

DODSON STOPS SALE OF CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Taking Place of Dangerous, Sickening Chemical, Say Druggists

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.—Adv.

Belgian Fishing Industry.

Plans are being drawn for the construction of a large fishing harbor in Zeebrugge, which will not interfere with the working of the port as a commercial center. This is but a part of a project for the establishment of a national fishing industry. At present Belgium is almost entirely dependent on foreign imports, especially of preserved fish. The building of the new harbor will be undertaken by the government, which will also provide for the rapid handling and transportation of goods; private enterprise will establish the necessary cold storage and erect works for making cases and barrels and factories for pickling, drying and preserving fish.

In Conclusion.

"Dat boss was so slow," growled Rustus over the remains of the unfortunate equine that had just lost a race over a railroad crossing, "he was so slow dey ain't no boss in de world go slower."

"Come de Judgment day and St. Peter'll say, 'All yo' dead men come forth.' Den dey'll all come forth. Den he'll say, 'All yo' dead ladies come forth.' Fin'ly he'll say, 'Al yo' dead horses come forth.'"

"And jes' fo' spite dat boss he'll come fifth!"—American Legion Weekly.

GOT THE JOBS MIXED UP

But at That, Old Gentleman Had Equipped Coffin for the Crossing of the River.

Joseph C. Lincoln told this story at the luncheon of the Brooklyn colony of the Society of New England Women recently to illustrate the efficacy in the old days of New England rum.

"An old Cape Cod settler made both boats and coffins. One day he was called upon to make a coffin to be finished in two days. The old fellow demurred because he was busy making a boat. But the need for the coffin was imperative, so it occurred to the hustler, customers that New England rum might help. So a bottle was forthcoming. The old fellow took a swig and agreed that he reckoned he would have to accommodate the gentleman. In two days they returned to find the old man asleep in the corner, the bottle empty and the coffin ready, resting on two chairs. But the old captain had put a centerboard in the coffin."

SCRAPS OF HUMOR

FROM THE OLD WORLD.

P. K. Chu, editor of the Shanghai Daily News, who's in this country making a tour of American newspaper offices, has an Occidental sense of humor. A newspaper man during an interview with him jollied the editor by asking, "By the way, have you read the great Chinese novel, 'Chaw Main Street?'"

To which Mr. Chu promptly asked, "By Shu Loo?"—New York Evening Post.

A Beverage Disdained.

"I think I shall set up a soda fountain in Crimison Gulch," remarked the stranger.

"Don't do it," rejoined Cactus Joe with great earnestness. "The boys that used to ride in and shoot up a regular bar were only playful. What they would do to a soda water fountain would be plum vindictive."

Still There.

"Hello, old man! Seen Bobby Sponger lately?"

"Yes, Bobby's down at my shore place. I invited him down for a weekend."

"Why, I thought that was two weeks ago."

"It was, but you know Bobby is an expert at making both ends meet."

His Mind Clearing.

Doctor—Has your husband come out of his semi-unconsciousness yet, madam?

"Yes. I believe he had a lucid moment a little while ago."

Doctor—What did he do or say?

"He refused absolutely to take the medicine, and remarked that you were an ass."

Barring the Bard.

"Why don't you put on a good Shakespearean play?"

"Because," replied Mr. Stormington Barnes, "people who don't appreciate Shakespeare wouldn't go to see it; and people who do appreciate Shakespeare for some reason fail to care very much for my acting."

SELLING FOR $65 TOO

I understand that there is only about $5.27 worth of wool in the new "all wool" spring suits. Horrors! I'd not be seen in such an indecent outfit.

Test of Philosophy.

"I care not for the fangs of fate," said one whose name was Jeptha Tate. But when he to a dentist ran He was a sad and mournful man.

Symphony of Street Sounds.

"How can I compose in this racket?" snarled the composer. "The doorbell is jangling constantly, people are putting in coal, automobiles honk, and here comes a fish man with his horn." "Work 'em all into a jazz composition," suggested his wife.

An Experience.

"Don't you believe a soft answer turns away wrath?"

"What makes you doubt it?"

"My wife asked me what I thought of her biscuits and she got hopping mad when I told her they tasted like mush."

Malicious Information.

"Are those cars of Meude's natural?"

"I should say they were. I defy anybody to tell them from the real thing."

He Inquires.

"How about that million-dollar will case?"

"They settled it to the satisfaction of the attorneys on both sides."

A Mistake.

"Our pretty neighbor must be very much in love with her husband. I heard her the other day say she was going to do her best to make her Billy's life happy."

"Billy's not her husband; he's her poodle."

A WELL-KNOWN WOMAN

San Antonio, Texas.—"In my early married life I became very ill with feminine trouble and no doctoring or medicines gave me any relief. Finally I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was down in bed, unable to do my own housework, but it was only a short time before I was feeling stronger and all my pains left me. I took about six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and can say positively that it relieved me of all feminine trouble for I have been in perfect health ever since. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to other women."—MRS. ANNIE F. EDDIS, 224 Rogers St.
