OFFICIAL PAPER

Prospector wishes its many readers a Happy New Year. It hopes that they will prosper in the year '89. The year '88 has been one of anxiety and uncertainty to the large majority of us, and we enter on a new edition of life with the satisfaction of knowing that the world is still round and water still seeks its own level.

This world is not so bad a world as some would like to make it. For whether good or whether bad depends on how we take it.

It is estimated there has been thus far expended on the construction of the University $1,914,113, including payment of all material on the ground and cost of labor of the present contract, and there yet remains of the original appropriation of $25,000 $7,777.

STOLEN GOODS.

App is coming over to this country to prove that a man can stay under for four minutes as well as for thirty seconds.

If the price of flour continues to advance, says the Terre Haute Express, many a man who now turns up his nose at the humble Johnny-cake will soon have to acknowledge the corn.

A Nebraska man has just died from the bite of a male, says the Carriage (Mo.) Democrat. It adds: "This is the first actual proof we have had that the male's bite is as deadly as his sting."

The threat of the whisky trust to sell whisky at bankrupt prices after the first of the year, the Philadelphia Times thinks, is probably intended to discourage swearing off at that date.

A New York judge has decided that a legitimate article of news becomes libel when the newboys cry it out on the streets in order to make sales. That brings the subject of the article into contempt.

Popular Science has information that the hippopotamus will become extinct in the next twenty years. So many have been killed off by natives and sportsmen that they are now hardly to be met with.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Alabama has decided that woman suffrage would only add to the evils of politics, and has formally declined to support any movement looking to that result.

The Scientific American says the great oil fields of New York and Pennsylvania are rapidly becoming exhausted. The supply has fallen from 100,000 to 40,000 barrels per day. Search is being made for new fields.

Ladies in Boston, New York and Washington say that Mrs. Cleveland's crusade against the beetle has not had the slightest effect upon fashion. American ladies wear what they please, independent of what each other wear.

Says the New York Commercial Advertiser: "The greatest national debt ever incurred by the nations of the globe is borne by the United States. It is about $6,250,000,000, a full 100 times as much as the neighborhood of the same amount of money is now getting on to some, there is say way of doing it."

A THREATENED STRIKE

In Which all the Railroads of the Country Will be Hurt.

The Philadelphia Mystery Cleared, the Murderer Caught.

A Daring Robbery in Broad Daylight at Toledo.

The Anarchists are Beaten in the Chicago Courts.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO PROSPECTOR

At the White House. WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—At the President's New Year's reception Mrs. Cleveland will be assisted by Miss Bayard, Miss Fairchild, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Dickenson.

The Anarchists. CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Master in Chancery Windes, to whom was referred the anarchist petition for an injunction restraining the police from interfering with their meetings, rendered a decision this morning refusing to recommend the granting of an injunction.

Exploded. LITTLE ROCK, Minn., Dec. 31.—A boiler in Dush's shingle mill, near here, exploded this morning, killing W. W. Dush, proprietor, and John Carr, night watchman. Three others were fatally injured. The establishment is a complete wreck.

Platt Hanged. ATLANTA, Dec. 31.—The supreme court today affirmed the judgment of Ouster in the case of the people vs. Thos. C. Platt. The judgment was one which removed Platt from the position of quarantine commissioner of New York, on the ground that he was a non-resident of that city.

Balance of Trade. NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—For the year 1888 exports of gold from New York amounted to $52,370,000, and imports $5,000,000; net loss $25,700,000. In 1887 exports were $1,890,000, imports $58,612,000; net gain $23,522,000.

A Daring Robbery. INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 31.—A daring and successful robbery occurred in the money order department of the Indianapolis postoffice at 12:30 to-day. Johnson, the chief of the money order division, was persuaded to go out to the sidewalk to see a man in a carriage. While out another man entered the office and filled his pockets with greenbacks to the amount of about $2,500.

A Threatened Strike. CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—One of the leading spirits in the recent meeting of railroad engineers says the object was to consider the facts which came into the possession of the Brotherhood that all roads running out of Chicago, except three, have been helping the Burlington road in its fight with the striking engineers by black listing the strikers. He declares that unless the boycott is discontinued soon the biggest strike ever seen in this country would be inaugurated, paralyzing railway transportation in the entire country. It will include all classes of railway labor.

After the Battle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—The result of the Jackson-McAuliffe fight Friday night was a great surprise to a large part of the sporting fraternity here and there is no doubt but that the admirers of the Californian lost a large amount of money. President Fulda, of the California Athletic Club, received a dispatch from Charlie Mitchell, yesterday, stating that Kilrain would fight the winner, and that he had a wager of from $2,500 to $5,000 in addition to the club purse. Mitchell says Kilrain challenges the winner in preference to his partial engagement with Sullivan. After the battle Jackson expressed himself as pleased that Kilrain had declared himself, and that he would accept the challenge. When Kilrain's challenge became known in the club room, lots of two to one were made that he would back down.

A Mystery Solved.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—The mystery surrounding the finding of the mutilated remains of a murdered man in Fairmount park Wednesday has at last been solved. The corpse has been identified and the murderer is in prison. The murder is shown to have been diabolical. One motive of the deed was to obtain the money of the victim, but all the murderer is known to have realized by the crime was $50. The body was recognized as that of Anton Schilling, and the murder was tracked to Jacob Schroop, a partner of Schilling's in a small grocery store. Schroop has confessed. His wife and daughter are under guard, and are believed to be accessory to the crime. A hatchet axe and saw used by Schroop was found in the cellar of his house this morning covered with blood. The body had evidently been carried into the cellar where it was cut into pieces, placed in bags and removed to the place where found. The wooden floor with which the cellar is covered, in many places resembles a slaughter house.

A Mystery Solved.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The steamship Vandal, from Rotterdam, arrived here this morning after a terrifically stormy voyage during which one of her crew was washed overboard and drowned and another seriously injured. The vessel lost her life boats and was otherwise damaged.

A Light Increase.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—During the year 383,505 immigrants landed in Castle Gardens. An increase of 1,577 over the previous year.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS.

ASSASSINATED. DENVER, Dec. 31.—H. S. Porteous, jeweler, failed this afternoon and made an assignment to J. E. Daske. Assets about $100,000, liabilities estimated at $125,000.

A Shooting Scrape.

LEAVELAND, Dec. 29.—Byron Goodwin was seriously shot to-day by Bob Sellens, near the St. Kevin mine. The trouble was the result of a dispute over mining property which Goodwin had been sent to guard and do assessment work on. Sellens gave himself up. Goodwin will die.

A Murderer Lynched.

DENVER, Dec. 31.—News from Greeley, Colorado, is to the effect that a mob early this morning overpowered the jailer, broke open the jail and took out W. D. French who two weeks ago murdered Harry Woodbury, and hanged him to a tree near the court house. None of the mob are known.

Pardoned by the President.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—John Irvin, who was convicted at the February term of the District Court of Wyoming for mail robbery, and sentenced for life, has had his sentence commuted by the President to imprisonment for ten years, making his term expire February, 1889. The commutation is based upon his good conduct during the period he has already served and upon strong recommendations of influential persons in the Territory.

The New Ship.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—The new dynamite ship Vesuvius, which left Cramp's shipyard yesterday for Delaware bay, to have a test of speed there, returned to the shipyard at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The course in the bay where the trial was made was reached last evening before dark, and although the wind was blowing a gale, a heavy sea and other disadvantages prevailed, the contractors concluded to have a trial before dark. A course of two miles was made in 5 minutes and 54 seconds, three seconds faster than the time fixed by the board as requisite to a rate of twenty knots an hour. Another trial was made in 6 minutes and 21 seconds, 21 seconds over time. The vessel was then anchored off John Field all night, and this morning her trial was made. During the run, however, one of the air pump levers broke and the hot half knot was run with only one engine. The time was six minutes and sixteen seconds, and the trial was then abandoned and the Vesuvius returned to the city. Heavier air pump levers will be provided and another trial made as soon as fitted, probably on Thursday next. The horse power developed at the time the lever broke was 4,750.

Recently Dynamited.

HANOVER, Va., Dec. 29.—A dynamite cartridge was placed under the Carter house, near McTahayville, this county, Wednesday night, in which a party of negroes were having a dance. It exploded and almost totally destroyed the building and fatally injured Amos Moore and two women. A terrible loss of life would have happened if an alarm had not been given by a man who saw the cartridge and recognized the danger. Moore and two women, who had not time to escape, were thrown with terrible force through the building. They cannot recover. Threats of lynching are freely indulged in.

Scrofula

Scrofula is one of the most fatal scourges which afflict mankind. It is often inherited, but may be the result of improper vaccination, malarial poison, syphilis, and various other causes. Chronic Sore, Ulcers, Abscesses, Cancerous Tumors, and all other diseases, and the most dangerous of all, are the result of the blood. This disease can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Entirely Cured

I was troubled with Scrofula for five years, but after using a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the same was entirely cured. I can now do any kind of work, and my health is restored. I feel as well as ever. I am, Wm. J. Williams, 215 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.
