BISBEE NEWS.
Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.
Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.

BISBEE, October 26, 1896.
DELAYED ITEMS.
H. Schmieding returned today from a short business trip to Tombstone.
J. B. Angus also returned today from the county seat where he has been for several days past.
We beg leave to acknowledge a slight mistake made by us in yesterday's issue. Jimmy the Trailer, Jack Wickstrom and the other "Hoods" did not expect to get a wagon load of ducks; they only wanted three apiece.
We offer most humble apology.

The editor of the Daily Democrat has now begun to show his colors in shape. Heretofore he has been laying back, merely getting in a slur or two every day or so, but now he comes boldly to the front and prints articles containing not even the shadow of a truth. We say he does this because he refuses to set matters right when he is shown that he is in error and requested to do so. When an editor sets himself up as a writer of falacious articles by refusing to right the same when he knows them to be incorrect, his paper becomes of no use whatever except in the service of corruption. The most brazen of his assertions reads that the Republican county convention and the Republican central committee have both passed resolutions that money be subscribed to the fund for the territorial campaign. As secretary of the county central committee, I know that part of the item to be absolutely without foundation as no question of the kind has ever been brought up and, in the connection in which he mentions the matter, never would be. That the balance of the assertion is as groundless as this part, is vouched for by a number of our leading citizens who were present at the convention and know what they are talking about.
The editor evidently "put his foot in it" when he says that crack, and he must either retract his statement or else be considered a first class example of a Democratic Henselman.

The News is not usually boastful but we can this week proudly tally "it" in the converting line, or perhaps it were more fitting to put it negatively, since Thomas Sinclair, feeling himself aggrieved at a society item that spoke of his spending the winter at the county jail, came into the office considering of furnishing the sorester with a job and went away a "doubting Thomas." Come again, Thomas!

tion and sick-headache. For malaria and liver troubles, they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be stance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by greatly invigorate the system. Regular

John Drake, who owns a ranch north of Prescott, says the Courier, says the patch of Russian thistle near Whipple is spreading; that it takes possession of beaten paths of years' standing and covers them so that man or beast cannot travel over them. He says there is no other growth of this thistle in Arizona and something should be done to destroy this patch before it spreads all over Arizona. He thinks it sprang from seed brought to Whipple in a shipment of grain.
