ARTICLE I. The name of this corporation shall be the Safford Commercial Club with its principal place of transacting business in the town of Safford, Graham County, Arizona Territory.

ARTICLE II. The purpose for which said corporation is formed are, to buy, purchase, appropriate or otherwise acquire, own, hold, bond, rent, lease, sublet, for either public or private purposes and uses, with full power to sell, transfer, convey, assign, rent, pledge, hypothecate or mortgage rights and property as follows: real estate, mineral oil bearing and mineral and agricultural lands, mining rights, water rights and water power for any beneficial use whatsoever, with the right to acquire by purchase or otherwise, road, bridge, dam, canal, mine, canal, ditch, electric light or power plants, street railways, telegraph and telephone lines, franchises, trams, cars, trolleys, ferries and other property or appliances that may be incident to or necessary for the operation of any of the purposes, or for putting into actual or beneficial use or operation any of the foregoing mentioned properties or interests, also to improve parks, streets, and public highways; and to organize, conduct and control for pleasure or for profit, any fair or exhibition of live stock, agricultural, horticultural, floral, mineral, manufactured, or other products of the Territory of Arizona or elsewhere.

ARTICLE III. The term of which said corporation shall exist shall be twenty-five years from and after the date of filing these articles in the office of the recorder of said Graham County, Arizona Territory.

ARTICLE IV. The affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, to be chosen by its stockholders, from among their number, annually on the first Wednesday after the second Tuesday in January of each year.

ARTICLE V. The capital stock of said corporation shall amount to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) divided into shares of the value of Five Dollars ($5.00) each. The highest amount of indebtedness to be contracted by said corporation shall be Five thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), and the private property of stockholders therein shall be exempt from the debts of said corporation. Capital stock shall be sold and paid in subject to the terms, terms and conditions imposed by order of the Board of Directors of said corporation.

ARTICLE VI. The officers of said corporation shall consist of a president, a vice president, secretary, a treasurer, a corresponding secretary, and such other officers as said Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be chosen annually by said Board at the first regular meeting of said Board after said annual election of the members of said Board of Directors. All officers, and members of said Board of Directors shall hold office for one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

ARTICLE VII. Said Board of Directors may make and adopt, subject to approval of its stockholders, all by-laws, rules and regulations for the management, direction and control of the affairs of said corporation, limited by the provisions of these articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE VIII. The names of the members of the Board of Directors who shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified are: G. C. Barry, Z. C. Prina, H. M. Jeter, G. C. Olney, J. M. Foster, H. W. Hudgen, George Jacobson, all residing at the town of Safford, Graham County, Arizona Territory.

ARTICLE IX. These articles may be altered, changed or amended by a two-thirds vote of the stockholders at any regular meeting, notice of the proposed change having been given in writing, at the next preceding regular meeting. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 15th day of April, 1901.

Articles of Incorporation

Of The Taylor Cyclone Mercantile Company.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the undersigned, J. H. Taylor, E. W. Taylor and J. A. Taylor, all residing at Safford, Graham County, Arizona Territory, do hereby associate ourselves into corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, and I do hereby certify:

ARTICLE I. The name of this corporation is and shall be the Taylor Cyclone Mercantile Company, and its principal place of business will be in the town of Safford, in Graham County, Territory of Arizona.

ARTICLE II. The names of the incorporators of this company are J. H. TAYLOR, E. W. TAYLOR, and J. A. TAYLOR of Safford, Arizona and J. L. FRAZER of Lampland, Texas.

ARTICLE III. The general nature of the business to be transacted by said corporation and the object for which it is formed is for the purpose of buying and selling all kinds of merchandise, both wholesale and retail, and carrying on a general mercantile business; the buying and selling of hay, grain, feed, farming implements, wagons, buggies, and other merchandise and mercantile commodities of whatsoever kind and character.

ARTICLE IV. The amount of the capital stock of said corporation shall be Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) divided into Two Hundred shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each. Fifty per centum of which shall be paid in on or before the date of filing these articles with the county recorder of said Graham County, and the remainder upon the call of the Board of Directors not later than the 1st day of January, 1902.

ARTICLE V. The corporate existence of this corporation shall begin on the 1st day of the filing of these articles with the county recorder of said Graham County, Arizona Territory, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

ARTICLE VI. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Four directors who shall be elected annually by the stockholders on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August of each year, at the principal place of business herein mentioned, notice of the time and place of holding said annual meeting and election to be given as provided by the by-laws of said corporation. Said directors shall hold office for a term of one year from the date of their election, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

The following named persons, being subscribers to the capital stock of said corporation, and whose names and places of residence are as follows: J. H. TAYLOR, E. W. TAYLOR, and J. A. FRAZER residing at the town of Lampland, in the State of Texas, shall constitute the Board of Directors of said corporation until the first Tuesday after the first Monday of August, 1901, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Vacancies in said Board shall be filled by the remaining members thereof for the unexpired term, which the member vacating was elected. A majority of such members shall constitute a quorum and any meeting of such quorum of said Board of Directors shall be deemed a legal meeting of the Board.

The officers of the corporation shall be: President, a Vice President, a Secretary and Treasurer, and a General Manager chosen annually by said Board of Directors from among their number, and such other officers from among the stockholders as said Board may deem necessary to carry on said business. The Board of Directors shall have power to remove any officer at any time and to fill all vacancies caused by removal or otherwise. The following named persons shall constitute the officers of said corporation until the first Monday in August, 1901: J. H. TAYLOR, President; E. W. TAYLOR, Vice President; J. L. FRAZER, Secretary and Treasurer; and J. A. TAYLOR, General Manager, unless sooner vacated by the provisions herein contained.

ARTICLE VII. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation at any time can become subjected or to which it shall be subject is the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars, $10,000.00.

ARTICLE VIII. The private property of the officers and stockholders of said corporation shall be exempt from the corporate debts thereof.

ARTICLE IX. The Board of Directors of said corporation shall have power to establish by-laws and make all regulations for the management of the affairs of said corporation not inconsistent with the laws of the United States and of this Territory.

ARTICLE X. These articles may be amended by a majority vote of the stock at any regular meeting or at any special meeting duly called after notice, for that purpose, and any amendment when so made shall be binding on all the stockholders of said corporation, and the President and Secretary of said corporation shall have the same force and effect as though signed and acknowledged by all the stockholders of said corporation.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 15th day of March, 1901.
