LOCAL NOTES.

Bargains in cutlery at Cohn's. No paper will be issued from this office tomorrow.

For wakefulness, weakness or lack of energy take Simmons Liver Regulator.

Auditor H. C. Boone left today for Phenix, where he will spend Thanksgiving with his family.

The Maison Doree will keep open tomorrow night for the convenience of those attending the ball.

The civil suit of Curby vs Lombardi occupied the attention of Justice Koska's court this afternoon.

For distressing oppression and fullness in the stomach take Simmons Liver Regulator.

Col. Wm. Herring returned yesterday from Phenix, where he attended the opening day's session of the statehood convention.

Engine Co. No. 1 last night at a called meeting voted the sum of $25 to Chas. Melvin, who is confined to his rooms with sickness.

The trial jurors started for their respective homes today. They will spend Thanksgiving at their respective fireades or camp fires.

J. B. Neal filed the first notice today of intention to take advantage of the late mining law. It covered five claims in Cochise district.

CONGRESS will convene next Monday. The west can certainly not be legislated out of shape more effectually than at present. So let 'er meet.

Take your thanksgiving-turkey dinner at the Can Can tomorrow. Preparations to accommodate those attending the ball tomorrow night have been made.

C. L. Cummings is over from Bisbee. The butcher company of which he is a member shipped seven cars of beef cattle to California during the month of November.

A special to the Star from Phenix says that Attorney General Heney, on behalf of the territory, has filed suit against ex-Territorial Treasurer Wm. Christy and his bondsmen to recover the sum of $10,000 shortage in his accounts upon turning over to his successor Jas. A. Fleming.

The statehood convention at Phenix was not as grand an affair as it might have been. had more enthusiasm been shown in the different counties in the selection of delegates.

Best Thanksgiving Dinner ever served in Tombstone at the Mason Doree tomorrow.

A large shipment of canagrie will be planted at the experimental farm near Wilcox in a day or two. The roots passed through from the Phenix experimental station a few days ago.

Frank Wolcott received a big consignment of fat Kansas turkeys for Thanksgiving day. He also has received a large shipment of fresh fruit and other good things that go to make up a dinner fit for a king.

C. W. Leach and wife left today for Tempe, where they will remain for an indefinite period. It is the sincere wish of those who are left in Tombstone that silver may take an upward tendency and cause their return to us.

Duffy and Harrington of Bisbee have placed twenty thoroughbred bucks from Daggs brothers herd with their sheep, which are grazing across the line in Sonora. They expect to go into the sheep raising business on a large scale in Mexico.

The mail and baggage car on the N. M. & A. R. R. broke an axle on Monday near Sanford. A flat car was procured and the passengers with the mail and baggage rode into Nogales on it. The wrecking train was summoned from Benson and cleared the track before the next train reached the scene of the accident.

The experimental farm of the Copper Queen Co. below Bisbee in the Sulphur Spring valley will test the profit in canagrie growing on a large scale. Already two acres have been planted, and Mr. Bower, who is in charge of the ranch, is very confident of success. The farm at Deming with its attending extract works is proving a source of revenue to its owners.

Capt. C. B. Kelton came up yesterday from Nogales and remained over night. He drove from Crittenden to Huachuca, thence to Tombstone. He was warmly greeted by his numerous friends. Collector Webb has been particularly fortunate in his selections of deputies, and made no mistake in the selection of Cochise county's ex-heriff to represent him at La Noria.

Territory vs Davis—verdict of not guilty. The trial jury was excused for the term. Christelaw vs Christelaw—judgment by default. Motion made for new trial in cases of Turner and Lyall, and Dec. 1st set for hearing argument. Court adjourned to 9 o'clock a. m. Dec. 1st. If you are melancholy or down with he blues you need Simmons Liver Regulator.

A Peculiar Process.

The Copper Queen Co. will in the course of a few months have in operation works for the extraction of sulphur from the copper, which will be a revelation to many miners in this section.

Instead of extracting the sulphur from the ore before smelting, as has been done with the ores coming from the lower levels of the mines at Bisbee, the sulphur will not be eliminated until after the ore has been smelted. The matte will be run through another furnace, which will turn out copper, which, though not wholly refined, will have eliminated much of the base substance contained in the metal.

Sued for $10,000.

A special to the Star from Phenix says that Attorney General Heney, on behalf of the territory, has filed suit against ex-Territorial Treasurer Wm. Christy and his bondsmen to recover the sum of $10,000 shortage in his accounts upon turning over to his successor Jas. A. Fleming. The shortage was discovered at the time but the matter was delayed in the hope that Christy and his bondsmen would repay the amount into the treasury.

The statehood convention at Phenix was not as grand an affair as it might have been. had more enthusiasm been shown in the different counties in the selection of delegates.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

Of the Board of Supervisors of Cochise County.

Nov. 28, 1893. 2 o'clock p. m.

Board of Supervisors met pursuant to adjournment. Present—Chairman Perkins and Supervisor Nichols and Clark.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. Bond of H. D. Simon, constable of precinct No. 2, with J. W. Howell and Jacob Schmidt as sureties, was approved and ordered filed with county recorder.

Board finished checking treasurer's reports. By unanimous vote the Board adjourned to meet at 9:30 o'clock a. m. Nov. 29, 1893.

Approved W. K. PERKINS, Chairman.

Attest NAT HAWKE, Clerk.

On the Ocean.

There is no place where ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS do not prove their value. George Augustus Sala, the well known English writer, writing of his trip across the Pacific, says:

"I especially have a pleasant remembrance of the ship's doctor—a very experienced maritime medico indeed, who tended me most kindly during a horrible spell of bronchitis and spasmodic asthma, provoked by the sea fog which had swooped down on us just after we left San Francisco. But the doctor's prescriptions and the increasing warmth of temperature as we neared the tropics, and, in particular, a couple of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS clapped on, one on the chest and another between the shoulder blades, soon set me right."

BRANDRETH'S PILLS always act uniformly.

An Historic Coach.

The Los Angeles Herald contains a history of the "Tombstone" coach upon which Bud Philpot was killed in 1882. The following is the ludicrous account of the Philpot killing as contained in the Herald:

With its swaying and rocking the stage struck a boulder and came near upsetting. The jolt threw Paul several inches upward in the seat and saved his life, for at that instant a robber on his right fired a shot at short range. The bullet passed under Paul and instantly killed the driver who was sitting beside him.

Its last trip is described by the genius who was born with an imagination, and is reproduced:

A year later the coach was robbed its last time. At the first volley the driver and messenger were both killed and the frightened horses broke into a run. The bandits then fired a volley into the coach, literally riddling it with bullets and killed the only two passengers.

At the moment of his death the messenger was holding the box and it fell with him, so the robbers pursued the coach no further.

When the team came thundering into Phenix the reins were held in the stiffening fingers of a corpse, while the dead men inside lay bloody and ghastly, still clutching the revolvers that had availed them nothing.

The old coach was run in the yard and never went out again, and today the cushions and seats, protected by the roof, show the blood stains of her last passengers.

Olden Times.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Court Items.

In the case of the Territory vs. Miller a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

At Mining Exchange Hall.

Tomorrow night the complimentary ball under the auspices of Engine Co. No. 1 will come off according to pre-arranged plans. The hall is undergoing a thorough cleaning today and will be fittingly decorated for the occasion.

The music by the Huachuca military band will be a feature of the affair. Let every one lend their best efforts to make the affair a success which its promoters have done so much toward making it as enjoyable as possible.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by druggists.

Statehood.

The convention adjourned yesterday at Phenix, after a short session. An address was issued to congress, asking for admission.

A committee consisting of three from each county was appointed to solicit funds to send a committee to Washington to pull for statehood.

The three gentlemen who will perform the work for Cochise county are M. D. Scribner, R. W. Wood, and Lewis Williams.

The committee to go to Washington consists of thirty or more citizens, some of whom were named and some yet to be named.

A permanent committee, consisting of two citizens from each county was appointed. G. W. Cheyney and W. D. Monmonier represent Cochise county.

Nervousness is from dyspepsia. Take Simmons Liver Regulator and be cured.

Sheep in Arizona.

The Shaw brothers, whose sheep have been grazing on the further side of the Sulphur Spring valley, will shortly move their herd to pastures new.

They have been convinced against their will that southern Arizona is not a good sheep country. Water is too scarce where feed is most plentiful.

They did not clip their sheep last season for the reason that the clip would not pay the cost of clipping and marketing.

They will probably drive them all back to Texas, where they brought them from a couple of years ago.

A Ruddy Glow

on cheek and brow is evidence that the body is getting proper nourishment. When this glow of health is absent assimilation is wrong, and health is letting down.

Scott's Emulsion

taken immediately arrests waste, regardless of the cause. Consumption must yield to treatment that stops waste and builds flesh anew. Most as palatable as milk.

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc.," writes HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Wroten Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., "none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old mother urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."
