BISBEE NEWS.
Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.

Budget of interesting items from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, Nov. 13, 1896.

COFFERINGS.
Wm. Morris left for a short trip to Tombstone this morning. He will be away for a few days.

C. C. Warner and Dr. F. A. Sweet returned from the Masonic convocation at Tucson this evening. They of course had one of those only times.

J. J. Campbell also returned this evening, having seen his wife safe on her way to the old home in New Mexico.

Assemblyman Jones returned from Tombstone on this evening's train, happy at being so fortunate as to get opened from several days of worrying jury duty.

Bert Gemable left this morning for Tucson on a little pleasure trip and also for the purpose of seeing a number of old friends. He also will return in a few days.

When laying in your winter supply of furnishing goods and foot wear don't overlook the fact that Blewett and Rucastle are in the market. This firm is an old stand by in our midst and one at which we are always assured a good trade and a good sound dollar's worth of everything. If you don't know this to be a fact don't take our word for it but try them and see. It's dollars to doughnuts that you will become a regular customer if you do.

It's amusing at times to notice how our young married couples start out on the highway of married life. Every once in a while something amusing is noticed in this line, and the incident we noticed last night is no wise out of the ordinary. As we were wending our weary way homeward about half-past nine, or maybe later, our attention was caught by the sound of an axe in active use. As people do not generally cut wood at such an outlandish hour as that we thought we would investigate the matter a little and, on arriving at a position near enough to the scene of operations to see what was going on, we could hardly suppress a hearty laugh which seemed determined to come out in spite of us. There in his shirt sleeves was one of the latest candidates for matrimonial honors grasping an axe with a look of determination and vainly hacking away at a small sized oak knot. His dear wife, in the meantime, sat on the head of an ash can a few feet away holding a candle for his benefit, and endeavoring by coaxing and the use of numerous pet expressions to get him to hack off enough to cook breakfast with. When the young gentleman gets onto the ropes a little later he will probably have his wife cut the wood in the day time as that seems to be the proper caper in some parts of town.
