

Local News Items

Who's next?

Friday is decoration day.

Big doings at Lake Park Sunday.

No more "booze" for the east side.

Cut the weeds and clean the streets.

Wedding bells are still ringing in Krebs.

I. J. Jones is a new Miner subscriber this week.

Mrs. Lethia Hutchinson has moved to McAlester.

Miss Marie Hokey visited in Wilburton Sunday.

Mrs. C. O. Fee is home from a visit in Adamson.

Mrs. Tom Caswell is visiting her husband in Henryetta.

S. P. Suggett transacted business in Kiowa Monday.

It seems as though "everybody's doing it"—in Krebs.

Harry Kiple transacted business in Adamson Wednesday.

Mrs. Alex Rice was on the sick list a few days this week.

Silver Stizza has a position with the Marble works in McAlester.

Chas. Schade, the popular undertaker of McAlester was here Monday.

Phil Kewley has secured a good position at the Katy freight offices in McAlester.

The "Pole Cats" defeated the Old Town "Greasers" Saturday 3 to 2 11 innings.

It was a great time those McAlester boosters had last week—especially in Holdenville.

Mr. Hammers of Chant was a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Leslie Holstead this week.

The Whitaker Stock Co., one of the best on the road, are holding the boards at the Star Airdome in McAlester this week. It is the best company that has visited the dome in quite awhile.

Attorney Jack Harley was transacting business in Judge Heathcock's court Monday.

Fritz Haynes, son of Chaney Haynes has gone to Richmond, Tex., where he will visit with relatives during the summer.

The big Union revival at McAlester did not close Sunday night. The board decided to continue for another week.

Misses Barry, Lowerison and Hoosier are home from Ramona where they have been teaching for the past few months.

Alex Anderson of Wilburton has been engaged by the Osage Coal & Mining Co., to do some drilling at Nos. 5 and 8.

Judge Heathcock, one of the Miner's best friends handled us four subscriptions last week. Judge is a great believer in his home paper.

Wendell Haun, of Lockheart, Tex., is here on a visit to his aunt Mrs. S. A. Crockett. He will probably remain here if he finds a suitable position.

Mrs. Frank Munoz who underwent an operation at All Saints hospital some weeks ago has been brought home and at present is getting along very nicely.

O. R. Whitehurst and family departed Saturday night on the Oklahoma special for a thirty days visit to Oney's old home in Tennessee.

Those that have not paid their subscription to the Miner are cordially invited to come forth and liquidate. We need the money.

About thirty five members of the Red Men's order came over from Adamson Monday evening and met with the local tribe. A very interesting meeting was held. The Red Men lodge in Krebs has a large membership and is in a prosperous condition.

At the Airdome.

Following is a list of plays for the remainder of the week at the Star Airdome in McAlester, by the Whitaker Stock Co.:

Thursday night—"A Kentucky Romance."

Friday night—"In the Power of the Cross."

Saturday night—"A Country Kid."

Good business every night and every night a feature night.

Prices 10, 20, 30.

In our opinion and the opinion of a great number of the citizens the council made a very wise selection when they appointed M. D. Reed as night police. Mel Reed is one of the best citizens of Krebs and will be found always on the job.

Died, at Bache last Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, little Ira Mable, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Douglass. Funeral services were held from the family residence Monday at 2 p. m., by Rev. Noble, after which the remains were laid to rest in Red Oak Cemetery.

The young ladies that are taking part in the plays at the Opera House to night, wish to extend to Walter K. Hokey their profound thanks for the interest he has taken in drilling them and otherwise assisting them in their plays.

A vacant house belonging to John Silva was destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning. The house was used as a store room for feed of which quite an amount was destroyed. The loss was placed an $1200 with $400 insurance.

Married, at the home of Judge Murray Powell in this city last Monday afternoon Edgar Piercy to Miss Mary Cavanaugh. Both are well known in Krebs—the groom being a step-son of constable J. E. Douglass and the bride is the only daughter of P. Cavanaugh. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

SPECIAL

THE

Triangle Lektrik Iron

Fully Guaranteed

$2.50

This is your chance to secure a guaranteed Electric Iron at an unheard of price.

Choctaw Railway & Lighting Co.
Phone 561

Harry J. Oglesby's Pharmacy

SPECIAL CARE GIVEN TO PRESCRIPTIONS

Select Line of Gunther's Package Candies.

School Supplies of all Kinds.

Toilet Articles—the Best Line in Town.

Don't Forget the Place

See Our Line of Pipes

THE BIGGEST

Subscription Offer

OF THE YEAR

The Daily and Sunday Kansas City Journal and Oklahoma Miner ONE YEAR for

$3.00

To-Night

... AT THE ...

OPERA HOUSE

"Cupid on Wheels"

And "The Superior Sex"

The regular price of the daily and Sunday Journal is $4.00 per Year. The Weekly Journal and Oklahoma MINER One Year for $1.25. Lasts only a few days.