CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

Where Were They?

With apologies to the Helena Independent.

Where were the Arizona delegates when the silver men went out?

What were they doing? what were they about?

Where were they when the silver men went out?

They declared they were for silver because they thought it right.

They vowed they'd stay right with it and make an honest fight.

Of their honesty and loyalty there was not any doubt.

But what were they doing when the silver men went out?

CHORUS—

Where were the Arizona delegates when the silver men went out?

What were they doing? What were they about?

Where were they when the silver men went out?

They swore by the eternal they'd be the miner's friend.

And stay right with the silver cause until the very end.

When talk was what was needed they were always there to spout.

But what were they doing when the silver men went out?

CHORUS:

Nearly 900 of the delegates who will take part in the deliberations of the Chicago convention have already been chosen and nearly 600 of them are in favor of a free coinage platform and a free coinage candidate. The silver men, on this showing, will not only have the making of the platform but the naming of the candidate.
