

State Library

ARIZONA SENTINEL

VOLUME 47.

YUMA, ARIZONA, THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1916.

NUMBER 22

Valley Farmers Will Protest

To protest against the proposed rick dam across the Colorado river at Andrade, the farmers of the Yuma valley will hold meetings at the Crane school on Saturday night and at Somerton next Tuesday night.

Such a dam as proposed to raise water for the Imperial valley would seriously endanger the Yuma valley levees.

PARALYSIS INCREASES

NEW YORK, July 14.—Infantile paralysis increased today with thirty-one deaths and 162 new cases. Dr. S. J. Meltzer of the Rockefeller Institute announced that there was no danger in the use of his treatment which is the only one recommended by a special conference of the Academy of Medicine last night, when it advised intraspinal injections of adrenaline solution may save life and may reduce final lesion in surviving cases.

MEXICANS RELEASE RAILROAD

DOUGLAS, July 14.—General Calles today telegraphed H. P. Temple, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company of Mexico, that Mexicans who have been operating the Sonora line are now ready to turn the railroad back to its owners Calles asked Supt. Temple to go to Nogales and take charge.

PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM

GOES THROUGH
WASHINGTON, July 14.—Democratic Leader Kitchin today told President Wilson that the House would complete Wilson's entire legislative program with the passage of a corrupt practice act. The President said he was satisfied and would make no further recommendations. The House adjourned today, awaiting the Senate. Congress will probably adjourn August 10th.

NEGRO TROOPERS BURIED WITH FULL HONORS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Six unidentified negro troopers who were killed at Carrizal, were buried at Arlington National cemetery today with full military honors, Secretary of War Baker and General Scott attended.

YUMA WEATHER

The temperature at 5 o'clock last evening was 87, humidity 63. The highest for the day was 98 with a minimum of 76.

DEUTSCHLAND WILL CLEAR FOR RETURN

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Formal announcement of the Deutschland's status as a merchantman is unlikely. The Treasury Department will be advised to clear the submarine whenever the captain desires to return to Germany.

LONDON A CITY OF TWENTY MILLION

LONDON, July 14.—In 1975 London's population will have increased to twenty millions, Arthur Crow, a leading architect, told the Royal Society of Arts, while outlining plans for housing so many people. To provide comfortable quarters for such a population would require 1040 square miles, allowing thirty persons to the acre for the whole area. This would mean, Mr. Crow added, a city with a radius from its center of eighteen miles.

SUPPLIES FOR PERSHING RELEASED

EL PASO, July 14.—The Mexico Northwestern trainload of supplies consigned to Casas Grandes merchants for General Pershing was released today after detention by Gen. Gonzales at Juarez last night.

AUSTRIANS WIPED OUT

ROME, July 14.—The Italians blew up the summit of Castelletto in Lofane region, burying the entire Austrian force in action there.

IRISH REBELS HISS MILITARY

CORK, July 14.—One thousand Sinn Feiners wrecked the recruiting office today and hissed the military pickets. They sang republican songs when the Dublin rebels recently released failed to arrive as expected.

GUARDSMEN IN ACTION

SAN ANTONIO, July 14.—Company C, Second Texas infantry, today exchanged shots with six bandits, thus preventing a raid. This was the first guardsmen in action since the call to the border.

FRENCH AND RUSSIANS RESUME OFFENSIVE

LONDON, July 14.—The British began a second phase of the great Somme offensive at daybreak and penetrated the German second line along the four-mile front, according to General Sir Douglas Haig.

Correspondents reported that the British captured Longueval, Bazentin and Grand villages and took the remainder of the Trones wood.

The suddenness of the attack after a single day of artillery preparation completely surprised observers.

No news has been received of French operations. The last reported the French were resuming the offensive, while the Germans were pounding at the Verdun forts.

The Russians have made no marked advances since they gained the Stokhod river. The Germans apparently were driven from the right bank of the Caucasus and operations are increasingly important.

The Turks are being pressed back after very heavy losses.

CLOUDBURST AT POTHOLE

The cloudburst in the vicinity of Picocho yesterday afternoon caused about a 50-foot washout on the Siphon canal about a half mile above the 10-mile drop. Men and teams are now at work and will have the canal ready the regular water supply by not later than Monday.

There was some small damage to crops near Bard and quite a heavy rainfall in part of Yuma valley, but no particular damage has been reported.

Sallie B. Wohlford has purchased 80 acres of ranch land in Section 27 for $7600 from the Cooper estate.

Judge Frank Baxter in court yesterday set the next term of the Superior Court for September 25th.

Subscribe to the Examiner.

CLARKE SUCCEEDS HUGHES

WASHINGTON, July 14.—President Wilson today nominated J. H. Clarke, Federal District judge under Cleveland, for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, succeeding Charles Hughes, who is the Republican nominee for President.

The President appointed Clarke District Judge two years ago. He was formerly associated with Secretary Baker and Mayor Tom Johnson in reform movements. He is a bachelor and life-long Democrat, and ran for the Senate against Mark Hanna. He advocated the two-cent railroad fare although formerly a member of the railroad council.

ZURICH, Switzerland, July 13.

Private letters received here from Jerusalem state that the number of Libanese and Syrians sentenced to death by the Turkish authorities is constantly increasing.

In consequence of the rapid spread of spotted typhus, whooping cough and smallpox, the Turkish government has closed all the schools in Jerusalem. Newspapers are appearing with black bordered sheets and are filled with death notices.

Despite the censorship the journals publish long articles sharply criticizing the Turkish government for its neglect to enforce the most elementary sanitary measures. Wounded and plague-stricken soldiers are brought from the battlefields on the canal landtransported in the most primitive manner through inhabitable districts.

WEATHER WEST OF YUMA

Southern California—Unsettled tonight and Saturday; probably showers in the mountains.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Ladies' Aid will give a program and ice cream social tonight on the lawn. Everybody come. The proceeds will go toward defraying the church debt.