BISBEE, September 14, 1896.

COPPERINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Woods left for Tombstone this morning. They will also bring their little boy back with them as the sickness in town seems to be dying out.

Stephen A. D. Upton left Bisbee this morning bound for the Democratic convention at Williams. Steve carried the proxies of the other Bisbee delegates. He is quite an enthusiast on the free silver question and decked himself out in a Bryan hat before leaving this morning.

A small detachment of soldiers including a number of Indian scouts were in town for some time today.
They were en route to San Bernardino ranch and stopped to get a square meal and rest up. We understand that it is the present intention to keep a small detachment of soldiers at San Bernardino all the time.

The small boys, the night-hawks, and the tinnies are now bemoaning another loss—the "pie-wagon proprietor" has left town. True, his stand is being run by another party, but then he doesn't understand "ingredients" and cannot make those famous hot-stuff-hamburger-sandwiches and so is unable to tickle their palates as they are wont to have them tickled.

It all came about in a rather peculiar way and all owing to a prevailing appetite for booze. The gentleman in question was doing such a rushing business last Friday night that he took a number of notations to help him keep up his flow of eloquence in regard to the merits of his many dishes. The "Bisbee Sheep Dip" which he imbibed had a rather unusual effect on him, however, and he changed his talk on fine "winnies," fresh hamburger, good coffee, etc. into a tirade of abuse directed at one of our heavy citizens.

The 2nd party to the racket however was not one of the patient kind and quietly stepped into the house for a gun whereupon the unfortunate presenter concluded to suspend business for the evening and donated the balance of his proreder to the "hood-lum club" who promptly took it in charge. Saturday morning learning that a warrant had been issued for his arrest he crawled into a box car on the A. & S. E. and hired a boy to close the door. He forgot to give the boy stipulated dime so the boy just slipped the bolt and locked him in. Where he is now nobody knows but his mouth is probably watering for one of those hamburger sandwiches and it is very likely aided therein by the pangs of a very empty stomach. Moral:—Don't monkey with the pie-wagon.

There was gnashing of teeth at the Waldorf when Li Hung Chang and his suite departed for good. The bell boys and waiters and chambermaids had been confidently looking forward to "tips" of wonderful magnitude. To their dismay, the vicary and his followers trooped away without giving one red Chinese cent, with a hole in the middle of it. It was not until nearly noon that a rumor began to spread about the hotel that Li left $200 to be divided up between thirty or forty of the servants. Then they felt just a little better, but not much, for they expected a great deal more.

Coolgardie.

Rich new finds are being constantly reported from Coolgardie gold fields.
F. Examiner, date Jan. 17th. Reports among the finds at Black Flat, a nugget weighing 300 ounces, nearly all pure gold, a number of other pieces were obtained amounting to about $10,000 worth. Coolgardie is an accessible point, reached by steamer to Fremantle, thence by rail to Southern Cross, and then to destination. The trip to Australia on the fine steamers of the Oceanic S. S. company, via Honolulu, Samoa and New Zealand is planned sailing the day long. This line tickets passengers to Cape Town, South Africa. Map of Coolgardie district and Pacific Ports, etc., mailed free to any address by the Oceanic line, 114 Montgomery street San Francisco.

Rev. John H. H. of Gen. Falls, Mont., recommends Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."

Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres.
