Trough the efforts of Rev. Wardlaw and Rev. Brewer who was recently here from New Mexico, quite a revival has taken place in the Baptist church.

Honck and Carpenter have just done the assessment work on the W. J. Bryan mine and report it to be in good shape. The work was done in the 200-foot level.

Dr. Warner will now be in Safford at Wakefield's Drug Store, morning and evening. Special attention to Ladies' Diseases; Kidney trouble and Chronic Constipation.

The Mormon church has presented the St. Johns Academy with sufficient funds to continue their school two months longer than the public funds will run it.

The goats of McEniry and Gaum in a foothills are reported to be doing fine. Although the weather has been cold, they saved all the kids. They expect a big crop of fleeces this season.

Grave fears are entertained that Mr. Ringer, who was injured by the falling of the adobe gable of his store last week will not recover. He has not been able to speak since the accident.

The faculty and students of the Academy gave a banquet and reception last night in the Academy at Thatcher in honor of Joseph Tanner and Joseph Summerhays, who are visiting Thatcher from Salt Lake City.

Henry Boggs was in town a few days from the Buckeye mines near Bowie. Mr. Boggs says that about thirty men are now at work, but this number will be greatly increased when the new concentrator is completed.

Harry Castle has sold his bicycle and stationery business to John Golding and the stock has been moved into the building formerly occupied by the Akin barber shop. The Castle building has been rented to Jerry Barton who will move his saloon into it.

John Sparks went to Naco this week, where he will engage in business. When he left here it was his intention to purchase the saloon at present owned by Deel & Barry. If the sale is made the latter gentlemen will open a new saloon in Tu son.

Wm. McKinzie returned last week from a trip to Florence. Mr. McKinzie reports that so far crops are looking well, but that there is very little water in the river. He says the only hope of that valley making any marked advancement on agricultural lines is the building of the San Carlos reservoir.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Strauss returned from New York last Monday night. Mr. Strauss went east for the purpose of personally selecting and ordering a new stock of goods for the Blue Store, which will consist of a complete stock of spring goods, including the very latest and most up-to-date styles of everything.

George A. McKinzie and son Alvin again started for Washington last Tuesday. It will be remembered that when they started before, young McKinzie was brought back on a warrant sworn to by Alexander & Hooks, charging him with obtaining money using false pretense. In the trial that followed it was shown that what he obtained was poker chips and the case was dismissed.

Frank D. Qualey came in from Mexico last Tuesday to look after his homestead across the river and returned on Wednesday. A strong company has been organized to operate the mines of which Mr. Qualey has control. The mines are reported to be very rich and extensive. While in El Paso a few days ago Mr. Qualey ordered a complete strongbox, which was shipped into Mexico by way of

SMOOTH ESCAPE.

Alvord and Bravo John Out Wit Mexican Officers.

Sheriff Del Lewis returned this afternoon from Guyita, Mexico, a point about seventy-five miles from Hermocillo. It was at this point that Alvord and Bravo Juan were located by the Mexican officials and everything arranged for their capture. So positive of the capture were the Mexican authorities that their assurances gave rise to the supposition that they had already been arrested, whereas they had merely located the fugitives, and knowing that their arrest was not suspected, the Mexican officials expected to make the capture at an opportune time. In this they reckoned without their host, as the two birds had flown instead of falling into the trap prepared for them, and when Sheriff Lewis arrived at the scene his trip was for naught and met with disappointment. The Mexican officers were much nettled in being foiled in their efforts to capture the fugitives and are redoubling their energies to bring them to bay. It is thought by the Mexican officers that some friend of the outlaws warned them a few moments before their arrival. Sheriff Lewis learned positively that Alvord and Bravo Juan had been in the vicinity for the past month. The two had been employed in the capacity of guards over a forest reserve belonging to a mining company to prevent Mexicans from cutting wood within its limits. The plan for their capture would have been easy of accomplishment but for the intervention of the unknown friend who warned them. The ultimate capture is yet looked for as the officials are determined.—Tombstone Prospector.

CONFIRMATION EXPECTED.

Since the above was published the Prospector has obtained the following information:

A report is out that Alvord and Bravo Juan have finally been captured and are now in jail in the city of Hermocillo, the capture having been effected by Col. Kosterlitzki and fifteen of his rurales.

No official news of the final capture of the outlaws has been received at the sheriff's office here, but the officials are inclined to believe there may be some truth in the report, as the Mexican officials were determined to effect their capture and were scouring the country thoroughly, immediately after the clever escape of the outlaw from the Mexican officers, an account of which appeared in these columns a few days since. Official information confirming or denying the news is expected at earliest possible time.

A Bad Wreck.

A wreck occurred to the heavy freight just before it entered Safford yesterday morning that was the worst in the history of the road. As the train rounded the curve where the road enters the lane east of town the rails spread allowing the front trucks of the fifth car from the caboose to leave the track.

The train ran this way for about 300 yards when the trucks struck a bunch of rotten ties and cut the ends off close to the rail. The fourth car passed over all right and remained on the track but the last three tipped over and as the train was moving pretty fast made a very bad wreck of the two cars loaded with coal. The caboose was not so badly wrecked although it turned over. Seven men were in it. One drummer's hand was badly scratched, but none of the others were injured.

For a distance of about 300 yards a large number of ties were cut in two and nearly every bolt holding the rails together were broken.

Badly Hurt.

On Tuesday last Chas. Blum, assisted by John Hutchinson, was hitching a pair of colts to a wagon on the Anderson ranch. After attaching them to the wagon they were frightened, became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Blum was thrown from the wagon and had his face slightly cut and severely bruised. He also received a severe bruise over the heart, which made it very difficult for him to breathe. Although the accident will lay him up for some time Dr. Wish reports that he is now progressing towards recovery very nicely.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Sad Sombre Story—Sequel of an Unhappy Love—Double Tragedy at Naco.

"I cannot live without her," said James Parks, and today he lies dead in the morgue at Bisbee and the wife he had sworn to cherish and protect awaits the last sad rites at Naco.

The town of Naco was thoroughly awakened yesterday when the news went out that a murder and suicide had been committed and that James J. Parks and Agnes Parks were lying dead at the place where the deed was done.

The act was fully premeditated and carefully planned. Everything in life was arranged and due preparations made for death. He had been practically in the employ of the Copper Queen company as engineer and worked all Sunday night, leaving his post of duty and at once driving to Naco and went to the house of Ben Goldman, where Mrs. Parks was stopping with her niece, Miss Edith McCall.

One of the employees in the post office, Parks went to Mr. Goldman's room and opened the door by mistake. He excused himself and went into the room where he found Mrs. Parks and Miss McCall. According to reports he at once requested her to return to him, which she absolutely refused to do and after repeated requests she answered, "I would take poison rather than live with you," to which he replied, "You want here to take poison," and flashed a 45-caliber revolver. Seeing the awful danger the helpless woman screamed frantically and vainly made an effort to escape. She rushed through the hall towards the back door closely pursued by her assailant. She passed through the door into the outer yard. The man leaped over the threshold and immediately the report of a pistol rang out upon the air. It was the death knell of the defenseless wife and she quickly sank to the earth. Another shot followed, which went wide of the mark. Hearing the screams a neighbor woman ran frantically towards him pleading for the murderer to desist from his fiendish work. But his work was yet incomplete. He stopped suddenly and cast a wild glance at the approaching woman. Turning his eyes upon his victim, who was writing in the agonies of death, he gave a last, lingering look. Then placing the revolver against his temple he discharged the weapon, staggered and fell a lifeless corpse.

The bullet which killed Mrs. Parks struck near the spinal column and passed through the body. The wound was abdominal and was at once pronounced fatal, although the sufferer lingered but a few hours and died at 3 o'clock.

The bullet entered the right temple of the man, passing through his head and came out behind the left ear, killing him instantly.

Att. Gen. C. T. Clark and wife have known Mr. and Mrs. Parks intimately for years. "They have been close neighbors to us since they came to Bisbee and we have been thoroughly acquainted with their domestic infelicities during their married life, which had been very unhappy. My wife and I have talked with them upon numerous occasions and did what we could to ease over their difficulties but it was beyond human possibility. Mrs. Parks was truly a fine woman in every particular but simply cherished an antipathy toward him that was beyond remedy or control. She was certainly an excellent house keeper, kind to friends and in many ways a child like. Her former husband had indulged her in luxuries during their marriage giving her his check when he was paid off in the mines at the end of the month. They always lived happy as far as I know and she got a divorce on the grounds of desertion and went immediately to Phoenix and married Parks when he was in the legislature. Some weeks ago they had trouble and she left him for a few days and went to work for Mrs. Warner in Dubecker canyon. I told Parks at the time if he desired his wife to come back to him he must do different. They lived together sometime after that when she went to Naco to live.

Death of Grandpa F. ye.
Burt Frye left on Sunday for San Francisco to meet his father who had just arrived from Manila in a very critical condition from cancer on the neck. He had suffered from this for a long time but said nothing about it.

Burt arrived in San Francisco on Wednesday but his father died the day before he arrived.

Alfred Frye was one of the oldest settlers in this valley, having settled in Safford among the first and remained here until the fall of 1898, when he left for Manila, after the death of his wife.

He built what is now known as Chlarson's saw mill and spent thousands of dollars building a good road into the mountains.

Grandpa Frye was one of the best men that ever lived. He was a good husband and father, a good neighbor and a good citizen. The remains will be brought to Safford and buried by the side of his wife.

Won The Case.

It will be remembered by readers of THE GUARDIAN that nearly two months ago A. A. McKinzie sued Thos. Austin for $100 claimed to be due him as a commission for selling the latter's farm to Mr. Brier. The case was brought before Judge Sparks but a change of venue was taken and it was transferred to Judge Comb's court at Central.

The trial was had last week and those who witnessed it say it was as good as a fair sized circus. At the conclusion of the trial the case was taken under advisement. Later a decision was rendered in favor of Mr. McKinzie. We understand that Mr. Austin will appeal the case to the district court.

A Pleasant Evening.

On Tuesday evening a very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Lennie Wish at the residence of Dr. Wish by a number of her young friends. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, music, etc. Dainty refreshments were also served.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Wish, Miss Lennie and Master Walter; Misses Walton, McEniry, Covert, Margie Wish, Maud and Pearl Kemp, Stratton, Kate and Mary Tuttle, Maud and Ethel Platt, Ella Snow and Mrs. Clark; Messrs. Williamson, Roundy, Shafer, Greer, Frazer, Bradley, Freukel, Lee, Nuto and Jov Stratton and Frank Patterson.

Sad Death.

One week ago last Saturday, Mrs. Brown, of Thatcher, gave birth to twin boys. On Tuesday following one of the children died. Shortly after this Mrs. Brown was attacked with pneumonia and died on Saturday last. The mother was buried on Monday and on Tuesday the other little one passed away. Now the mother and two babies lie side by side in the Thatcher cemetery.

Mrs. Brown leaves a husband and a little girl five years of age to mourn her loss.

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by the use of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a humming sound or a perfect deafness, and when it is entirely closed, the result is, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and the tube restored to its normal condition, a deaf will be destroyed forever; the ears out of use are caused by a growth, which is a thing but an inflamed condition of the membrane.

We will give the highest price for any case of deafness cured by our method. Send for circulars, free.

Rev. J. Bruce Goddard, evangelist, recently of Los Angeles, said to be one of the most successful evangelists of the time, is preaching to a crowded house every night in the M. E. church of this place. His portrayal of the trial of Christ by a jury of twelve men, and a lawsuit between infidelity and Christianity is simply grand. The story of his conversion from infidelity to Christianity and from the stage to the pulpit is very interesting.

On account of the wreck of the freight passenger train was several hours late yesterday morning, therefore our correspondence from the different towns down the valley did not arrive in time for today's paper.

Rev. Fred Allen, a former Missionary among the Navajo Indians, will preach in the Foresters Hall over the Drug Store next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.
