Solomonville School Entertainment. The Solomonville schools closed last Friday, April 5th, and in the evening gave an entertainment wherein all the classes were brought together in social relationship. The exercises were a success throughout. The teachers, Misses Salkeld and Olney, had used every effort to train the children in their exercises and their efforts were greatly rewarded. The choruses, drills, songs and recitations were heartily applauded. It would be unjust to make special mention of any particular exercise. The large audience were free in their expressions of satisfaction, and pro-Let the good work continue and
