Teachers' Institute in Bisbee This Month

At the Cochise County Teachers' Institute, which will be held in Bisbee during the week of October 2-6, inclusive, there will be several prominent educational instructors from different parts of the United States, who will, before attending the institute at the big copper camp, come to Tombstone on a visit to the local schools, besides visiting many other schools throughout the county.

These distinguished educators, the Misses Leta E. Severance, representing the Palmer system of writing, and Ida J. Webster, representing the Atkinson, Montzner & Grover course in Applied Arts Drawing, have been assigned to this county as instructors to the teachers, during the time between September 18th and October 7th, their itinerary being as follows: Willcox, September 18-19; Benson, September 20-21; Tombstone, September 22-23; Bisbee, September 25-27; and Douglas, September 28-30.

These workers will be in attendance throughout the entire institute and will each afternoon instruct the teachers.

Prominent among the instructors and lecturers, who will be present at the institute, is Arthur Henry Chamberlain of Pasadena, California, former dean of the Throp Polytechnic Institute, treasurer of the National Educational Association and chairman of the International Committee American School Peace League. He is the author of the "Standard in Education," the same having been selected and adopted by the Arizona Teachers' Reading Circle, and is admirably adapted to reading circles, each chapter having an excellent synopsis and a suggestive list of topics, and has been adopted by many of the educational boards in the United States.

Besides the above mentioned distinguished personages who will be present at the teachers' gathering, will be E. H. Blome, president of the northern Arizona Normal School and member of the Territorial Board of Education. Mr. Blome has been connected with the educational board of this territory for many years, and it was mainly through his efforts that the Northern Arizona Normal was made a success and placed upon the list of leading normal schools of the west, whose graduates are recognized throughout the United States.

From Thursday's Daily

Advice from Bisbee are to the effect that George Rafferty is slowly improving from his recent operation which is indeed pleasing news to his many Tombstone friends. It is hoped that he has now passed the danger mark.

L. A. Boedecker is numbered among the visitors in the county seat today from his home in Tucson.

Ore is being hoisted at the Lucky Cuss mine today by the leasers of that property.

Miss Laura Westover is a recent arrival in Tombstone for a fortnight from her home in Bisbee as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller.

Several of our citizens left for Willcox this morning to attend the fair which is now in progress.

Miss Ernestine Chowning was a departing passenger this morning for Phoenix, where she will teach school during the coming winter. Miss Chowning will not enter the Columbia University at New York at this term as announced some time previous, but will enter that institution next fall instead.

Harry Rafferty went to Bisbee this afternoon to visit his brother, who, it was stated this morning, had suffered a slight relapse from his recent operation at the Copper Queen Hospital. It is hoped in Tombstone that Mr. Rafferty will rally and again get on the road to recovery.

Among the traveling men in the city are noted: C. J. Burkhardt of San Francisco, W. H. Godlove of St. Joseph, Missouri, S. L. Harvey of Denver, and L. Hegler of Los Angeles.

Pickett continued to Willcox to attend the first annual county fair in that city. The Colonel will incidentally talk of senatorial matters to the multitude.

Government to Sell Arizona Timber

A Washington dispatch says:—

The government is arranging for the sale of 600,000,000 feet of merchantable timber from the Cochise and Sitgreaves national forests and the Apache Indian reservation in eastern Arizona to the highest bidder. It is estimated that the sale will bring the government from a million and a half to two millions of dollars. No bid of less than $2.50 per thousand will be considered for the timber cut in the five years of the contract, and $3 for that cut during the following years. It must be cut in ten years. This will open up the coal lands.

A Clear Statement Of The Case

District Attorney Williams is a doubtful quantity, at least so far as his political aspirations are concerned as witnessed the following interview in the Dispatch:

"Are you a candidate for congress, Mr. Williams?"

"Ah, hum. I saw a good many of the old boys out in California."

"Will you stand for district attorney?"

"Yes, there were a lot of the old timers there."

"How about the superior judgeship?"

"Well, it looks as if we might have rather a light term of court this time."

Tombstone Lady Sustains Injury

At noon today Mrs. Kringle, mother of Mrs. F. N. Wolcott, sustained a serious injury by an accidental fall, breaking the bones of her right wrist, and seriously spraining her left arm. Mrs. Kringle accidentally stumbled in walking down some steps and plunged forward to the ground, sustaining some abrasions on the head and her weight falling upon her hands resulted as above stated. Dr. Hogarth was immediately summoned who dressed the injury and the estimable lady is doing as well as can be expected.

Many Leases Have Been Granted

That new leases are being granted each week by Trustee A. L. Grow of the Tombstone Consolidated Mines Company can only be evidenced by the fact that about two months ago a total of forty chlorides had secured leases on various company properties, but the records now show that over sixty chlorides are at work in the district. Certain of the leases are granted upon a piece of ground, where there are probably six chlorides at work on different levels, while in most instances, single leases have been secured on some of the undeveloped property, and it being upon the last named where new strikes are constantly encountered, and high grade ore shipped to the El Paso smelters. All shipments being made in the name of the T. C. M. Company.

Oswald, the thoroughbred racer which Hodges Brothers of Yuma purchased from the estate of "Lucky" Baldwin, has been shipped to Willcox where he will be raced at the county fair, James Hodges and the jockey Harry Jones have also gone to Willcox.

Dies In Poverty Rather Than Take Pension

Considered "queer" because he refused to accept a pension from the government when he was plainly entitled to one, Charles H. Robinson, a major in the union army during the civil war, died in Phoenix in poverty at the age of 87 years.

Though often in direct need, he steadfastly declined to apply for a pension, saying that the officers of his regiment had agreed not to do so under any circumstances.

Arizona Miners In First Aid Contest

A Trinidad dispatch says:— The first aid contest for teams from five western states, including Arizona, will be held here on September 28 under the direction of the government bureau of mines and the American Red Cross association.

Pinesalve is like a poultice. It is the best remedy for all kinds of cuts, burns, and bruises. It is sold by all druggists.

To Have Wrestling Match At Fair

One of the features to be had for the county fair at Willcox is the wrestling match between Chas. Roberts of Tucson, formerly of Tombstone and R. E. Woodmansee from Bowie.

The contestants are well matched from the standpoint of weight, Woodmansee weighing 170 pounds, while Roberts tips the scale at 167.

Arizona Students Enter Coast School

Two new students from Arizona will be entered in the California school for the deaf and blind at the autumn term. Arrangements for their education have been made by the Territorial board of Education. Harry Herson, a blind girl from Douglas is one and the other is John D. Norman, a deaf boy from Globe. The people of Douglas at the instance of superintendent of schools Lantz, raised enough to pay the Herson child's traveling expenses to the coast, and Judge E. W. Lewis raised a similar fund in Globe for young Norman.

Work Progressing On New Road

Dirt is being moved all along the east end of the El Paso and Southwestern right-of-way from Fairbanks to Tucson and most of the construction camps are in full working order. A big outfit from Denver arrived in Benson Friday, belonging to Maurice Ryan, who has the contract for building a big concrete arch trestle on Mile eight.

Scores of laborers are arriving in Benson and are being taken out to the grading and concrete camps.

Tombstone to Have Postal Savings Bank

S.P. Will Be Built Into Douglas Soon

That the Southern Pacific railway will be built into Douglas by the time the El Paso & Southwestern reaches Tucson, is the information brought to Douglas by H. T. Cuthbert, who has just returned home from a short business trip to Phoenix and Tucson.

"While in Tucson," said Mr. Cuthbert to the Douglas Dispatch "I met one of the most prominent men in that city and he told me that a short time ago Epes Randolph had informed him that the Southern Pacific would be built into Douglas before the E. P. & S. W. reached Tucson. He said it would take from six to eight weeks to complete the road into this city.

He also stated that the directors of the S. P. were anxiously awaiting the result of the election in Mexico, and if the outlook was satisfactory they would immediately carry out the recommendations of Mr. Randolph and complete the road from Douglas to Guaymas, considerable of which is already built.

Mrs. Kringle is resting easy from her painful injuries and heroically braving the sufferings from her accidental fall.

Will Test Arizona Registration Law

A test of the present registration law will be made in Phoenix, where a man will apply for registration at the county recorder's office and then demand that his name be put on the Great Register. Since the law has been interpreted to mean that his name shall not be added to the Register, the recorder will refuse and a writ of mandamus will be issued. The case will come up before Judge Kent of the district court, in Phoenix, and if he decides that the writ of mandamus shall be sustained, this will be taken as the interpretation of the law. The man's name will then be added to the Great Register and establish a precedent, so that all others who wish to do so may register and vote in the primary and state elections. If, however, Judge Kent does not sustain the writ, the law will stand as interpreted at the present time.

It was stated yesterday by a well known attorney of Tucson, according to the Star, that this case will settle the legal entanglement for all time and that it was liable to be judged according to the desire of the people, that is, to allow every one in the territory to vote at both elections. It is well then to register at the present time, he thought, so as to be on the safe side if the decision is settled in this way and the writ of mandamus sustained by Judge Kent.

New Accounting System For Wells-Fargo

Wells Fargo Express company auditors, route agents and station agents from Arizona, Mexico and Texas are at Tucson for a three days conference to familiarize themselves with a new system of accounting that is to go into effect this month. The meeting is said to have nothing to do with transportation or rates.
