GOLD BUG STRATEGY.

The board of manager of the Carnegie steel company at Pittsburg, recently announced an advance to their employes of ten per cent to take effect June 1st.

A few days previous the board had declined to make any advance but after a conference with the English gold bugs of Lombard street, Mr. Carnegie cabled from his palace in Scotland to make the increase of ten per cent.

The purpose of the gold bugs is to make a show of good times returning and thereby attempt, if possible, to stop the silver movement. It will not fool the American people. The masses know by sad experience in their busy walks of life how few the dollars are and how hard to obtain. The advance of wages to the Pittsburg men will be welcomed, but as a lesson of the gold bugs, it will be met by a thousand object lessons in favor of the free coinage of silver on equal terms with gold. Simply look about us, and every hour—yes every minute of time gives forth countless lessons for free coinage that are sinking deep into the hearts of the people of our land.

THE UNFORGIVEN SIN.

An exchange publishes the following as part of the unwritten history of every community in Arizona:

A woman trusts and is betrayed. To her betrayer the hand of every saint and sinner in the community is held out and the world smiles at him in thanksgiving at one faint sign of repentance. To the woman every face bears the frown of hatred and against her every hand is uplifted, an exile from home, an outcast from society and a target for every vile tongue of slander, she struggles along friendless and unforgiven, even though she may repent in sackcloth and ashes and water her couch with tears of anguish and remorse for years to come. The doors of the church are turned against her, and the saints who sing the songs of thanksgiving at the return of her betrayer, draw their robes about them and pass by on the other side when she seeks to return to the mercy seat. But he who said to the outcast of nineteen centuries ago, "Go and sin no more," takes notice of these things and rejoices more over the repentance of one unfortunate than over the ninety and nine who strike her down every time she seeks to regain her lost estate. Forgive and ye shall be forgiven.

The Daggs brothers, W. L. Van Horn, and P. B. McCabe, of Tempe, officers of the defunct Tempe bank, have been indicted recently on a number of counts. One indictment charges embezzlement of $50,000, and another the embezzlement of 1000 head of sheep. That is pretty good for an Arizona accomplishment but we once knew of a New York man who stole a cage of full grown lions at Buffalo, N. Y., and was caught with the property in his possession in Chicago three weeks later. The recent attempt of the Washington city men to steal the earth may be set down though as the climax of "nerve" force.

The Supreme Court at Washington has declared the income tax law unconstitutional throughout. The Judges stood five against the law and four for it. Thus does the court again step in to prevent the rich from bearing its reasonable and just burden of taxation.

An eastern exchange says that wheat is higher with a tendency upwards, corn at 45 cents, hogs $4.25 per hundred, wool 16 cents being 3 to 5 cents higher than last year, with all imported goods lower, it would look like we were entering upon an era of prosperity.

The article written from Solomonville, and signed "Fair Play," which appears elsewhere in our columns, strikes in the right direction and should be read attentively by all.

Gov. Hughes has issued his proclamation for the due observance of May 30th as memorial day, with appropriate exercises throughout the territory.

THE board of supervisors of Graham county, despite the vigorous protest of District Attorney Jones have employed special counsel to fight the county classification law. District Attorneys are elected for a purpose as well as the Supervisors, and this purpose, as the law declares, is to give legal advice to the Supervisors, but these officials with an arbitrary power that was never intended by the lawmaking body, trample upon the laws and the rights of other officials, and conduct things in a high handed manner. District Attorney Jones is fully able and competent to advise the big-headed board of supervisors and we think he ought to enjoy them from wasting public funds by expending it for outside legal advice, contrary to law and common decency.—Gazette.

CONGRESSMAN SHAFROTH'S bold statement at the Salt Lake Silver conference, on the 16th inst., that unless the Republican national convention shall declare unequivocally for free coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1 and nominate free coinage candidates, the delegates from Colorado and other silver states should leave the convention and repudiate its ticket should be echoed throughout every free silver State in the United States. The GUARDIAN has made a fight for free silver from its first issue until the present time and expects to keep it up until the final struggle is over, which is sure to be a decisive victory for free and unlimited coinage of silver.

THE GUARDIAN does not object to the Territorial press reproducing items from its columns, but we would suggest the propriety of giving the proper credit. The Florence Tribune, in its issue of May 11th, published an editorial taken from the GUARDIAN, under the head of the "Book of Genesis" without giving credit, and since then other papers have copied the same article crediting it to Ex. We would also suggest to the El Paso Tribune that it would be nothing more than common courtesy to give the proper credit when it publishes articles taken from our columns.

At a state convention of Republican clubs, held in Portland Oregon, on Wednesday last composed of over 700 delegates, there were six anti-silver delegates chosen to represent the state at the Cleveland, Ohio convention. The anti-silver delegates were elected by a vote of over two to one over the silver men. A resolution calling for free coinage at 16 to 1 was overwhelmingly defeated. The future will prove that the convention did not represent a majority of the people of the state of Oregon. We predict it.

THE GUARDIAN subscription list and number of advertisements is daily increasing. The general expression is that the GUARDIAN, in matter and appearance, has no superior in Arizona. Its politics too, as one of its admirers writes, "are especially to be commended." The issue of 16 to 1 is now to the front, and will be forced by the people until the "dollar of 1873" which stands at the head of our columns is restored to its former place as the people's dollar.

THE first crop of alfalfa is all in the stack, corn is being planted rapidly, the harvesting of small grain crops will commence in a few days, and there has been plenty of water in the river thus far for all growing crops. Truly the outlook for the valley this year is bright.

ANOTHER idiot has recently jumped off the St. Louis bridge a distance of 120 feet to the water. He is said to have turned two somersaults in his descent, alighting upon his feet uninjured. If he had alighted upon his head he would still have remained uninjured so far as brains are concerned.

LOOK at the advertising columns of the GUARDIAN and see how they loom up.

The genial countenance of Abraham Diaz was seen on the Safford streets several times this week.

Dr. Porter was called to Central Thursday, Mrs. Alfred Cluff had been thrown from a wagon and quite seriously injured. Dr. Porter reported on his return that Mrs. Cluff was not dangerously injured, but was badly shaken up and bruised.

R. A. Alfred, of Thatcher, who went to Bisbee last December on a six week's visit and from there to Mesa City where he has been ever since, returned home yesterday.

DUNCAN. H. C. Boone is visiting this section on business, he expects his brother John Boon to arrive this week from the east.

B. B. Adams came in one day last week and has gone again, no person knows where, but as he can't keep quiet long he will be heard from soon.

Mrs. Denby, wife of the Minister of China, passed through on a special train Sunday evening to visit her son in Clifton, and also passed out on a special Monday evening.

Mr. Colquhoun, arrived home on a special last Sunday evening direct from New York.

It rained quite a shower here last Monday but not enough to do any good. We are now badly in need of water in the river and unless we get it very soon crops will burn up.

We will have more fruit this year than ever before.

John M. Crane who used to keep a saloon in Carlisle visited Duncan this week. Mr. Crane is down to look into the Carlisle boom.

Frank Richardson was in town last Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Terrell is now ready to make his second drive to Silver City to ship cattle and will leave Wednesday noon.

Noah Green visited Duncan Tuesday last.

Jos. Black bought a new mower and rake last week from Beebe & Sullivan of Safford, and arrived home with his purchase last Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Hill passed through to Lordsburg last week with her two bright girls on her way to Los Angeles to place them in school there. Mrs. Hill returned to Clifton Monday.

Tom Simpson was called to Chicago to the bedside of his wife who, we understand, is very ill. Only last week Mr. Simpson received a message that his wife was improving but since that time she has become worse and the doctor wired for Mr. Simpson to come. We hope he will find his wife much improved on his arrival in Chicago.

Charles Fetterley was in town last week. Charles acted as breakman on the railroad several years ago.

Jim Parks went to Lordsburg and returned again last Tuesday.

Frank Courtney just received a fine $60.00 saddle from Pueblo with his name in the seat of the saddle in large letters. Frank is very proud of his new purchase.

Mrs. A. J. Smith has been sick the past week, but is better again. She is not entirely well but is much improved at the present writing.

J. M. Hackett, the former school teacher and preacher, is back on his old stomping ground, having arrived here last Tuesday.

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

TERRITORY OF ARIZONA } EXECUTIVE OFFICE }

For more than a quarter of a century it has been the custom of our people to observe May 30th as Memorial Day, and in harmony therewith, National and Territorial legislation has established this as a public holiday, dedicated to the memory of those who wrought out through the wager of battle the principles that all men are born free; that the States are members of an indissoluble union, and that this Republic shall not perish from the earth.

This should be a day of patriotic sentiment and love of country, a day which will be the oil of gladness to the wounds caused by the terrible conflict, and if there be those who would keep alive acrimony engaged by the war, let our invocation be "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

May all minds be inspired and all hearts pulsate with sentiments of reconciliation and love.

"No more shall the war cry sever Or the winding rivers be red, They banish our anger forever When they laural the graves of our dead."

Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the Judgment day; Love and tears for the blue, Tears and love for the gray."

Now therefore I, Louis C. Hughes, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, in view of the day and its purposes do hereby recommend that the people observe the same in a befitting manner, joining with the surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic in their memorial service, and in strewing flowers on the graves of their departed comrades; thus encouraging reflection on the duties of patriots in time of the country's peril, and animate the spirit of charity and reconciliation in time of peace, that every section of our Republic may be "one and inseparable."

Done at Phenix, the Capital, this 15th day of May, in the year of our Lord, 1895.

By the Governor, L. C. HUGHES.

C. M. Bruce, Secretary of Arizona.

Mrs. D. W. Wickersham and Mrs. Ruch and daughter arrived in town from Bowie yesterday.

Al. Kempton was a visitor in town yesterday. Al. says they had a dandy rain in Eden Thursday.

THE recent rains here refreshed things generally in Graham County. The rains have begun at least a month earlier than usual.
