A special from Hong Kong says that "the American guns cannot use the ammunition captured at Cavite." It isn't necessary to cable the fact that the Spanish guns can't use it either.

Spain can now telegraph her instructions to Manila; and the end of the cable has been placed on board one of Dewey's ships and we have no doubt that he will deliver any messages which are properly prepaid.

One hundred and thirty-five newspaper correspondents, it is said, will accompany the army of invasion into Cuba.

At the battle of Manila the American fleet fired forty tons of shot. That is enough to sink the hopes of any nation the size of Spain.

A London paper says that "Admiral Dewey is disliked in certain quarters because he is a dude." He is also liked in certain quarters because he is a dandy.

The secretary of the Chinese legation in Madrid, Shu Ping, has come to America to watch the war. If there is anything in a name he should be a pretty good judge of marksmanship.

The New York Cuban relief committee has received $150,000 in cash and $350,000 worth of provisions and other supplies since it began operations.

The Postmaster is making copies of paper to Madrid, Colo. and Madrid Neb. The postal guide shows that eight states have postoffices named Madrid. Up to the hour of going to press we haven't heard of the postmasters resigning.

PORTO RICO, which will slip from Spanish control along with Cuba, is 108 miles in length, about 37 miles broad, and has an acreage of about 3,500 square miles, possessing a population of about 1,000,000. Its chief staples are sugar and tobacco while coffee and other semitropical products grow in abundance.

The supposition that Americans will stay at home this summer to an unusual extent may prove ill-founded. One of the transatlantic steamers sailed from New York a day or two ago with over 1,100 passengers, the largest number ever taken from that port by a regular outgoing boat.

Two cases of scarlet fever among children is reported in town. The symptoms have not yet developed to make the cases dangerous and every care and precaution is taken to guard against its being spread there no danger or uneasiness need be felt by parents.

Fishing for Health.

When a man breaks down with that dread disease, consumption, and recognizes his condition, he starts out to fish for health. He tries this thing and that thing. He consults this doctor and that doctor. He indulges in all kinds of absurd athletic exercises. He tries first one climate and then another. He tries the rest cure and the work cure. He grows steadily worse. That is the story of most consumptives. Finally, when the consumptive dies, the doctor slings his shoulders and pronounces consumption incurable. A thirty years' test of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has demonstrated that it cures 99 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease, before the lungs are too far wasted. In a consumptive there is a weaker spot than even the lungs. That spot is the stomach. A consumptive never really begins to die until his stomach gives out. The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only braces up the stomach, but acts directly on the lungs, healing them and driving out all impurities. Honest medicine dealers will not urge you to take an inferior substitute. "I had a very bad cough, also night-sweats and was almost in my grave with consumption," writes Mrs. Clara A. McIntyre, Box 17, Ashland, Middlesex Co., Mass. "A friend of mine who had died with consumption came to me in a dream and told me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and, thank the Lord, I did so. By the time I had taken half of the first bottle I felt much better. I kept on until I had taken three bottles. That was all I needed. I got well and strong again."

Whenever constipation is one of the complicating causes of disease, the most perfect remedy is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are always effective, yet absolutely mild and harmless. There never was any remedy invented which can take their place. They never grip.

The total for the year thus far is 72,538 head, as compared with 190,649 received from Mexico during the corresponding period in 1897.

ON THE LINE.

Ft. Huachuca Troops Paroling the Border.

The Star says, Lieutenant J. O'Shea, commanding I troop, 7th U. S. cavalry, was in Tucson yesterday en route to the Frenal, where he will make headquarters in the field for his troop where he will co-operate with Major Nolan, who is stationed at Calabasas. These troops will keep a scout along or near the line to be ready to meet any troubles which may arise either from Indians or depredate bandits, under the guise of Spanish sympathizers. Major Nolan at Calabasas can cover the field from there to Arivaca and east to the Huachuca mountains. Lieutenant O'Shea's troop from Frenal east to Arivaca and west as far as may be necessary. So that the line in Arizona is in good and safe hands, and if the 7th cavalry needs any assistance at any time the home guards or minute men of Tucson, Nogales, Bisbee and Tombstone can soon swell the number to seven hundred, yes a thousand men on four or five hours notice.

The Costa Rican counterfeiter. For months the Costa Rican counterfeiter has been issuing bogus notes of the government of the island until the amount, it is said, has reached $1,000,000. Inspectors of the secret service bureau were chiefly instrumental in bringing the malefactor to justice. The efficiency of the secret service is undoubted, but it is by no means a secret, but a patent fact, that the service that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does the weak, nervous and dyspeptic is of genuine value. There have been from time to time counterfeits of it, but the miniature note of hand on the label, and the vignette of St. George and the Dragon, are not successfully imitable. This tonic absolutely prevents and remedies malaria, rheumatism, liver complaint and dyspepsia.

Werd was received in Tombstone today conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Leon Coyers at Munchuca siding by the accidental discharge of his pistol. No further particulars were received. Coyers was a young man well and favorably known and prominent cattleman owning the Mesal Spring ranch in the Whetstones. He leaves a wife and one child.

Hay is selling at $12 per ton on board the cars in Tucson. Such price at this season of the year is unprecedented. All available hay is said to have been bought by California traders and home markets will be obliged to rely on the midsummer crop. This will be put in a larger extent than ever before. Higher prices are still looked for. In the Salt River Valley hay is worth $4.00 per ton as it stands on the ground uncut.

Los Alamos Central: Mr Burns returned from Inyo county, where he has his cattle, the fore part of the week. Mr Burns lost 149 head of cattle on the way down, not from the scarcity of feed, but from drinking water, while crossing the desert which had been rendered poisonous by the decaying carcasses of thousands of sheep. Mr. Burns will remove to Arizona in the near future to reside permanently.

The Omaha World-Herald expresses it this way: "I wish, upon my soul I do, that board of strat-a-gee would give to Sampson half a chance or else would let him be. I wish, upon my soul I do, the powers at Washington would go to sleep about a month while Johnny used his gun. I wish, upon my soul I do, that board would sleep a spell and let the gallant boys in blue give Spain a taste of war."

It is said that, owing to the use of regular army blanks, the Arizona volunteers were mustered into the regular army of the United States and nothing but a special act of congress can divorce them therefrom. This being the case, if they retain their present status, those commissioned officers may hang on after the war is over. Brodie is an old army officer probably will be retained.—Courier.
