TO CARRY OUT WILL OF MRS MARY BAKER EDDY

Bill in Equity Filed To Fulfill Its Terms

FOR THE MOTHER CHURCH

Suit Brought by Directors Who Seek Possession of Dead Leader's Property.

Boston, Feb. 2.—A move to carry out the terms of the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy was made late yesterday when a bill in equity was filed in the Supreme Judicial court of Massachusetts asking that the executor of the will and the trustees of certain trust indentures executed by Mrs. Eddy in 1907 and 1908, be instructed to turn over her real estate in Massachusetts to the directors of the First Church of Christ, known as the Mother Church, in Boston, the residuary legatee under the will. The amount of the residuary legacy is estimated at $1,500,000. The bill in equity declares that the estate law, limiting gifts to churches to property producing not more than $2,000 a year does not cover the present case, inasmuch as the residuary clause of Mrs. Eddy's will leaves the property referred to to be held by the petitioners in trust for charitable purposes, the income from which is to be used, practically exclusively, for more effectively promoting and extending the religion of Christian Science as taught by me, Mrs. Eddy.

WOMAN LIED TO BURLINGTON POLICE AND THEN CONFESSED IT

Burlington, Feb. 2.—A curious story of a woman's attempt to rid herself of her two-year-old son has been unfolded to the police by Mrs. Marguerite Laporte, who is at present living in North Underhill with the family of Louis Hill, and who says that she had formerly lived in a number of other Vermont towns.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Laporte, a young woman about 24 years of age, accompanied by the boy, an attractive youngster, appeared at the police station and said she desired to place the boy, whose parents she did not know, in a local institution, as she could no longer take care of him.

In answer to the questions put by the chief as to how she came to have the child with her, she said that a week before she was coming up from Springfield, Mass., where she had been working for the past few years, she had been told by a woman at Bellows Falls, a woman who sat near her had accosted her and asked if she would take the child for a few minutes while she went into the next car. This Mrs. Laporte consented to do and the child was placed in the car.

Several stations had been passed and considerable time had elapsed before Mrs. Laporte became anxious and upon investigation the woman who gave her the child was nowhere to be found on the train. It then had taken her as a means of disposing of the child, but she could admit no other course than to bring him along as there was no one else to take care of him. She then brought him to Burlington and later to Underhill, where she had been employed. She then pleaded with the police to let her go as his presence prevented her from obtaining employment.

This is the story she told the police but when she got all through the chief put some questions to her which made numerous holes in her rather dramatic recitation. When it came to telling all about herself, she attempted to evade a definite answer and finally broke down and said that her entire story was a fabrication told to help rid herself of the boy.

She then pleaded with the police to let her go as she was unable to do so for no other reason, because there was no excuse for holding her, there being no law against lying. She was then told to apply to either one of the orphan asylums but had not done so last evening.

EXILED FOR SEDITION

Indian Student Arrested in London Sentenced at Bombay.

Bombay, Feb. 2.—Savarkar, the Indian student who was arrested in London on a charge of sedition, was sentenced Tuesday to transportation for life.

A diplomatic question arose between France and Great Britain over the arrest. Savarkar escaped from the British warship at Marseilles and was arrested either by a French gendarme or an Indian policeman. France contended that Savarkar, having escaped to French territory from a British ship should not have been taken by the British police without due process of extradition. The French government also insisted that if Savarkar had been arrested in Marseilles by an Indian policeman it constituted an invasion of French territory.

The matter was finally referred to the Hague tribunal, which will open deliberations on the case Feb. 14. M. De Beernaert of Belgium presiding.

CAP GREATEST OIL WELL

Divers Who Perform Difficult Task Are Amply Rewarded.

Tampico, Mexico, Feb. 2.—The wonder oil well of the Mexican Eagle Petroleum Co. of Petros del Llano, which has been flowing at the rate of about 175,000 barrels a day for nearly three weeks, has been capped. The work was done by divers, the mouth of the well being covered to a depth of ten feet by a lake of oil.

Lord Cowdry, head of the Pearson interests, owners of the well, superintended the capping operation in person. He presented the workmen with large sums of money as a reward for their successful accomplishment of the job.

WORST COLDS BREAK EASILY

How to Cure a Bad Cold and End Grippe Misery in a Few Hours

Nothing else that you can take will break your cold or end grippe so promptly as a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken. The most miserable neuralgia pains headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress begin to leave after the very first dose.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery so promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

BAD R. R. ACCIDENT

William Bashaw and Two Others Injured.

Rutland, Feb. 2.—As if by a miracle the many passengers and employees of the Rutland railroad train due in this city at 1:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon escaped injury, with three exceptions, yesterday morning when the entire train was derailed at L'Acadie, P. Q., the engine lying fully 50 yards from the track and every car turned over and three of them smashed.

Engineer Henry Lacombe of this city was buried in the coal from the tender and he is seriously injured nearly suffocating to death before aid reached him. The fireman, William Bashaw, also of this city, was seriously injured, being badly cut about the head and body and also feared that his spine was hurt.

Bowling along at a rapid pace, guessest to be between 30 and 40 miles an hour, the train known as the Flyer or No. 64, attempted to take the siding at L'Acadie. The cause of the accident may never be known, but it was stated this morning after the arrival of the sleeper that the engine ran into an open switch. Another report received at the same time was to the effect that the rail was broken and this threw the engine from the rails, he heavy machine dragging the other five cars after it. The train consisted of an engine, a combination mail and baggage, two passenger coaches and a Pullman. It was between Montreal and St. Johns that the accident occurred.

Besides the Rutland men named, Mrs. Laura LaBombard of Isle La Motte, P. Q., and Rev. George R. Stair of Middlebury were injured, Mrs. La Bombard probably fatally.

TAFT COMMUTES SENTENCE OF F. D. WARREN

Must Pay $100 Fine To Be Collected Civilly

CAN'T BE A MARTYR

Editor of Socialist Paper Will Not Serve Six Months at Fort Scott.

Washington, Feb. 2.—President Taft yesterday balked the desire of Fred D. Warren, editor of The Socialist Appeal to Reason to go to jail as a martyr. After holding up the mandate of the court which would have sent Warren to the Fort Scott Penitentiary for six months, in addition to a fine of $100, he ordered that the sentence be commuted to a fine of $100. Warren will not even have an opportunity to enter a cell by refusing to pay this sum, for the President orders that it be collected by civil process only.

Warren was convicted of a violation of the postal laws for circulating through the mails on his office envelopes an offer printed in red ink of $1,000 reward to the person or persons who will kidnap ex-Gov. Taylor and return him to the State officials of Kentucky where he is wanted on a charge of murdering Governor. His reason for making the offer was the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Haywood, Boyer, and Pettibone, who were taken from Colorado to Idaho for trial without extradition. The court held that even if they were kidnaped no offense had been committed against the Constitution or laws of the United States.

I want to put it up to the Supreme Court," said Warren in an editorial, "to decide a case of kidnapping where the victim is a Republican politician and a personal friend of the President of the United States."

Judge Pollock rules at Warren's trial that kidnapping, as invited by Warren although not an offense against the Federal laws, was against the laws of Indiana. Warren's term of imprisonment was to have begun Tuesday.

THIRTY KILLED BY DYNAMITE IN NEW YORK

Explosion at Pier in Cummumpaw, N. J.—Cause Unknown.

New York, Feb. 2.—A cargo of dynamite, in transit from a freight car to the hold of a lighter moored at pier No. 7, Communipaw, N. J., let go at just one minute past noon yesterday. 150 yards south of the Jersey Central terminal in the wide spread ruin that followed seven men are known to have been killed, seven more are known to be missing, hundreds were wounded and varying reports leave from fifteen to twenty unaccounted for. Thirty seems to be a conservative estimate of the dead, and property damage will hardly fall below $750,000.

The explosion is variously attributed to the dropping of a case of dynamite and to a boiler explosion on a boat. Just what was the direct cause will probably never be known. The Jersey Central terminal was wrecked; three ferry boats in the slips were torn and splintered; lower Manhattan across the river was shaken from the street level to the top of the Singer tower; severe damage was done in Brooklyn, Staten Island and the immigrant detention station on Ellis Island; the shock was felt on Long Island in Amityville, 35 miles distant, and in New Jersey at Long Branch, 40 miles distant. The damage is so widely scattered that it is impossible as yet to estimate it more than roughly as being in Manhattan alone it is placed at $100,000 on Ellis Island at from $10,000 to $25,000 and in all three quarters of a million appears to be a fair estimate.

The lighter receiving the dynamite—the Katherine W., owned by James Healing of Jersey City—standing later with her crew of seven men, including the master, Edward Traver. Alongside the lighter Whistler, owned by the American Storage and Delivery company of New York, was so badly shattered that she sank with her crew of two, while the British steel barkentine Ingrid, a Biscuit's loss to the south, was stripped of her rigging and the lives of two dock hands aboard were snuffed out. Fragments of one man's head was found swinging high on a tangled piece of rope.

The Katherine W., was tied to the outer end of the pier and dock hands were unloading a consignment of fifty pound boxes from two freight cars to the lighter when the crash came. The Katherine W., simply disappeared, not a splinter of her hull was found. The Whistler dissolved into wreckage. The freight car went up in a puff of dust. On the rear deck of the barkentine Ingrid were found a pair of iron trucks. They may be the trucks of the dynamite car or of one of the other four cars standing near that were also lost to life.

Fifty yards back stood another car of dynamite. The explosion ripped the roof of it, and broke in the doors, but the dynamite did not explode. What might have happened had the second car added its chained forces to the first can hardly be guessed the visible terrors of the actually were enough. On board the Ingrid the steel mizenmast snapped off above the lower yard. Everything about the mizenmast was leveled flat, but the dynamite car of one of the other four cars standing near that were also lost to life.

For 100 feet the pier end itself was utterly demolished. The planking seemed to have been ground to powder. Girders, planking, cross stays, all the massive frame work of a pier built to uphold locomotives and loaded trains, were as nothing. A steel gondola car on the southernmost track looked like an old hat that had been used for a foot ball.
