LOOKING BACK- WARD 24 YEARS IN TOMBSTONE

Interesting Items that Appeared in the "Prospector," this Date, 1891; Reminiscent of the Pioneer Days Tombstone is to have a mesal distillery. When completed it will furnish a sufficient amount of that beverage called pulque to meet the demand in Tombstone at least. The liquor, which is now imported from Mexico, pays a duty of $2.50 per gallon. The plant, which grows to perfection in Cochise county, furnishes a distillery in Sonora with most of its raw material for making the liquor.

The Tucson Star has a $100,000 libel suit on its hands. Hughes always was a lucky fellow. The Star is the most conservative paper in the territory and it is about certain that when it does strike there is justice behind the blow.

The Phoenix Republican puts on an air of self righteous indignation and taking the "Prospector" to task for a little pleasantry indulged in upon the event of the President's visit to Benson. It says that ignorant readers of newspapers would swallow it as a true account of the actions of the president's party, but that intelligent men would pay no attention to it. Thanks, the "Prospector" has none but intelligent readers and had it not been for the Republican's allusion to it in its columns, it would never have met the eyes of an ignoramus.

EXTRA SESSION OF LEG- ISLATURE CONVENES; BROOKS AND SIMS

Session Begun By Reading
 Governor Hunt's Message To Both Houses

PHOENIX, April 23.—The extra session of the legislature convened and hastily organized by the re-election of Sims as president of the senate and Brooks, speaker of the house. There were no opposing candidates, the house going through the formality of electing Brooks. In the senate an effort to establish a precedent was put forth and Sims began his service without the formality of election.

In nearly every instance the old attaches were re-elected although L. F.
 Sweeting failed to be re-named chief of the house, such appointment going to Peter Munch of Nogales, who in the last session, served as assistant chief clerk.

The work of the session was begun by hearing read the message of Governor Hunt which had been transmitted immediately after the session convened and was not read in person. The governor, in the message, said he appreciated the fact that there were many subjects of legislation which should receive attention, but that the results of the first session had shown him that concentration of thought brought most desired results, consequently he had given them but two subjects upon to legislate, the appropriate and the tax levy. He urged speed in consummating the work.

Cochise county patronage in the house consists of Oscar Zapf, assistant chief clerk and M. J. Sullivan, night watchman, in addition to which two stenographers were allowed.

Millions Visit World's Great Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco

ALL RECORDS FOR ATTENDANCE BROKEN BY MARVEL EXPOSITION CITY AT THE GOLDEN GATE.

VAST CROWD GATHERED BEFORE THE HUGE TOWER OF JEWELS. ARE YOU GOING TO VISIT THE HUGE EXPOSITION?

THIS remarkable panoramic photograph shows part of the vast crowd that gathered on the opening day of the Exposition, Saturday, Feb. 20. The crowd was not only the greatest ever brought together in the west, but in vastness it broke all previous exposition attendance records. The grounds were thronged with visitors from every part of the globe, and the big attendance still continues. The opening day crowd was remarkably peaceful, and no arrests were made by the Exposition guards or military during the day, and but one child was lost, and it was returned to its mother within fifteen minutes. There were no accidents.

 The photograph above shows, on the left, the Italian towers guarding the entrance to the Court of Palms next to the Palace of Varied Industries and in the center and on the right the huge grand stand built before the Tower of Jewels. Here Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, acting in behalf of President Wilson, President Charles C.

 Moore of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, Dr. Frederick J. V.
 Skiff, director in chief, accompanied by the thirty Exposition directors, welcomed the vast throng that assembled in Van Ness avenue and its lateral streets and, headed by Mayor James D. Phelan, Jr., walked on foot through the streets of the city and into the Exposition grounds through the Scott street entrance to the grand stand. At the time this photograph was taken Lincoln Beachey, aviator, had just appeared above the horizon in his flying machine, and the throng was awaiting Mr. Beachey's approach to circle the huge Tower of Jewels.

Since the opening day the Exposition has been crowded with visitors from all parts of the world. Low railroad rates, the sunny skies of California and the opportunity to see the wonderful displays of the forty-two nations that are participating in the Exposition are drawing thousands to the Exposition city at the Golden Gate.

TRIED TO EVADE ARIZONA'S DRY AMENDMENT

Novel Plan Uncovered By Phoenix Officers; Goods
 Are Confiscated

PHOENIX, April 23.—Acting under a search warrant issued by Justice of the Peace P. P. Parker, Sheriff Jeff D.
 Adams and Deputies James Murphy, George Sears and Don C. Babbitt raided a warehouse on the Santa Fe tracks and discovered 175 cases and 139 barrels of beer, wines and liquors.

It is claimed by the officers that this stock of intoxicants was formerly owned and for sale by a wholesale liquor firm and that the members of the firm had devised a method by which they were attempting to dispose of the stock without violating the provisions of the constitutional amendment.

The plan, it is said, was to have checks sent to one F. J. Scott, No. 143 South Main street, Los Angeles, who thereupon issued, in the name of the Santa Clara Wine company, a warehouse certificate which stated that the owner had warehoused certain number packages with the company at the Phoenix plant and was entitled to withdraw the same on surrender of the certificate.

Each kind of liquor had code number so that one case No. 41 or such number as the certificate might bear would indicate to the local warehouseman which kind of booze the customer was to get. It is claimed that this has been going on for some time and that the concern in question has done a rushing business, having agents scattered throughout the state and actively soliciting business. No allegation has been made that an attempt to bring liquors into the state was made, the idea apparently being to dispose only of the stock remaining on hand at the time the amendment went into effect.

The stock found at the warehouse was confiscated and is now in custody of the sheriff. The warehouseman, C.
 R. Smith, was arrested, charged with a violation of the statute and was released on $600 bail.

TOMBSTONE CITIZEN SAYS OLD CAMP WILL COME INTO ITS OWN

A. H. Gardner In Interview at Phoenix, Gives Out Big Boost for This City

The following is taken from the Arizona Republican of yesterday:
 "A. H. Gardner, of Tombstone, is in the city to witness the opening of the extra session of the legislature.
 Mr. Gardner has no personal or local interest in the proceedings. He is only curious to see what the legislature will do at the start-off.

"Tombstone is now claiming his attention and he said yesterday that since the palmy days of the early eighties there had not been so much in Tombstone to watch as at the present time. Under the impetus of the mining operations of the Phelps-Dodge company the town has taken on new life and all the residents are sure that it will be permanent. There is not a house now to rent in town and there will have to be a great deal of building shortly to meet conditions when mining operations are well under way.

"The company is not losing time in beginning. There will be no delay and great expense in unwatering the mines, the task that occupied the Tombstone Consolidated company for ten years at a cost of many millions of dollars and was then uncompleted. The Phelps-Dodge people are beginning mining.
 There is enough ore above the water level to claim their attention for several years. When they reach the water they will take care of it.

"Said Mr. Gardner: 'The Phelps-Dodge people will put Tombstone on the map permanently and prominently or they will wipe it off the map entirely by proving that there are no mines there.'"

"Mr. Gardner added that all of Cochise county, with 17 cent copper, was booming. Prospects were never before so bright in that county."

WILL ATTEMPT TO BREAK ARIZONA EMPLOYERS LIABILITY LAW

Ray Consolidated, Defendant
 In Suit, Will Appeal To Highest Courts

Declaring that they will attempt to break the Arizona employer's liability act, the Ray Consolidated inaugurated its defense in the C. A. Barrett damage suit yesterday with an opening argument in which the most famous "personal injury" attorney in the west took part. Judge King of Salt Lake City then took up the cross examination of plaintiff's physician, and in his quizzing displayed a knowledge of the anatomy of the leg that astounded his hearers.

Barrett was injured in both legs by a fall down the chute from one level to another in the Ray mine several months ago. Out of his injury grew this case —the first damage suit ever brought involving the employers' liability act in Arizona. The suit is being tried in the federal court because plaintiff is a citizen of Arizona and the corporation hails from Maine.

In its demurrer to the suit, defend-ent recites the old reliable fourteenth amendment as a reason for the illegality of the act under which the suit is being brought. It is said the Ray Consolidated has decided to take the case to the highest courts in its effort to dismantle the liability act.

Birthday Surprise

A number of charming young ladies of Tombstone surprised Mr. Harry Larson yesterday afternoon, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Dawson, at Rose cottage, the occasion being his birthday. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.
 Mr. Larson recently came here from Omaha, Neb., and says that for its size Tombstone has Omaha beat a city block, and since coming here has improved wonderfully in health, which he attributes solely to the wonderful climate of Tombstone. He is very much in love with the Old Camp and will remain indefinitely.

TOMBSTONITES STEAL MARCH ON FRIENDS

Harry Kendall, Miss Mary Howe Quietly Go to Tuc-son and Get Married

The marriage in Tucson yeste day evening of a popular young couple of Tombstone, Harry E. Kendall and Miss Mary Howe, came as a sudden surprise to their many friends in this city, and so cleverly was the scheme carried out that unsuspecting friends knew nothing of the affair until late last evening, when the news reached here.

Carefully planning their departure for the Old Pueblo, the groom leaving on the 9-40 train, and the bride following on the 1-45, not one of their intimate friends knew of the plans, although their engagement had been announced a week earlier.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. L. B. Howe, of New York, they having recently come here on an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. B.
 Vallance, old friends of the family. It was a case of friendship at first sight, which friendship quickly grew into love, with the happy culmination yesterday.

The groom is one of the successful cattlemen of this county and has resided in Tombstone for the past ten or twelve years, and together with his brother and associates, have formed a strong cattle company, known as the Kendall Cattle Company, and they have large holdings in South Pass, about twelve miles distant from Tombstone. Both the bride and groom have many friends here who extend hearty congratulations for a long and happy wedded life, in which the "Prospector" joins.

The couple will make Tombstone their home.

 Grenardini, charged with bootlegging returned a verdict of not guilty in the superior court yesterday and the defendant was released. The following bootlegging cases were dismissed on motion of the county attorney: Maude Baker, Dora Forbes, Mary Gary, Earl Williams and Russel Rogers, charged with burglary.

Monday, the case of the state vs Percy Rogers, charged with bootlegging will come up for hearing.

Rogers is the man whom Sheriff Wheeler captured near Douglas with three casks of whiskey concealed in an automobile.

HERALDS OF LIBERTY AP- PLY FOR PERMIT TO DO BUSINESS IN ARIZONA

PHOENIX, April 23.—On the ground that it has complied with all the requirements of the statutes regulating fraternal insurance companies, the Heralds of Liberty yesterday filed application with the corporation commission for license and permission to transact business in Arizona.

The application states that the Heralds of Liberty is a foreign fraternal beneficiary society, and that it has observed all the requirements of Article VI, Title 24 of the revised statutes. The company was recently deprived of its license to do business in the state, following an investigation by the commission.
