

Eruptions and skin diseases are a blot upon

Beauty

These blots are actually blood blots. To cure them lotions and outward applications are useless. The blood must be cured, before the skin becomes clean.

That great medicine for the stomach and blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is most effective in cleaning the complexion and healing diseases which defile and deface the skin. It acts directly upon the stomach and the organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the action of the blood-making glands, and expels from the system the lurking poisons which defile the blood and through it deface the skin.

No alcohol or other intoxicant, no opium or other narcotic is contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

It may pay a dealer better to sell you a substitute which is less popular but more profitable than the "Discovery." It won't pay you to buy it, if you want a reliable remedy.

For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken up," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 10 West Main St., Battle Creek, Mich. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I read one of your advertisements in a paper and obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Before I had taken one bottle of this medicine I noticed a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can well recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one who is afflicted."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, is sent free by the author, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound edition.

ONE ROBBER IN CUSTODY

Three Fingred Jack at Deaths Door

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE

Five Robbers Were into the Hold up—Prisoner Interviewed

ARE ON A HOT TRAIL

Last evening Jess Dunlap, known as Three Fingred Jack, who was one of the robbers in the hold up at Fairbank, was brought to town by Deputy Sheriff Bravia and placed in the hospital for medical treatment. Three Fingred Jack was in bad condition and suffered terrible agonies from his wounds received by Messenger Milton at the holdup. He was given medical attention and his wounds dressed after which he rested as easily as could be expected.

Jack was found alone lying on the ground near a burned cactus, when run onto by the posse. He had suffered intensely from his wounds and fallen from his horse. The rest of his comrades, five in all, were riding hard and never stopped when he fell, leaving the sufferer to his fate. Jack had fallen from his horse about 10 p. m. and laid unconscious until early morning. Being cold he lighted a cactus, where he fell. All again was a blank until he was aroused by his clothes being on fire, he felt the size of a hat having burned through his overcoat and clothes and scorched his skin. The bottom of his pants had also caught and slightly burned his foot. He managed to put out the fire but laid on the ground until the posse arrived about 1 p. m., being unable to move. He had lain in his wretched condition over 14 hours without water and was famished for drink. He was fixed up as comfortable as possible. He was very weak but told his above experience.

Asked how many robbers were implicated in the holdup Jack answered five and notwithstanding the heartless and inhuman treatment of his companions in leaving one of their number to die on the prairie, he did not divulge their identity. He stated the five men appeared in different directions and met near Contention. They arrived as per program and were all together, headed this way, when Jack fell from his horse.

A posse of six men headed by and in charge of Deputy Sheriff Sid Mullen continued on the trail. When near Tombstone last night they came here, secured a fresh start, and continued the hunt. Deputy Mullen is confident of running down the men and proposed to stay with it until the end. The posse comprise Deputies Mullen, Thos Vaughan, Chas Hood, Geo Kutz, Jas White and Mr T Broderick, sheriff of Santa Cruz county. The latter was on the train at time of hold up and joined the posse.

Sheriff White is leaving no stone unturned to apprehend the fugitives. At last reports today the posse were on a hot trail. It is believed the fugitives will fight before surrendering and news is anxiously awaited.

PRISONER INTERVIEWED.

Three Fingred Jack was seen in the hospital today by a PROSPECTOR reporter. Jack was very weak and feeble and could scarcely talk. Seven wounds were found on his body, all buckshot wounds, four of which grazed his skin and three entered the body one in abdomen and three in the groin. He had bled considerable internally and was weak and exhausted. There are faint chances for his recovery.

Jack recognized the reporter and feebly whispered "I am too weak to talk. I am getting weaker all the time. I guess its all up this time."

"Did your partners know you were wounded?" asked the reporter. The reply was in the affirmative.

"Did they offer you no assistance when you fell?"

"None. I was treated pretty rough," was the feeble reply and yet he remained silent when pressed for the names of his companions or any information which might lead to their capture.

Jack is continually growing weaker and it is probable he may never be able to leave his bed alive.

The Leap Year Reception given by the Tombstone ladies last evening was a grand affair. The hall was artistically decorated with a lavish display of green foliage and pink decorations, which, with the enticing strains and flower carners presented a bower of beauty. For music, C. W. Blackburn kindly placed a piano and his Angelus Oriental at the disposal of the ladies which furnished excellent waits music and the Harp was pressed into service for quadrilles. The hall was crowded, the young ladies all having followed the instructions to "bring a man and a cake." This was a leap year event and although the occasion was at variance with the calendar the sentiment was nice and the sterner sex who were made participants did not object. The old customs were departed from, the ladies had charge and the hitherto boys inside and reservations went courageously for an embrace—the golden opportunity that comes but once in four years; and in many a manly bosom did a glad heart beat with joy as he beheld himself the choice of some fair one who proceeded to guide him through the misty maze of the airy waltz. Fines were levied. The slightest infraction, real or imaginary, of the rules carried with it a penalty of a 10 cent fine. There was no appeal and payment was enforced on the spot. The system proved an admirable one, the ladies "cornering" all the 10 cent coins. Refreshments were served and not until the wee sma hours did the guests forsake their mirth and enjoyment to depart for their homes all vowing the Leap Year Reception a grand success.

The prize for the masquerade ball to be given by the Terpsichorean Club on Washington's birthday are on exhibition at the Tombstone Pharmacy. There are five prizes each desirable and handsome ones. For the best sustained character, lady or gent, will be awarded a sterling silver comb and brush set; Ladies first prize a beautiful manicure set; ladies second prize a handsome clock; Gents first prize a dressing case while a bottle of Old Taylor whiskey will be given as a consolation prize; the choice of the com mittee.
