BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told Briefly for Busy Readers.

F. B. Pope is spending the day in Troy.

Mrs. George F. Graves is in Troy today.

Sheriff George Corey of Shaftsbury was a visitor in town today.

John Cronin of North street is convalescing from his recent illness.

Miss Rose Watson of Safford street went to Waterford this morning.

J. H. Whitney is recovering from injuries received by a fall in his theatre.

A business thrives on advertising like a school boy on butter milk and corn bread.

Mrs. Walter Townsend who underwent an operation several weeks ago is convalescing.

Frank Adams of Cleveland, Ohio, is the guest of his sisters, Misses Blanche and Winifred Adams.

For the first time in several days the New York papers arrived this morning on the regular paper train.

E. E. Larrabee superintendent of the Bennington Electric company, went to New York Thursday on a short business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Winslow who were recently married in Troy, will start housekeeping in Mrs. Michael Loneragan's house on Division street.

W. J. Hurley has completed harvesting his ice on the North Bennington pond. His supply this year is said to be the best he has ever cut.

The farmer who uses the old-fashioned cradle in preference to the modern self-binder is on a par with that merchant who does not believe in advertising.

The new boilers for St. Francis de Sales church are not yet ready for use, consequently masses will be celebrated in Academy hall Sunday at 8 and 10 o'clock.

The pool table in the Foresters of America rooms is being overhauled. New cushions and covering will be installed. The table will be ready for use within a few days.

Billy Lander, the former Philadelphia infielder, who is well known to the baseball fans in Bennington, will coach the Williams college nine during the coming spring.

All members of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium class should make a special effort to be present at class tomorrow morning. The time is getting short for practice for the exhibition.

Joe Levin has rented the north side of the Putnam block on the corner of North and River streets. The large amount of business he has done since establishing his store, has necessitated additional floor space.

Among those from this town who attended the poultry show in North Adams Thursday were Dr. H. R. Bristol, W. C. Firth, Turner H. Cranston, Francis Connelly, Leon Eldred, Lyman and Marcus Armstrong and William Allard.

William Palmer who was severely injured several days ago by being struck with a trolley care near Hinsdillville, was removed from the Gibbons hospital Thursday to the Soldiers Home hospital. He is a veteran of the Civil war.

Edward Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, received a bad scalp wound Thursday night when the sled which he was coasting on Silver street collided with the gutter. He was the only one of the party on the sled who was injured.

The condition of Miss Caroline Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Schultz of the west part of the town, who was for some time critically ill following an attack of scarlet fever, is now reported to be somewhat improved.

Coasting on the village street is seldom better than at present. Thursday night large crowds were enjoying the sport both on South and Silver streets. These streets were lined with sightseers who seemed to enjoy the fun nearly as well as the coasters.

The funeral of Harold A. son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Winslow, was held from the home of his grandmother on Main street this afternoon at 2:30. Rev. W. W. Brunk, pastor of the Methodist church officiated. The body was placed in the vault at Bennington Center.

The Pittsfield Electric Street Railway company is to make an expenditure of from $40,000 to $50,000 in additional equipment for the purpose of improving the services on its different lines. It was reported yesterday in Pittsfield that there was to be a new superintendent but officials denied this.

The first event in the Y. M. C. A. athletic contest will take place in the gymnasium this evening in the form of a rope climbing contest. The stunt is to see who can climb an 18-foot rope in the shortest time. The amateur championship record of 3:35 seconds is held by Edward Kunath of Jersey City.

Ray Collins, the former University of Vermont twirler who played with the Bennington team last summer has fallen in line with the other Boston American players, his signed contract having been received by the Red Sox manager. The club has 14 pitchers signed to report at Hot Springs March 4.

A book of poems has been published by Hon. John H. Flagg, former clerk of the United States Senate and a prominent New York lawyer. Many flattering compliments have been paid the work by leading Vermont and New York papers and distinguished men. Mr. Flagg was born in Wilmington and at one time practiced law in this town. During the past several years Mr. Flagg has been an invalid.
