But here we see Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, vice president of the Greater Vitagraph company of America, romping with his children on the lawn of his magnificent Oyster Bay estate which is situated on the extreme end of Long Island.

Bestride the tiny Shetland pony is baby Charles, who has just passed his second birthday, and dainty Violet Virginia, who boastfully claims six years as her age. Mrs. Blackton stands at the left of the group.

Quite an interesting story could be told of Ruby, the Shetland who has been Violet's pet for three years. Prior to becoming the petted darling of the Blackton children Ruby was a member of a well known circus troupe. It is not known exactly how old she is but the blue blood of her ancestors, who raced madly over the mountainous country of the Shetland Islands courses through her veins.

No; Ruby has never appeared in motion pictures.

IMPERIAL VALLEY IRRIGATION NEEDS EARLY ATTENTION

On account of the unprecedented volume of water that has flowed down the Colorado river during the present year the river bed has scoured out to such an extent that the diversion dam at Hanlon heading will have to be constructed much earlier than usual in order to get anything like near enough water for Imperial Valley irrigation needs. The intake is much higher than the average flow of water for summer months.

IMPORTANCE OF LITTLE THINGS OF DRESS

(Special to the Yuma Daily Examiner)
NEW YORK, July 7.—In the summer season perhaps more than at any other time it is the little things of dress which count in the wardrobe. The sheer lingerie frock gathers much of its charm from the bright girdle, the touch of color at the throat, the well-fitting pump, or boot, dainty stockings and gloves and the wide-brimmed, becoming hat which completes it. Without these finishing touches, the frock itself might fall short of expectations.

Street Dress with Cape

Valor is self-respecting. Valor is circumspect. Valor strikes only when it is right to strike. Valor withholds itself from all small implications and entanglements and waits for the great opportunity when the sword will fall as if it carried the light of heaven upon its blade.—WOODROW WILSON.

STUDENTSLIKE NEWSPAPER WORK

That the young people of Southern California are deeply interested in newspaper work is clearly shown by the remarkable growth of the Department of Journalism established a year ago at the University of Southern California, in Los Angeles. So prompt and enthusiastic has been the response of the students to the invitation to learn all the mysteries of the Fourth Estate, that it has been found necessary to move the new department into a building of its own before the opening of the new college year next September. Here the students work under conditions exactly like those of the daily newspaper office, writing copy on the typewriter and passing it in to the copy desk, going out on assignments, taking stories from the phone, writing editorials, headlines, and squibs, clipping filler from daily papers from all parts of the country, etc. From one instructor offering two courses a short time ago the department has grown until next year six teachers will offer a total of nineteen courses.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

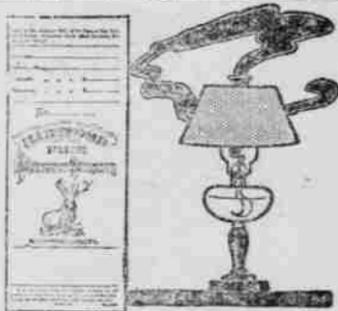

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day. N. C. 122

Look out for Your Lamps

Fill them by daylight only, and never while they are burning. Avoid cloth or paper shades. Lamps are responsible for 2,000 fires in dwellings every year.

Look out for your fire insurance, too. Place it with a strong, reliable company that has a record for prompt payment and fair settlements.

We shall be glad to send you, free, a valuable booklet on "Fire Insurance and Fire Prevention," published by the famous old Hartford Fire Insurance Co.
