Wool has been placed on the free list. The raising of sheep in Sonora will become a profitable industry by reason of this change.

The Prospector is informed that the shortage alluded to in a Star telegram in which it is charged that Wm.
Christie was short $16,000 was technical shortage and not one of a criminal nature.

The present duty on safety pins of twenty per cent has been raised by the Wilson bill thirty per cent. This is a step in advance of restricting immigration; it is in the direction of a restriction of population.

The tariff bill (which will be passed at the coming session of congress known as the Wilson tariff bill) places a duty of 20 per cent on all live stock imported into this country.
This will be good news to cattlemen who have cattle in Sonora and will be a boon to southern Arizona merchants.

Some one has arisen to remark that Arizona is better off today than it was ten years ago when silver mining was in its glory and then infers that silver is not one of our leading sources of wealth. The truth of the matter is that Arizona does not contain as many people as it did ten years ago if we can take the vote cast in 1883 and that cast last fall as a basis. The vote cast nine years ago for delegate to congress was 12,342 while in 1892 but 12,323 votes were cast. Had it not been for the onslaught made upon silver our voting population would have reached 30,000 or more ere this.

$3,000.00 A YEAR FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS.

If you want work that is pleasant and profitable, send us your address immediately. We teach men and women how to earn from $5.00 per day to $3,000 per year without having had previous experience, and furnish the employment at which they can make that amount. Nothing difficult to learn or that requires much time. The work is easy, healthy, and honorable, and can be done during daytime or evenings, right in your own home, wherever you live. The result of a few hours' work often equals a week's wages.
We have taught thousands of both sexes and all ages, and many have laid foundations that will surely bring them riches. Some of the smartest men in this country owe their success in life to the start given them while in our employ years ago. You, reader, may do as well; try it. You cannot fail. No capital necessary. We fit you out with something that is new, solid, and sure. A book bristling with advice is free to all. Help yourself by writing for it to-day—not to-morrow.
Delays are costly.

ON BUSY BROADWAY.

An Incident Not Often Seen on the Streets of Our Big Cities.

Broadway was crowded with trucks and pedestrians. It was shortly after eight o'clock in the morning and shopkeepers and clerks were hurrying to their business.

Three little girls turned into Fourteenth street. They wore the regulation checkered aprons so familiar to the patrons of the big dry goods stores.
As they rounded the corner a gust of wind rudely lifted the hat of the smallest girl and sent it sailing into the middle of the street.

"Oh, dear, there goes my hat," the little one cried, as she stood wringing her hands and making up her mind what to do.

The next moment she had followed it into the street. The hat was run down by a cable car and the little girl screamed.

Truck drivers pulled up their horses as you rarely see them do in this big city. The cable car stopped and the gripman got off and himself rescued the cheap sailor hat.

He handed it to the little girl in the middle of the street, who carefully wiped off the mud, and after doing this joined her companions on the sidewalk.

Then traffic, which had been momentarily stopped, was resumed.
Truck drivers shouted and swore, and gripmen pounded their gongs on the cable cars again, and the observer could hardly make up his mind whether he had actually seen the incident or imagined it.

Why He "Cussed" the Cat.

A short while ago a lady going up the slope on Charles street to the Washington monument was very much interested in the performance of a black cat which was hunting for a tender sparrow on which to make a breakfast.
The cat proved to be a successful sport.
He bagged the game and ran across the path between the lady and a gentleman approaching from the opposite direction. The gentleman was on his way down town to business. When he saw the cat he stopped short as if he had been shot, turned around three times on his heel, said: "Damn that cat," and hurried away from the spot.
The lady, who very well understood all the actions of the cat, was so surprised by those of the gentleman that she became fixed to the spot. She could not make it out until a black woman informed her that it "was mighty bad luck for a black cat to cross one's path, especially on the way to business in the morning." She also learned that the way to break the spell of ill luck was to turn around three times and "cuss" the cat.—Baltimore Sun.

Writing to Try.

Presence of mind and willingness are good qualities in a servant. M. Martin's new valet possessed these qualities, though he certainly had his faults.
A day or two after Baptiste came M.
Martin inquired where he was.
"He went out and has not returned," some one said.

Three days later Baptiste came back.
"Where have you been?" his employer demanded.

"Monsieur, I had seen your house but once," replied Baptiste, "and it took me all this time to find it again."

"That is a very poor excuse," said M.
Martin, sternly.

"Is it?"
Baptiste was disturbed, but he remembered his duty.

"Very well, monsieur," he said, blandly,
"if you will step into the next room and wait a moment I will try to find you another."—Youth's Companion.

Colonna, daughter of Mrs. John W.
Mackay, has applied for a legal separation from Prince Ferdinand Gallat-ro Colonna and for the custody of her three children.

Hereafter the circuit court of appeals will meet twice yearly for the purpose of hearing argument instead of quarterly as heretofore. The ses-

The revolutionists are gaining ground in Brazil. Para revolted yester-

It is generally supposed there is one editor in Heaven. How he got there is not positively known, but it is conjectured that he passed himself off for a minister or rode in on the blind baggage. When the truck was discovered they searched the realms of felicity in all their length and breadth for a lawyer to draw up the ejectment papers, but not one could be found, so the editor held the fort.—Ex.

THE BEST PLASTER—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain.
It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back between the shoulder blades will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent.
The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.
