CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Fresh Ranch Butter from the ranch of J.
H. White at Wolcott's Cash Store. 3-7-9

PAENELL made a bad break when he refused to step down. It would have been preferable to being pulled down.

It would be well for some one to get the bills not published, but now laws, and publish them in pamphlet form and sell them for a dollar a copy.
There is an opportunity for enterprise.

THE 15th legislature is fast taking the lead in point of 'Happy-go-Lucky' ways of making laws and the novel way of placing them before the public.
A territorial grand jury would not be out of place at times.

It is to be hoped that the sixteenth legislature will at least pass no bills which will be pigeon holed till a year or two after they have adjourned and then pronounced laws as they suit the convenience of litigants.

THE neglect to publish the laws of the Territory which have been in the pigeon holes in the governor's office at Phenix was one of those accidents which frequently occur in railroad affairs, where a verdict of "nobody to blame" is the rule.

A MEXICAN paper ridicules the way in which laws are executed in the United States and gives an illustration of the postmaster at Nogales advertising a lottery drawing and sending the paper through the mails while he throws out papers containing advertisements of lotteries coming from the republic of Mexico. How is this Mr. Chatham?

JUDGE KIRNEY rendered a decision on Friday last in the case of the Territory vs. Gill, for libel, in which the ten lost laws are declared valid.
Among these laws is one which provides that a grand jury shall consist of from seventeen to twenty-four men, while the grand jury which indicted Gill consisted of but fifteen members, which the judge decided was an illegal jury and all indictments found by it were void. This is really a fine state of affairs.

Then he clasped her with emotion, Drew the maiden to his breast, Whispered words of true devotion,
The old old tale—you know the rest.
From his circling arms upspringing,
With a tear she turned away,
And her voice with sorrow ringing,
"I shall not see my bridal day."

This dramatic speech broke him up badly; but when she explained that her apprehensions were founded on the fact of an inherent predisposition to consumption in her family, he calmed her fears, bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for her, and she is now the incarnation of health.
Consumption fastens its hold upon its victims while they are unconscious of its approach.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured thousands of cases of this most fatal of maladies. But it must be taken before the disease is too far advanced in order to be effective.
If taken in time, and given a fair trial, it will cure, or money paid for it will be refunded.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, Cerebral Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an absolute remedy.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
