Toronto Has a Sea-Serpent.

The morning was cool, and perhaps this was the reason why some of the workmen engaged at the targets on the Garrison ranges saw the serpent they saw was not more than fifty feet long and the size of a man's body. The story, as told by one of them, is in substance as follows: Between 8 and 9 o'clock, while placing the targets in position on No. 1 range, a boy rushed up saying that there was a queer thing floating near the shore. Some of the men were curious enough to leave their work and hasten down to the shore.

A Young Girl's Bed-Room.

A young girl's bed-room may be furnished daintily and in exquisite taste at a small expense. The chief outlay will be for a bedstead. This cannot be constructed out of a pine board and bits of muslin, though many other things may be: but a handsome painted bedstead of blue and white is the first requirement for this room.
