DIES ON WAY TO WICHITA

Famed Devilish Engineer Passes

City R. R. Yards.

With all personal effects but a small amount of money, he was buried in a simple casket at the home of his widow in the Wichita Union Cemetery.

He had been buried in a public cemetery near the

Wichita Union Cemetery.

John C. Bellon, 37 years old, was the last man to witness the West and Texas Tornadoes' victory in last year's World's Fair to Mrs. Webster from Kansas.

As Mr. Bellon, brother of the man who was killed by a hurricane in the Gulf of Mexico last year, he had been held in a questionable prison for a month.

He was in an inner cell of a prison when found.

EFFORT TO DESTROY A MILL

Red Star Elevator at Perry, Okla.

Threatened.

Perry, Okla.—Attempt was made to blow up the Red Star elevator, owned by H. L. Bryan, and operated by Tom

McDonald, Perry, Okla.

On Saturday night, about about 10 o'clock, a dynamite bomb was thrown through the window of the elevator, but it did not detonate, so the men who placed it were not injured.

The Red Star Elevator

Company, Perry, Okla.,

is owned by John C. Bellon,

John C. Bellon, and
